HIGHWAY ROBBERY AND HORRIBLE MUR-DER .- The Camden Democrat, of Saturday, says that a person engaged in the oyster trade between that city and Egg Harbor, was most brutally murdered on his return home, on Thursday night. It appears that the unfortunate man, driving his wagon along the road, a few miles below the Blue Anchor Tavern, in Camden county, (the night being very dark.) his horses were stopped, and himself taken from the wagon, and in the struggle that ensued in the attempt to take his money, his throat was cut from ear to ear. The body was then thrown into the wagon, and the horses driven into a thicket, where they were discovered tied the next

CENTRAL RAILROAD .- The Pittsburg Gazette has a letter from Philadelphia, in which the railroad now in progress between the two cities is thus spoken of: "I am informed by the President of the Central Road that the Board of Directors have ordered the whole of the heavy work of the line (including the mountain portion of it) to be immediately put under contract. The President informs | Also, a large and general assortment of French me that the whole line with the exception of some twenty-five miles, will be entirely completely by the fall of 1851.

RHYMING .- A New York paper, some time ago, published a report of a police case in the following humerous style:

"One Christopher Twist ordered Hannah M'Grist to stand still and be kissed. But Hannah gave such a deuce of a shout, at what Twist was about, that a watchman named Top, came up with a hop, and marched Twist to a shop. But M'Grist not being there, to the kissing to swear, Twist was He is also importing and dealing most extensively cleared by the chair, and made tracks like a

There is abundance of rich zinc ore in Lehigh coun- Bags, and an elegant assortment of superior Euty, and preparations are being made to turn it to account .- Miners' Journal.

THE NICARAGUA ROUTE TO THE PACIFIC .-A contract has been made with a celebrated builder for a light draft steamboat for the river navigation on the Atlantic side of this new route. She will carry about 250 passengers, and an elegant barge is to be built to be towed by the steamboat, to carry as many more. Post coaches will be put on the other end of the route so to form a comfortable and rapid means of communication between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

BRAN FOR MANURE. - Wheat bran is said to be a good fertilize for corn. Farmers are using it in the State of Deleaware with great success. A handful is put in a hill. The bran is first put in and covered with a thin layer of soil, after which the corn is dropped on top of it. Fermentation of the bran taken place, which produces the result referred to. It also operates well on wheat .- St. Mary's Beacon.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT .- The entire sum of money raised by the churches of Great Britain for missionary purpose is about $1,-750,000, by those of America $750,000: maing together, $2,500,000; and yet this sum scarcely equals the annual gifts at Kalee's Temple, Calcotta.

SALT MINE DISCOVERY .- A salt mine has been discovered near Woodstock, Lower Canada. It is said the mine will yield sufficient to supply the whole of Western Canada.
