 Decron CHARLES Oscion,
 Dear Sir,—I have read with much interest, your little TRARATISE upon the "causes, treatment and cure" of the febrile diseases which have so extensively prevailed in our contry during the last few months—an interest increased to doubt, by the fact that I have individually suffered so much from them. Though I feel myself very incompetent to indige safely upon a subject so entrely professional, yet your theory seems to me well reasoned, and your conclusions just, and I think withat, that your pamphiet is calculated and the produce much good.

sions just, and I think withal, that your pamphiet is calcal lated to produce much practical good. Speaking of the medicine he says :--It fully justified your flattering expectations, and as a safe, convent. A, and popular result, you experience, so far, induces me to believe that it will prove a great public benefit. I am pleased to fear in hat you have recently established several agencies for its disposition--though I regret that, with a view to a more general dissemination of A, you should have found it mechanism to remove the the hour to be, sir. Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir. PHILADELPHIA, October 3, 1849. ME. JAMES WILLIAMS: Der Stitz--figures mit grent pleasure to know that you are again preparing you medicine for the cure of Dyspep-sie, for many of my nequalitationese have repeatedly asked me where it could be preented, knowing that 1 had been cured by it. As I think that a public neknowledgment of the great benaft I have reserved from the use of your med-cine is not only due to you, int may be useful to others, i now make it. For several years I suffered from Dyspep-ion, which imercased to such an extent that uv health and constitution were tapidly sinking under it. I was com-pelied to restrict myself to the must simple food, and even that I could not digest. I felt a loss of strength, disinch-mut a general feeling of depression and indescribable wariness. In the your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, I procured ad used it with the most happy effect; under it frimenies indow and weighest, and an you have it in your and/vertise-ment, a general feeling of depression and indescribable wariness. In the your 1838, hearing from others high re-commendation of your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, I procured ad used it with the most happy effect; under it infinence indown and wariness gradually passed away, and my appe-ier have now elispeed, and my confidence in the curative powers of your medicine has of course increased, for it completely cured me when I failed to obtain relief from any other source. READ the following certificate from Capt. Devos, the well known and popular Shain Boat Captain (of the Traveller.) PHILADELFRIA. October 31, 1816. Several years since I was attacked with a broaking out on my users in the form of Tetter, which I am convinced was contracted at the Harber's Shop. It grandually extend-ed over my face until it reached the upper part of the checks. During the several months that it continued spreading, I used different applications, some of which had the effect, apprently at least, of increasing the disease, but from none of them did I perceive the least benefit until I applied the Rose OINTMENT. By the use of one jar of it, I was perfectly cured and have remained free of the affec-tion.
