His good wife, Kate, sat by his side, And the moon-light danced on the floor ;-The moon-light danced on the cottage floor, Her brams were as clear and bright As when he and Kate, twelve years before, Talk'd love in her mellow light.

Ben Fisher had never a pipe of clay, And never a dram drank he; So he loved at home with his wife to stay, And they chatted right merrily: Right merrily chatted they on, the while Her babe slept on her breast; While a chubby rogue, with rosy smile, On his father's knee found rest.

Ben told her how fast his potatoes grew, And the corn in the lower field ; And the wheat on the hill was grown t seed, And promised a glorious yield :-A glorious yield in the harvest time, And his orchard was doing fair ; His sheep and his stock were in their prime His farm all in good repair.

Kate said that her garden looked beautiful, Her fowls and her calves were fat ; That the butter that Tommy that morning churned, Would buy h m a Sunday hat ; That Jenny for Pa a new shirt had made, And 'twas done too by the rule ; That Neddy the garden could nicely spade And Anna was ahead at school.

Ben slowly passed his toil-worn hand Thro? his locks of grey s i brown-'I tell you, Kate, what I think," said he,

DR. HUNTER will forfeit $50, if failing to cure any case of secret disease that may come under his care, no matter how long standing or afflicting. Either sex are invited to his Private Rooms, 38 North SEVEN'TH Street, Philadelphia, without fear of interruption by oth-er patients. Strangers and others who have been unfortunate in the selection of a physician are invited to call. Those who have injured themselves by solitary vice are also invited. READ AND REFLECT. - The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians, ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to. Every respectable physician has his peculiar branch, in which he is more success-ful than his brother professors, and to that he devotes most of his time and study. YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, ogether with ulcers upon the bo-dy, throat, nose, or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rhoumatism, gravel, irregularities, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, cuables the Doctor to offer speady relief to all who may place themselves under his care. The uniform success which has attended the use of this preparation-its salutary effect-its power to relieve and cure affections of the Lungs, have gained for it a celebrity equalled by no other medicine. We offer it to the afflicted with entire confidence in its virtues, and the full belief that it will subdue and remove the severest attacks of disease upon the throat and Lungs .-

THE RT. REV. LORD BISHOP FIELD. writes in a letter to his friend, who was sinking under an affection of the Lungs :-- "Try the CHERRY PECTORAL and if any medicine can give you relief, with the blessing of God that will.

A slight cold upon the lungs, neglected at first, became so severe that spitting of blood, a violent cough and profuse night sweats followed and fastened upon me. I became emaciated, could not sleep, was distressed by my cough, and a pain through my chest, and in short had all the alarm ing symtoms of quick consumption. No medicine seemed at all to reach my case, until I providentially tried your CHERRY PECTORAL,

Which soon relieved and now has cured me. Yours with respect. E. A. STEWART ALBANY, N. Y. April 17, 1848. Dr. Ayer, Lowell-Dear Sir. -- I have for years been afflicted with Asthma in the worst form ; so that I have been obliged to sleep in my chair for a larger part of the time, being unable to breathe on my bed. I had tried a great many medicines, to no purpose, until my Physician prescribed, as an experiment, your CHERRY PECTORAL. At first it seemed to make me worse, but in less than a week I began to experience the most gratifying relief from its use; and now, in four weeks, the disease is entirely removed. I can sleep on my bed with comfort, and enjoy a state of health which I had never expected to enjoy. GEORGE S. FARRANT.
