

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL FAIR AT HARRISBURG.

We are glad to observe that Judge Watts, the President, and influential gentlemen, officers of the State Agricultural Society, have issued a circular to the farmers of Pennsylvania...

On the low land of the Susquehanna, in the lap of the mountains, with wood, water and mountain in prospect, lies the lovely farm, of which some twenty acres are now in process of preparation for the purpose.

For Cattle—Short Horns, Hereford, Ayrshire, Holstein, &c., premiums of 12, 8, 7, 4 and 3 dollars.

For Sheep—Fine wool—Bucks, 8 and 5 dollars. Puns of Lambs, $6. Long Wools, Middle, and Mixed the same.

For Hogs—Best, $6; second 4 and 2 dollars. For Horses—Draft, 12 and 8 dollars—the same for Mules.

For Poultry—Largest and best collection of Fowls, $5; Capons and Turkey, $3; other varieties, $2.

For Tobacco—Best samples, 8 and 6 dollars. Crops—Corn, 5 acres, $15; acre $8.

For Fruit—All varieties from $ to 5 dollars; vegetables, from 5 to 1 dollar; Flowers, $ to 5 dollars; Domestic Wines, $3; best cured Hams, $5; best quilts and other household manufactures, $3, 2 and 1 dollar; best Portable Steam Engine, $25.

For Ploughing—Best $10; second, $8; third, $5; best ploughman, $6; second, $4; third, $3.

This is a very liberal scale of premiums, and highly creditable to the Society. We are only sorry, however, that there are none for the best blading process, and the cheapest and neatest mode of manufacturing and burning bricks.

Business Notices. GLEASON'S PICTORIAL DRAWING ROOM CONNECTION.—No. 20 of this superb publication, came to us with a smiling face, having done an entire new dress, and undergone a material change.

We are requested to announce that Gov. Johnston will address a meeting at Northumberland, on Tuesday evening next.

We are authorized to state that G. M. Yorks, has withdrawn his name for the office of Prothonotary of this County, and that he intends to give the ticket as formed by the late Democratic Convention his hearty support.

TO THE VOTERS. The 4th section of the Act of 15th of April 1851, requires the electors to vote for Judges of the Supreme Court, on a separate piece of paper; for the other Judges required to be named in the law, on a separate piece of paper, and the Associate Judges also on a separate piece of paper.

"THE LEWISBURG DEMOCRAT." Some clever wag has doubtless been practising upon the credulity of the editor of the Democrat, and, if we may judge from the amusing account he gives of the state of political affairs in this county, has succeeded much better in entrapping him than we supposed any one could have done.

The question of friendship for, or opposition to Gen. Cameron was not, that we ever heard of, referred to, previous to our County Convention, in connection with the nominations then to be made; and the editor will see how much truth there is in the intelligence he has received, when we inform him that there is scarcely a man upon our county ticket who is not a personal friend of General C's.

When our reporter left the scene of the outrage, young Gorsuch was yet alive, as was also the nephew of the elder Gorsuch, but there was little hope of the recovery of the former.

Gov. Johnston has issued a proclamation, wherein he offers a reward of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons guilty of the murder and violation of the peace in the late tragedy in Christiana, Lancaster county.

THE CHRISTIANA TRAGEDY.

Patriotic and loyal to the Constitution and laws of their country, as the great mass of the sons of Pennsylvania uniformly are, it has for some time, been but too painfully evident that we have within our borders, a few discontented and reckless spirits who, having themselves neither character, reputation or property to lose, and consequently no interests at stake, are constantly striving to agitate the questions of slavery and abolitionism, in the vain hope of inflaming the minds of the people of the North against the South, and of adding a few more miserable converts to the infamous doctrines of the "higher law" party.

Franklin county, the birth place and old home of Mr. Buchanan, has also elected her Senatorial and two Representative delegates in favor of GENERAL CASS.

Our U. S. Senator elect, has always been a warm friend of Gen. Cass. But as Mr. Broadhead, has taken a decided stand against Mr. Buchanan, the Pennsylvania, Mr. Buchanan's shrewd organ, is down upon him, and now denounces him as much as it eulogized him a few months since.

