ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP PACIFIC.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Extraordinary Passage—The Quickest Trip Ever Made.

The U. S. Mail Steamship Pacific Captain Nye, with four days later news from Europe arrived at New York Saturday morning, at about half past ten o'clock, having made the passage in nine days and twenty hours from Liverpool, being the shortest trip on record.

The Pacific left Liverpool on the 9th inst, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The passage has never before been made under ten days four hours and thirty minutes.

The shortest passage ever made to Liverpool was made in 10 days 24 hours—which in mean time reduces the passage to 10 days 4 hours and 55 minutes. The Pacific therefore, bears off the palm.

The political news by this arrival is not of much importance.

There is nothing of any consequence going on in the British Parliament.

The Cotton market in Liverpool was dull, and prices nominal. The sales on Monday, April 7th, were 5000 bales, and those of Tuesday 2000.

The grain market was firm, without any change in prices.

Provisions remained as last noticed, and the imports were small.

Trade in the manufacturing districts was very dull and unsatisfactory.

Money was easy for short periods. Consols closed in London on the 6th inst, at 96 1/2.

The Cunard Steamship Asia arrived at Liverpool on Saturday night, the 6th inst, in 10 days, 10 hours and 55 minutes from New York.

KOSSUTH NOT TO BE RELEASED.—A despatch from Washington to the New York Courier conveys the following intelligence: Despatches were yesterday received from Mr. M. Curly, Charge at Vienna, dated the 29th of March, stating that the Austrian Government had refused the application of the Sultan to release Kossouth and his companions in exile. By compact between Austria and Turkey, the latter was charged with the surveillance of those prisoners numbering several hundred, but the Sultan, finding the expense of maintaining them becoming burdensome, applied to be relieved from the incumbrance. This application was granted as far as respected all but Kossouth and eight or ten others; and a word to this effect was sent to the Sultan before intelligence reached Vienna of the recent action of our Government. An urgent appeal will be addressed to Austria by our Government on this subject. The brother of the Austrian Emperor, who is to command the Austrian Navy, will visit this country in the course of the year to examine our public works and mode of naval construction, and institutions generally.

COMING OVER TO THE PANTALOONS.—Mrs. Bloomer, editor of the Lily, has adopted the "short dress and trousers," and says in her paper of this month, that many of the women in that place, (Seneca Falls) oppose the change; others laugh; others still are in favor; and many have already adopted the dress. She closes the article upon the subject as follows:

"Those who think we look queer," would do well to look back a few years, to the time they were ten or fifteen pounds of petticoat and bustle around the body, and balloons on their arms, and then imagine which cut the queerest figure, they or we. We care not for the frowns of over fastidious gentlemen; we have those of better taste and less questionable morals to sustain us. If men think they would be comfortable in long, heavy skirts let them put on one—we have no objection. We are more comfortable without them, and so have left them off. We do not say that we shall wear this dress and no other, but we shall wear it for a common dress; and we hope it may become so fashionable that we may wear it at all times, and in all places, and without being thought singular. We have already become so attached to it that we dislike changing for a long one."

SHOOTING AN INCENDIARY.—The Louisiana Journal, tells the following story of an attempt to shoot an incendiary, who had been trying to fire a gun in-house.

The owner one night commanded one of his negroes to arm himself with a double barreled shot gun, and keep strict watch for the rascal, and if he shot him upon the first glimpse. The negro proceeded to obey orders, and after sitting patiently until the turn of the night, without any disturbance, saw in the "dim distance" an object moving slowly, but steadily towards him. As soon as it became within a safe shooting distance, he fired and down came his victim. He ran to the house and informed his master that he had killed the rascal, and no mistake, for he had seen him fall. The master went with his servant to examine, and there, sure enough, the dead one lay "prostrate in the dust"—but it was one of his best ones, instead of the villain who had been trying to burn his gin!

RAILROADS IN RUSSIA.—It appears by a letter received in New York from Major Brown, consulting engineer of the Emperor of Russia, that the Emperor has determined, as soon as the season will allow, to commence the projected railroad from St. Petersburg to Warsaw, the surveys for which were made last year. Major Brown will, by his position, have the chief superintendence. The distance in this instance to be run is from 750 to 800 of our miles, and stretching, for the most part, through an inhospitable tract of country, intersected by many rivers, broad morasses, and lowlands. The railroad will be begun in the latter part of May, and its completion will quicken into activity the internal commerce of Northern Europe.

