It is stated, semi-officially, in London, that Russia and France have asked the English Cabinet to insist upon Prussia withdrawing her secret support of the Holsteiners; and it she will not, England is invited to join in the invasion of her Silesian and Rhenish provinces. The English Cabinet has refused to join in such a violent proceeding, but has expressed a wish to address a serious protest to Prussia upon the subject.

In Hesse Cassel the struggle continues, but both parties seem to take the matter very quietly. As the Emperor of Austria is about to proceed to Warsaw, the probability is that German affairs will continue in the present precarious state until the result of this visit

The news by the Overland Mail from In. dia reports everything tranquil; but in China an insurrection of a serious character has broken out in the southern provinces. A pretender to the throne has collected an army of 50,000 men, plundered several of the towns, and boldly aims at overthrowing the present Tartar Emperor and restoring the ancient native Ming dynasty. Great alarm exists at Pekin, and serious steps have been taken to suppress the rebellion. There is a vague report that the Imperial troops have hitherto had the worst of it.

AN EXTRAORDINARY BULL. - An extraordinary Bull has been issued by the Pope. It is dated Rome, at St. Peter's, under the seal of the Fisherman, on the 29th day of September, in the fifth year of the Pontificate. It of the Roman Pontiff, to extend Catholicity, veloped the residence of Marks B. Priestand to "re-convert the English nation," especially by the foreign education of devout young English Catholies, who, when brought up in the Propaganda College in their eccle. sitical calling, might return to their native land, and there propagate the true faith .-The Pope considering the present state of Catholicism in England, and the enormous number of persons daily converted, judges it several sets of harness belonging to Wm proper to recall the vicars apostolic, and a H. Thompson; the stage sleighs of A. E. complete episcopal hierarchy is established. An Archbishopric is created, under the title of Archbishop of Westminter, who will have a suffragan bishop of Southwark, and eleven other suffragan bishops divide the rest of the entire kingdom. All their jurisdictions are boldly and distinctly parcelled out, and the point of view the new Bishops will be no losers, as the splendor of their temples and their wants will be amply provided for .-This Bull has created an intense feeling throughout England, and it is believed in farther proceedings. At Rome the feeling is put forward a report that Lord Minto has consented to the terms of the Bull and that the English Government has placed Westminster Abbey at the disposal of the new Archbishop, in order that he may perform high masss in that edifice at his inauguration. THE LEWISBURG DEMOCRAT AND

One of these ephemeral sheets that are suddenly sprung into existence, to sub-serve some selfish purpose, appeared a few months since under the title of the Lewisburg Democrat, and has, since its brief existence, devoted a number of articles to us on the subject of the tariff, Gen. Cameron, and democracy in general; subjects which it advocates with about as much understanding and chi alry as Don Quixotte did that of Knight-errantry and the wind mills.

We are free to acknowledge our personal friendship to Gen. Cameron, a friendship that has existed from our boy-hood up to the present time. Mr. Shriner should not however judge us by his own experience. Friendship is not always bought, and it would be well for him to learn that those who declaim most loudly for principle, are most generally those who are greatly in want of it themselves. Whatever our views and principles are, they have ever been consistent, open and independent .-Though far from being rich, we have always been, thank fortune and our own energies, above want or the necessity of appealing to others for contributions. Our Wingert was a young man about 18; Jacob he is not the person described. But if he be establishment and all we have has been secured by the fruits of our own industry, and no human being can lay the flattering of Mr. Clark. James Reed was a young unction to his soul, that he has ever contributed one shilling thereto, directly or indirectly. If the editor of the Democrat can say as much, it is more than many of his neighbors would like to say for him, rs to the advertisement of Charles Ellis & Co. We had intended not to notice the rabid effusions of the Democrat. We did not therefore reply to his absurdities a few weeks since, proclaiming the congressional election in this district, as a free trade triumph. There are three townships in this county alone which would make a difference of five hundred votes againt any man living, who entertained the views of the PRINTING INK .-- A few kegs for sale Democrat on the tariff. We are among those who think a democrat is a freeman. and has a right to think for himself, and that Robert J. Walker is not a saint, or so perfect that his statements cannot be goubted. Mr. Shriner no doubt thinks differ-Ross.—We have learned from a private pecially when they are engaged in writing ently, and finds the servility of obedience to superiors, much more convenient, if not congenial, to his feelings than the trouble and freedom of thinking and speaking for himself. We have a high regard for the abilities of Mr. Walker. Yet we look upon him as a man, and not wholly infallible. We stated nothing but facts and circumstances, and referred to documents in regard to Mr. Walker's report on the tariff, and we should like to see the editor of the Democrat or any of his blind and servile fellow worshippers, controvert them, -not apparently been shot away. The time they hands of our chicken thieves, the meanest by generalities or the rhapsodies of a blind were liberated by Sir John Ross is of course of all kinds of thieves, not even excepting fanaticism, but by facts and figures. If we uncertain, but taking into consideration the the sheep thief. We shall keep a watch are wrong the task will be an easy one. If we are right bombast and fustianism whether generated by ignorance or design,

It may be well to state, not by way of apology, but to show the fallacy of the imputations on our motives, that we did not our absence at Philadelphia.

