

Miscellaneous Matter.

We beg leave to call the readers attention to the following beautiful piece of Poetry. We know not a more precious gem of a thought in the world of literature. We believe it was written by Mrs. C. M. Sawyer of N. Y. It breathes with a sweet and gentle influence, and we know that many of our readers will be pleased to preserve it.

A VISIT TO HEAVEN. The ideas embodied in the following poem are said to have been really uttered by a little boy five years old.

Oh I long to lie dear mother, On the cool and fragrant grass, With nought but the sky above my head, And the shadowing clouds that pass.

And I want the bright, bright sunshines, All around about my bed, I will close my eyes and God will think Your little boy is dead!

Then Christ will send an angel To take me up to him; He will bear me, slow and steadily, Far through the ether dim.

He will gently, gently lay me Close to the Saviour's side, And when I'm sure we're in heaven, My eyes I'll open wide.

And I'll look among the angels That stand about the throne, Till I find my sister Mary, For I know she must be one.

And when I find her mother, We will go away alone, And I will tell her how we're mourned All the while she had been gone?

Oh! I shall be delighted To hear her speak again, Though I know she'll ne'er return to us— To ask her how we've vain!

So I'll put my arms around her, And look into her eyes, And remember all I say to her, And all her sweet replies.

And then I'll ask the angel To take me back to you— He'll bear me, slow and steadily, Down through the ether blue.

And you'll only think, dear mother, I have been down to play, And have gone to sleep beneath a tree, This sultry summer day.

CALIFORNIA EMIGRATION FALLING OFF.—The steamer Empire City, which sailed from New York for Chagres last Friday, took only thirty-five passengers. A few months ago these steamers carried from 300 to 400 passengers nearly every trip.

THERE is a bliss in a kiss, when you get such a boon, as you go, o'er the snow, in the light of the moon, a sleigher; says the Boston Bee, in very great glee; and it's not a bad one, for the Editor's had one.

IT is stated that the survey of the Isthmus of Panama, by Col. Hughes, cost $50,000, though the strictest economy was practiced.

THE Massachusetts State Prison is overrun with a greater number of persons than ever before.

FREEMAN'S TOAST.—Cupid and his torch—the only incendiary that kindles a flame which the engines cannot quench.

AN IRISHMAN, who lived in an attic, being asked what part of the house he occupied, answered, "If the house were turned topsy-turvy, I'd be livin' on the first floor!"

A wag on hearing that a chimney sweep had given up business, expressed his astonishment, for he thought the business suited him completely.

THE New York Mercury is responsible for the following neat pun: "How is it that the trees can put on a new dress, without opening their trunks?"

"It is because they leave out their summer clothing."

A WAY TO GET OFF.—"Play, madam," said Jonathan, in a low tone of voice, at the close of a quilting party, "shall I see you home?"

"No," answered the lady sharply. "Perhaps you didn't understand me," said Jonathan aloud.

"Not at all, I asked you—how's your marm?" said Jonathan laughing.

TO PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS AND COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

DR. J. N. KEELER & BRO. would respectfully invite attention to their stock of English, French, German and American Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Paints, Oils, Dye Stuffs, Glassware, Perfumery, Patent Medicines, &c. Having a full supply of Fresh Drugs and Medicines, we respectfully solicit Country Dealers to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere, promising one and all who may feel disposed to extend to us their patronage, to sell them genuine Drugs and Medicines, on as liberal terms as any other house in the City, and to faithfully execute all orders entrusted to us promptly and with dispatch.

One of the proprietors being a regular physician, affords ample guarantee of the genuine quality of all articles sold at their establishment.

We especially invite druggists and country merchants, who may wish to become agents for Dr. Keeler's Celebrated Family Medicines, (standard and popular remedies,) to forward their addresses to the undersigned.

Soliciting the patronage of dealers, we respectfully remain, J. N. KEELER & BRO., Wholesale Druggists, No. 294 Market Street, Philadelphia, September 15, 1849.—ly.

LARD LAMPS. CORNELIUS & CO. No. 178 Chestnut St. We respectfully announce that they have just finished the most extensive assortment of LAMPS, they have ever offered for sale, comprising ELEGANT NEW STYLE CHANDELIERS, BRACKETS, PENDANTS, MANTEL LIGHTS, &c.

In great variety, and of ORIGINAL DESIGNS. Much attention has been paid to ECONOMY, in the construction of these Lamps, and such an amount of light is produced, and such a saving of fuel, as to render the least consumption of Lard.

Recent improvements in the manufacturing, with the introduction of new and perfected machinery, enables them to sell a very GREAT REDUCTION from former prices, and all articles before leaving the manufactory, are carefully inspected, and are warranted perfectly tight, and to give satisfaction.

WINDSLOW'S BALSAM OF HOREHOUDS. Ingratitude is the basest crime of man.

WE are not among that class of Editors who for a few dollars will, (at the expense of truth and honesty) "crack up" an article and bring it into rapid sale; neither are we willing to remain silent after having tested the utility of an improvement in the art of science or art. Our readers will recollect we told them we were unwell with a sore throat and violent cold some few weeks ago. Well, we purchased two bottles of WINDSLOW'S BALSAM OF HOREHOUDS, and so sudden was the cure, that we forgot we ever had a cold. Those who are afflicted, may try it upon our recommendation.—Lewiston Telegraph.

A fresh supply of the above valuable medicine just received, and for sale in Sunbury, by John W. Friling, Mary A. McCay at Northumberland, and at wholesale by Frederick Klett, & Co., corner of 2d and Southwilk streets, Philadelphia. Philadelphia, Sep. 20th, 1849.—9 no.

ROSE OILMENT, FOR THE TREATMENT OF THE FOLLOWING CERTIFICATE from Capt. Devos, of the well known and popular Steam Boat Captain (of the "Devos").

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 10th, 1848. Several years since I was attacked with a breaking out on my neck in the form of a Pimple, which I was cured by the use of the Rose Oilment. It is a most valuable medicine, and I would not be without it. I used it on my face until it reached the upper part of the cheek. During the winter of 1847, I was afflicted with a severe case of the same disease, which I cured by the use of the Rose Oilment. I would not be without it. I used it on my face until it reached the upper part of the cheek. During the winter of 1847, I was afflicted with a severe case of the same disease, which I cured by the use of the Rose Oilment. DIAMOND POWDER FOR RAZOR STROPS.

THIS Powder is warranted for superior to any thing in use for smoothing a razor before using it to the face. It is made of the finest diamond powder, and all kinds of fine razors may be applied to any kind of strop. Also superior Razor, Knives, and Penknives, wholesale and retail, by ALFRED BENNETT, Agent. Depot of Fine Razors, Brushes, and Cheap Family Goods, No. 18 South Fifth Street above Chestnut Philadelphia.

TESTIMONIALS. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15th, 1849. This may certify that I have used one of the Strops prepared with HAYES' MAGIC DIAMOND POWDER, and can attest in the most unequivocal manner, that there is nothing can be found that will produce the same effect in my opinion, and must say to others, try it, and you will find it superior to any razor in exchange. Truly say that I never knew such a sharp razor as this before.

JOHN SCOTT, Iron Saw Maker, 41 S. Third St. PHILADELPHIA, October, 1848. A very hard beard and tenacious hair have compelled me to seek and use many contrivances designed to make shaving easy and pleasant, but with indifferent success, until I made use of the Magic DIAMOND POWDER, used by Alfred Bennett, and Russell's Shaving Cream. Their united powers act like magic, and I hope by their use, to remove the most stubborn beard, without irritating the skin or temper of our owner.