Business Notices.

JOURNAL OF THE FRANKLIN INSTITUTE.—The April number of this able Journal, for the promotion of the Mechanic arts, has been received. This Journal is the most scientific work of this kind published in this country. It contains, among other matters of interest, a record of all the patents, as issued from the Patent Office, descriptive of the claims of each. Published monthly at $3 per annum.

AMERICAN LAW JOURNAL.—The April number of this Journal contains a number of interesting and useful articles, besides the extracts of decisions, in an excellent one on the legal profession in the United States. Published monthly by Hamerley & Co., Lancaster.

THE LADIES' KEEPER, a monthly periodical, at $1 per annum, published by John B. Taylor, New York, contains some pleasant sketches.

HENRY'S, SHERBURN AND TRIMMING.—Our readers will find in our columns this week the advertisement of Mr. A. J. Stroth, who besides saddlery and harness keeps an assortment of trimmings for those engaged in the business.

HOLLOWAY'S ROYAL SERRA.—J. B. Kaufman, by his advertisement, informs his customers and others, that he has just received a new assortment of goods at his store in Holloway Run.

PRINTING JOB.—A few legs for sale for cash at this office.

The last Legislature passed four hundred and thirty one acts, many of them in the Omnibus form that is, attaching a number of bills to another, as amendments, and passing them through. In one of these omnibuses we see a passenger from this County under the title of "an act providing for the appointment of road viewers in the County of Northumberland."

DEATH OF GEN. BRADY.—In our last paper we mentioned the injury Gen. Brady had sustained by being thrown from his carriage. Hopes were entertained that he might recover, these hopes were not however realized. He died on Tuesday following.

CONTESTED ELECTION.—Col. Wright is now contesting the right of Henry M. Fuller, Esq., to his election to Congress, from the Luzerne and Columbia district.—The parties met at Danville, on Monday last, with a large number of witnesses.

Col. Wynn, the rejected Austrian Minister is down upon the Hungarians, and defends the Austrian government in its crusade against the gallant and down trodden Hungarians. The Col. had better move himself to Austria as he will find none to sympathize with him here. Even his friend the "Higher Law" Senator from New York would repudiate such doctrines.

The Contractors on the Pennsylvania Railroad, have issued an advertisement for the employment of five thousand laborers, stonecutters, masons, &c., immediately, for the Western Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

This road extends seventy-five miles from Johnstown to Pittsburg, and comprises some of the heaviest work in the United States. The country is very fertile and healthy and the line is peaceable and quiet.

The wages will be $1 per day, promptly paid, and the boarding, $2 per week.

On or about the first of June next, the Mountain Division of said road will be put under contract, which will require a force of from two to three thousand men for the next three years.

Mechanics are also wanted along said line, to whom good wages will be given.

BISHOP HUGHES.

This talented but ambitious and aspiring priest, has evidently been aiming for years past, to secure some high place in the Romish Church. He has been at Rome for some time, anxious to become the first Cardinal appointed in America. Once in the College of Cardinals, he is then eligible for the Chair of St. Peter. The Holy Council at Rome has, however, rejected him, fearing, no doubt, that the Yankee Churchman, whose fame for tact, talent and management, is well known, even in Europe, might prove a formidable rival for the Papal Chair, on the death of Pius Nino, the present Pope. Therefore doubting the propriety of making Bishop Hughes a Cardinal, they applied to the Catholic Bishops of the United States for their opinion, and they, of course, objected, which will decide the question against Bishop Hughes in the Sacred College, at least for the present.

THE GREAT RAILROAD CONVENTION ON THE 23D OF MAY—THE SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD.

From present appearances it is probable, that the Convention to be held at Georgetown, in this County, on Saturday the 3d of May next, will be the largest and most important Improvement Convention, that has assembled in this section of the State, for many years. The Convention will be attended by many of the most distinguished men and Capitalists of this and other States. Baltimore will be strongly represented, and Philadelphia, though blinded to her own interests in the matter, will not be without a delegation. The principal towns in the Susquehanna valley, and all, in fact, who are interested in the construction of a railroad from this place to Erie, will have representatives in this Convention. From present appearances there is every prospect that the road from Harrisburg to Sunbury will be put under contract at an early day, as the right of connecting the York and Cumberland road, with the Pennsylvania Rail Road, is coupled with the charter of the Harrisburg and Sunbury road. There are also provisions and conditions connected with the charter of the Susquehanna and Erie rail road, commencing at the northern terminus of the Susquehanna road, and terminating at Erie, which will ensure the completion of one hundred and sixty miles of that road at an early period. The conditions alluded to, grant the right of way along the lake shore, for the construction of a road connecting the New York and Ohio improvements, but before this connection can be commenced, forty miles at each end of the Susquehanna and Erie road, must be completed, and eighty miles more completed before the connection can be used. Thus it will be seen that the prospects are now bright for the early completion of these great improvements, and all that is wanting is harmony, energy, and concert of action.

