DR. WEBSTER IN JAIL.

We learn that Dr. Webster has made fre quent complaints to Mr. Andrews, the jailor. says the foston Mail, that the occupants of the cells in his immediate vicinity are in the habit of shouting out to him at night, uttering all sorts of unkind epithets such as, "You're the man that cut up Dr. Parkman." "You're a marderer " You're a blood thirsty scoundrel." &c. &c. Mr. Andrews had no other knowledge of this matter, except what he heard from Dr. Webster. He one night placed two men in the passage way that leads to the cells, where they remained cutil morning but heard no unusual or unpleasant noises. The day following this the Dr. repeated his complaint to Mr. Andres, saving that "last night the same outrages bad been repeated? Mr. A. knowing this not to be true, of course concludes that the Doctor's imagination is so wrought upon, or that his dreams are of such an unpleasant character, as to produce in some degree mental aberration. Dr. Webster has lost much of the buoyancy of spirit that susof the jail.

THE MAYOR OF PITTSBURG, Joseph Barker, elected last week over the Whig and Democratic candidates, was released from prison on the day of his election by a pardon from Governor Johnston, Barker, it will be remembered, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment about two months ago on the charge of persisting in the use of indecent and blasphemous language in the streets, in his preaching against the Catholics-something similar to the harrangues of the Monk of La Trappe, and about as disgusting, indecent and corrupting to public morals. The Pittsburg Gazette, of Thursday says:

"Immediately on the conviction and sentence of Barker, great indignation was ex-pressed by a large number of citizens among whom were many of our most worthy inhabtants; and the determination was then expressed to run him for mayor. In this feeling there was less of personal regard for Barker than of opposition to the Catholics, who were charged with being his persecutors, and of indignation at what they deemed an infringement of the right of public speech.

You are pleased to launt me with a defecive education. While admitting the truth of this charge I must say that I have long since learned to regard it as an incidental misfortune arising from my circumstances in early life. As such I may acknowledge it but there can be no propriety in imputing it o me as a fault, or taunting me with it as a crime. I was educated at an 'old field school house, at small expense; while you, sir were educated at West Point Academy, at consid erable expense I poorly and at individual cost ;-you highly, and at public tost. Brant's is the Cheapest.

brant's is the Cheapest, because One Bottle of it has more medical, curative matter in it, and, in consequence, cures more disease in much less time, than one bottle of any other medicine.

But BRANT'S PURIFIES is soid for only ONE DOLLAR a bottle; and me a bottle of it has cured, and is capable of curing. Four Times as much disease as one buttle of sar-paperilla, therefore, paraquerilla, it consequence of its less, power and less medical efficacy, should be sold at ne mere than Theorie Fine Centre per Bottle, to be as cheap as the Prairries at One Dollar.

Mr. J. B. HASKIN, of Rome, Oncide Co. M. Y., had Jerey that four years—was confined to his bed the last year—he was so much diseased and debilitated as to be unable to raise his houst to his head. It he had the best medical advice—had used all of the best surresparillas to no good effort—gut worse and worse, and was considered to be in a Dying State and could not live themty, four hours longer, when he commenced using BRANT'S PURIFIEM. His applied was raisen nearly of, from ear to sar—a hole was caten through his sciadhips under his chin, so that he breathed through his his act which he can be sured through the hole—his ar was so eaten around that it could be tipled up out of its place, it only holding by a small piece—the use of one arm was destroyed by two Uncers—on Ulers under the sum, as large as a man's hand, had nearly cetter through his aide tato his body. Thus, he was afflicted with Thenty such puried, asciel, effective Ulers, on various parts of his person. For further and full particulars, see our Pamphice.

Dott. Thomas Williams, one of the most skilful physicians of Rome, was called to see Haskin the day before no commenced using throats Parifer. Doct. W. examined birn, and then told him that all the materiaes is the world chall not clert him—that lile case was

Worse than Hopeless!

Worse than Hopeless!

Now here Mr. HASKINS statement of cure. He said: My wife nectured one bottle of BRANT'S PURIPYING EXTRACT of Bissell & Leonard, Druggists, of Romë I commenced using that and began to get better THAT DOTTLE enabled me to get of my bed, where I had been confined one year—the second bottle enabled me to Walk and of ske house—the THURD bottle enabled me to Walk Two Miles, to Hume Centre, where I procured Six Bottles more; and when I had Suitshed using them. Streetzen out of Therety there HAD HEALED UP—and three bottles more effected a PERFHOT CURE of all the Ulcers, and restored me to good health.
