PRESIDENT JUDGE. By the act of last session, the 8th Judicial thumberland, Lycoming, Clinton and Centre. for the people to select a President Judge for this District. It is important that we should select that officer with great care and deliberation, and in that selection to consider, not the political services and partizan usefulness, but the integrity, talents, learning and experience of the man. The popufar eye has already been directed to ALEX- Estates of the following named persons, that the ANDER JORDAN, Esq., of Sunbury. He is well known to the people of this district, and the mention of his name alone will recal to the minds of all his reputation as an eminent hence and an honest, upright and virtuous 1851 man. The fact that he has raised himself, without the influence of friends or wealth to his high station at the Bar, is a sufficient indication of his industry and perseverance, and the brilliancy and strength of his intellect. An extensive, constant and successful practice for a period of 30 years has given him such knowledge and experience as eminently qualify him of the station of Presi, dent Judge. Of his moral fitness, a life of probity furnished unquestionable evidence. It is to such a man only that the fortunes, lives and reputations of our citizens can be trusted. In presenting his name to the people, we are confident of their approval.

I became emaciated, could not sleep, was distressed by my cough, and a pain through my chest, and in short had all the alarm ing symtems of quick consumption. No medicine seemed at all to reach my case, until provi-dentially tried your CHERRY PECTORAL, which soon relieved and now has cured me. Yours with respect. E. A. STEWART ALBANY, N. Y. April 17, 1848. Dr. Ayer, Lowell—Dear Sir.—I have for years

m my bod. I had tried a great many medicines, to no purpose, until my Physician prescribed, as an experiment, your CHERRY PECTORAL. At first it seemed to make me worse, but in less than a week I began to experience the most gratifying relief from its use; and now, in four weeks, the disease is entirely removed. I can sleep on my bed with comfort, and enjoy a state of health which I had never expected to enjoy.