U. S. SENATOR.—Four more unsuccessful ballots have been made to elect Mr. Sumner in Boston. Mr. Sumner is the abolition candidate. He received 194 votes, one less than is necessary to a choice.

WOMAN IN PANT.

Mrs. Bloomer the editor of the "Lily," a periodical published at Seneca Falls, N. Y., is out against long skirts, and has set the example of reform by adopting herself, the dress worn by little girls, called "frocks and pants." The following article from the Philadelphia Ledger, takes the same side of the question, and thus argues for the propriety of the proposed change:

We hear a great deal about the equality of the sexes and the rights of women. If the sexes are equal, and women have rights which men now deny them, they cannot emancipate the work of reform with more certainty of success than in certain matters over which they have full control. This of dress is one. We have alternately in January and July the climate of Siberia and Timbuctoo. Common sense, were common sense a woman, would clothe herself accordingly. In winter she would wear boots, such as men wear, as thick as the calf of the leg, trousers of colored woolen stuff, reaching to the top of the boot, and skirts of no greater length. In summer, shoes, not paper-soled slippers, might take the place of boots, and instead of woolen, the out remaining the same, leaving the scavengers to sweep the streets throughout the year.—With the progress of intelligence, our great grand children may see these salutary changes, but these is little present hope of them, however recommended by convenience, comfort, economy and genuine principle, and by other men like myself.

Black the Adulterer, has again got himself into difficulties, having been indicted in Philadelphia, for obtaining money by false pretences. He must indeed be a duper, who could be inveigled by such silly artifices and glaring impurities. See his advertisement.

Mrs. Harriet Martineau has become an infidel, and speaks of the Bible as a fabulous, comparing it with the wildest works of fiction. When she visited this country some ten or fifteen years since, she was in this place. She was then among the most rabid of abolitionists, upon which doctrine it seems she has since improved, by repudiating all restraints upon mind and body, physically and mentally, religious and moral.

THE KENT COUNTY MASSACRE.

The Maryland and Delaware papers confirm the reports of the arrest of four or five individuals, on suspicion of being concerned in the Coston murders. The Cecil Democrat of Saturday says: "John Ford and Samuel Sills were arrested by the Sheriff of this county, on Thursday night last, and lodged in Elkton jail, on suspicion of being concerned in the massacre of the Coston family. These men reside in this county, near the Bohemia Ferry, in Sassafras Neck. They were arrested in consequence of revelations made by Drummond, now in Chestertown Jail, on suspicion of being one of the murderers."

The Wilmington Blue Hen's Chicken, of Saturday, also says:—"Abraham Taylor was committed at New Castle, on Wednesday night last, by Esquire Townsend, of Blackbird, charged with being concerned in the murder of the Coston family."

These three, with Nicholas Murphy, whose arrest at Havre-de-Grace we have noticed, and who has been committed to Elkton jail, makes up the entire party implicated by Drummond's confession, with the exception of a young man named Shelton, as to whom no account has yet been received.

The Cecil Whig says that Abraham Taylor is the man mentioned in the following mysterious note, found on the person of John Brown, which he said he had found:—"Mary Brown, John Brown—He says he is going to kill them to-night; wants me to help him; you are my friends and I may tell you; if you don't mind he will kill you. The man is Abram Taylor!"

ALBANY AND SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD.—At Oneonta, Oswego county, New York, about two thousand people met on the 24 inst., for the purpose of adopting measures to construct a railroad from some point on the line of the New York and Erie road, at or near Dinghampton, to the city of Albany, by the way of Great Bend, Pennsylvania, the valleys of the Susquehanna river, and the Schoenewald and Colleskill creeks. A committee appointed for the purpose reported articles of association for the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad Company, together with the names of a Board of Directors, all of which were adopted. Nearly one hundred thousand dollars were immediately subscribed. About $20,000 more is required to obtain an incorporation, and assurances were given that it would be made up in a few days, when, on filing the articles of association, &c., in the office of the Secretary of State, the Company will be fully incorporated, and the survey of the road immediately entered upon.