These attacks upon Gen. Cameron, we are satisfied, owe their design more to envy and jealousy at his success and superior abilities as a politician, than to any deriliction of duty. As a U. S. Senator we bevania interests, than any two senators that | could get out. have preceded him for the last 20 years.

Congress will assemble again in a working session, and that some of the public acts that the people are deeply interested in, will be taken up and passed,-Among them is the Postage bill. FATTENING Hogs .- Few persons are probably aware of the amount of grain wasted by feeding it whole and uncooked. Some of the farmers in the lower counties have adopted the plan of grinding and boiling all their grain fed to their cattle and hogs. One gentleman who had made the A reward of Five Hundred Dollars experiment, informed us a short time since, was equal to fifteen fed whole, in fattening hogs. If such is the fact, and there can be

We learn by letters received by Mr. Reuben Fagely from Baltimore, that Mr. Samuel Thompson, Captain of the boat Sarah of this place, his son, and Alexander Mantz, had arrived in Baltimore, having walked 25 miles. George Clark and John Diehl both leave behind them families to mourn their sudden bereavement .-They were worthy and industrious young men. Their loss is much regretted and the whole community deeply sympathise with their afflicted families. Captain Grant deserves the warmest symoathy from all who can appreciate his noole conduct. The Captain says an Eastern schooner was laving at anchor a very short distance from his vessel, the Captain of which paid no attention to his signal of distress, when a little timely assistance would have averted the dreadful calamity. Capt. G. also says that a large steamer from Baltimore, bound down the bay, passed his swamped boat, without making any effort whatever to save the drowning men. Such conduct deserves the condemnation of every friend of humanity.

The Disaster in the Patapsco River is thus narrated by the Baltimore Clipper of yesterday :- Capt. Harrod, of the steam tow boat Iuniata, informs us that he left Havre de Grace about 7 o'clock, on Monday night, with twenty-one boats in tow, all bound for his port. About daylight, when off North Point, the heavy gale which had been blowing nearly all night, increased in violence and in spite of every effort, nine of the boats which we had in tow, broke loose and drifted towards the White Rocks.

The names of six of the boats and captains, are as follows-the "John Thomas," Capt. Coyle, loaded with lumber; "J. T. Miller." Thompson; "Ocean," Capt. Deal; "Reuben S. Senator, our views have ever been the Fagely," Capt. Clark; and the "Farmer," same. Neither true democracy or the Capt. The been sent to Europe, on a demand for their boat Farmer belongs to Messrs Campbell extradition, without giving them a jury trial and why greater privileges in this matter should be granted to colored persons, is not easily perceived. The State of Pennsylvania guarantees a jury trial to her own citizens, or to persons who are charged with committing an offence within her borders. Fugitives from another State have no such rights. It has been objected also to this law, that it suspends the habeas corpus act, -inasmuch as it enacts that the certificate of the judgeor Commissioner, "shall be conclusive of the right of such fugitve, and shall prevent all molestation of such person or persons, by any rocess issued by any Court, Judge, Magisrate, or other persons whomsoever." But this is a mistake. The truth is, that this provision of the law, forbidding the testimony of the fugitive to be received, and forbidding interference by other process, after a certificate, is but an enactment of an established principle of the common law, added through extreme caution, but wholly unnessary .-"The writ of habeas corpus is undoubtedly an immediate remedy for every illegal imprison. So thinks Elihu, as may be seen by the folment; but no imprisonment is illegal when the process is a justification of the officer; and process, whether by writ or warrant, is legal, whenever it is not defective in the frame of it, and has issued in the ordinary course of instice, from a court or magistrate having jurisdiction of the subject matter."-(Common wealth vs. Lecky, 1 Watts, 67.)

The chief difference between the fugitive act of 1850, and that of 1793, is that the former allows a warrant to be issued by a judge, and imposes more stringent penalties on those who interfere, by violence, to prevent the execution of legal process. Those who believe that the Constitution and laws of their country should be regarded and obeyed, have no ground no complaint, and those who do not, will continue to rail at both, as usual.
