THE GOOD WIFE

There can be no doubt but that a good wife is a great blessing, and, it is also true, that all wives desire to be good. Many, however, think they can be good without exertion. This is an error. Mental exertion, and sometimes sacrifice of feeling is required But see the reward. The influence of a good wife is immense. The power of a wife for good or evil is irresistible. Home must be the seat of happiness, or it must be forever unknown. A good wife is to a man wisdom and conrage, and arrength and endurance. A bad one is confusion, weakness, discomfiture and despair. No condition is hopeless when the wife possesses firmness, decision and economy. There is no outward prosperity which can counteract indolence, extravagance and folly at home. No spirit can long endure bad domestic influence. Man is strong, but his heart is not adamant. He delights in enterprise and action; but to sustain him he needs a tranquil mind, and a whole heart. He expends his whole moral force in the conflicts of the world. To recover his equanimity and composure, home must be to him a place of repose, of peace, of cheerfulness, of comfort, and his soul renews its strength, and again goes forth with fresh vigor to encounter the labor and troubles of the world. But if at home he finds no rest, and is there met with bad temper, sullenness, or gloom, or is assailed by discontent, or complaint, or reproaches, the heart breaks, the spirits are crushed, hope vanishes, and the man sinks in the construction of these Lamps, and such are into despair.

YOUNG MEN.

There is no mortal object so beautiful to me as a conscientious young man. I watch may be before him, but we know that his and are warranted perfectly tight, and to give satislight is behind them and will beam forth faction. again; the blaze of others, popularity may outshine him, but we know that though unseen, he illuminates his own true sphere. He resists temptation not without a struggle, for that is not virtue; but he resists and conquers, he bears the sarcasm of the profligate, and it stings him, for that is a trait of virtue. but heals with its own pure touch. He heeds not the watchword of fashion, if it leads to ting God, and rejoices in it.

Woman is sheltered by fond arms and loving council; old age is protected by its experience, and manhood by its strength; but the young man stands amid the temptations of the world like a self-balanced power. manded some victims; and the intrepid Ney, who had well nigh put the crown again on Bonaparte's head at Waterloo, was to be one of them. Condemned to be shot, he was led to the garden of Luxembourg on the morning of the 7th of December, and placed in front of a file of soldiers, drawn up to kill him. One of the officers stepped up to bandage his eyes, but he repulsed him, saying, "Are BEDSTEADS, of every pattern and price, you ignorant that for twenty-five years I have been accustomed to face both ball and ballet?" He then lifted his bat above his head and, with the same calm voice that had steadied his columns so frequently the roar and tumult of battle, said, "I declare before of God and man, that I never betrayed my conntry." He then turned to the soldiers, and, including varieties never before to be had in Surbury, such as Manogany, Black Walnur order, "Soldiers, fire!" A simultaneous discharged followed, and the "bowest of the the latest styles, and warranted to be excelled by brave" sank to rise no more. He who had fought fice hundred battles for France, not one against her, was shot as a traitor! As I looked on the spot where be fell, I could not but eigh over his fate. True, he broke his oath of allegiance-so did others, carried away by their attachment to Napoleon, and the enthusiasm that hailed his approach to Paris. -Still, he was no traitor.

DIVORCE IN PENNSYLVANIA.-Judge Coulter, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, delivered on Monday, the opinion of that trabunal in the case of Jones vs Jones. That decision, in fact, establishes that divorces by the Legislature for causes within the jurisdiction of the courts in divorce cases, are unconstitutional and null. The effect of this decision will be to invalidate seven-eighths of the divorces granted by the Legislature sivie cannot be surpassed. Doing a cash business since 1836. PRILADELPHIA, Feb. 15th, 1848.

This may certify that I have used one of the Strops prepared with HAYNES' MAGIC DIAMOND POWDER, and can attest in the most unequivocal manner, that there is nothing can be found that will produce the same effect in my optimion, and must say to others, try it, and you will find it superior to any heaetofore in use. I can truly say that I never knew what a sharp razor reas" an excellent remedy, and not surpassed by any medicine in use.

The history of this medicine is peculiar. It has made its way to public favor solely by the force of its own mirrissic merits. No artificial means have been used to give it no torrety and thrust it upon public attention. It has never before even been advertised, but having first shown its remembed efficacy in the family of the proprietor, and by him afterwards administered to his afflicted friends and exqualitances with a like result, its reputation gradually extended until it is known in the most distant parts of the Union, as a medicine of unrivalled virtues in the care of Asthum or Philinine. Its only heraid and its only energy has been the story of its wanderful efficacy, as told from mouth to month or by letter from friend to friend. In every instance where these Bitters have been used, and the result made known to the proprietor, they have proved a remedy.

CURIOUS CASE OF CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely a day paires that there are a number of cases of consumption reported as cares by the use of Dr. Townsen's Saraspurilla. The following was recently received:

1r. Townsen-Dear Sir: For the last three years I have been afflicted with caneral debility, and serve of con-Crived:

Dr. Townsend-Dear Sir: For the list three years I have been affected with general debility, and nervous consumption of the list stage, and did not expect to ever gain my health at all. After going through a course of medicine under the care of some of the most distinguished regular physicians and members of the Board of Health in New York and elsewhere, and spending the most of my certaining in some paper of your Sameparilla trendved to try it. After using six bottles I found it done me given good, and called to bee you at your office; with your advice. I persever in taking the Sarseparilla, and have been able to attend to my usual labors for the last four mouths, and I hope by the blessings of God and your Sarseparilla to continue my health. In helped me beyond the expectations of all who knew my case.