STORY TELLING TO SUPERSTITIONS.—It is not always prudent for ladies to denounce attire as the annexed, from the Washington Republic, will show:

A few nights ago a young lady dressed herself in man's clothes, for the purpose of having a little innocent fun by frightening the two white female servants in the house. One of them had retired to rest, and was in a doze when the young lady, thus disguised, entered the chamber and disturbed the occupant, whose screams startled the other servant, who being down stairs, hastened up. The young (two) man rushed to the door to keep her out; but superior strength prevailed, and ingress was effected. This servant seized the supposed male, and after a severe contest threw a heavy candlestick at the head of her antagonist, which did not, however, strike as intended; and she then ran, and did not stop until she reached the basement. Here she fainted, and remained insensible for nearly half an hour. The white household were now alarmed, there was much "noise and confusion," and, to remove all fear, the young lady readily revealed herself, perceiving that her conduct was near leading to very serious consequences.

Let a woman's dress, well neatly earned. The one with which she looks like a barmaid; Yet it won't do her a better credit. Could we recommend a pretty article.

There is being cultivated as an experiment in California, on the San Joaquin. With view along the river banks, and wheat and barley growing in the back country. California will yet be able to establish herself as a land of agricultural wealth.

THE CUBAN EXPEDITION.—The Washington Telegraph says, the Cuban expedition now on foot is said to be headed by Gen. Minshew, B. Lamar, of Georgia, and a Senor Gonzalez, of Havana. It is said, also, that Gov. Towner, of Georgia, is identified with the enterprise. Whether these statements are true or not we cannot say, but whoever is connected with such a design, is destined to experience a miserable failure in attempting it.

A LADY has sent to the World's Exhibition a bolted lace scarf, containing 121 miles of thread, and 2,470,000 stitches! It is nine feet ten inches in length, and three feet wide, and is only 2 1/2 ounces in weight.

MELANCHOLY DEATH.—Mrs. Fritz, of Monheim, attempted to chastise a small child with a switch. The child began to cry violently, became much excited, placed his hands to his mouth, and checked respiration, which it had often done before. During this fit of passion, it fell upon the floor where the mother left it, supposing the child would recover from its fit. The mother shortly afterwards returned to her child, and upon taking it up she found it dead.—Lancaster Union.

HON. JAMES BUCHANAN.—The Virginia Southern Rights men have invited the Hon. TRUTHS OF HISTORY.

It has often been alleged, and generally believed, that Alexander Hamilton was a Monarchist; but in reading his original draft of the Constitution of the United States, no trace can be found of that fact, every provision being republican in trait and principle; but not radically Democratic, for no man ever breathed who was more opposed to giving the popular voice a universal and direct sway in the Government; but a Monarchist he certainly was not, if his papers in the "Federalist," and his draft of the Constitution, are to be the test of his opinions.—By the original draft of the Federal organic law, the absence of the President from the country was declared to be an abdication of his office, and furnishes an index by which to construe the present Constitution; the idea having been frequently agitated that the right to do so, without losing his seat, could not be questioned. There appears but slight variation between this document and the Constitution as it now stands, the most marked difference being the choice of President by two classes of electors, in the event of a non-election by the first class—a wiser and safer method than the present one.—Ledger.

STRANGE SALE.

A German bought at a late Custom House auction sale of unclaimed bonded goods, in New York, thirty-two large packages, which the auctioneer said were supposed to contain a light-house. The price at which the mysterious property was knocked down was $500; and on opening the several parcels, it has been discovered that they contain the distinct parts of a light-house, arranged which is a large copper wheel covered with curious devices, and obviously designed for complicated machinery. Other cases enclosed the lenses and immediate apparatus of a lantern. The fortunate purchaser of the package has already been offered $7,000 for his bargain, which he has declined. It is conjectured that the work of art, consisting of the different sections which were sold together at the auction referred to, was sent to this country as a present from the French to the American Government. The lot was consigned to a naval officer, and was not claimed on account of his death. It is thought that the structure, machine, or whatever it is that has turned up so oddly, may be worth $20,000.