We challenge the Pennsylvania to point to the principle, measure or usage of the party that Mr. Broadhead has violated, or failed to sustain since his election to the U. S. Senate? We remember well, that at the time of his election, the Pennsylvania was most extravagant in its encomiums upon him—aye, many an honest reader was fairly sickened with its nauseous flattery—its constant parasitism at the feet of the newly elected Senator! But how changed it and why?

Mr. Broadhead and the Keystone are brought under the displeasure of this meandering editor for no other cause than that they dare to prefer Lewis Cass for President!—a Gen. Cass "infamous" in the eyes of the Pennsylvania, that it is a crime to favor his nomination for the Presidency!

The murderous affair at Christiana, Lancaster county, which took place on Thursday the 11th inst., seems, from the best information we can gather, to be almost entirely attributable to the unjust interference of these self styled philanthropists, who would involve this nation in a civil war, trample upon the Constitution, and dissolve this Union, rather than yield a pitiful theory which their morbid fancy has set up as the law, higher than that which is written.

It is most sincerely to be hoped that no effort will be spared, no means left untried, to ferret out the guilty advisers and abettors of this most deplorable affair, and that whenever they are found, no sickly sympathy will be excited to prevent them from being brought to that punishment which they so richly merit.

We glean the following facts from our Philadelphia exchanges: Mr. Gorsuch, the owner of two fugitive slaves from Baltimore county, accompanied by his two sons, the Deputy United States Marshall, from Baltimore, two officers from Philadelphia, proceeded on Wednesday evening, to Christiana, about 21 miles below Lancaster, for the purpose of arresting the fugitives.

After a consultation between the officers, it was deemed inexpedient to make the arrest until Thursday morning. From the best reports, we learn, that the colored population in the vicinity, having been informed of the nature of the visit of the officers to Christiana, held a meeting, and asked the opinion of several leading Abolitionists as to what course they should pursue.

The answer was, as one of the most eminent reports state, that they should stand their ground. Accordingly, about eighty negroes assembled, and with guns, &c. surrounded themselves in the neighboring woods and corn fields. The signal of attack on the officers was the blowing of a horn.

When the officers came upon the party, they were surrounded on all sides, and a deadly fire poured upon them by the negroes. At the first fire, the owner of the fugitive slaves, an elderly gentleman, was instantly killed, and one of his sons mortally wounded. Another of the party, said to be a United States deputy officer from Baltimore, was also much hurt.

A Philadelphia officer was fired at five times and missed. He was in the midst of the flight at the time. The information to the fugitive slaves that their master and the officers were after them, is believed to have been given by two negroes from Philadelphia, who dogged the pursuing party to Christiana.

In addition to what is already known of this affair, which occurred on Thursday, we learn that the scene of the murderous riot was in the vicinity of Lancaster, Lancaster county, near the borders of Chester. The persons killed were Mr. Edward Gorsuch, an old gentleman who resided about fifteen miles from Baltimore, Md., and his son, Dickenson, a young man. The father was shot dead by one of the fugitive slaves, instantly killed, and the son was mortally wounded in the bloody affray, and survived but a short time. The slave who shot his master was himself wounded in the left arm. He is described in a despatch to Judge Marshall Keyser, as a tall slim mulatto fellow, with full round face, and good looking.

The assaulting party was headed by an old negro preacher. When he saw the fallen bodies of Mr. Gorsuch and son he rushed forward with his arms extended, saying "Foolish men, forbear. You'll all be hanged if they are dead!"

There is no great excitement in the vicinity of the scene of the murder. No one has taken any interest in the horrid occurrence. We must add that Mr. Gorsuch the elder was not only brutally murdered, but robbed by the blacks after he was dead, of $300 in money.

Our reporter left the scene of the outrage, young Gorsuch was yet alive, as was also the nephew of the elder Gorsuch, but there was little hope of the recovery of the former.

GENERAL CASS.

Since our last number, the Conferees of Blair, Huntingdon and Cambria counties, have met and unanimously instructed their Senatorial delegate to the fourth of March Convention, in the most emphatic manner, to use all honorable means to procure an expression from that Convention in favor of the distinguished statesman, Gen. Lewis Cass, and to vote for no man as a delegate to the National Convention, who is not his steadfast friend.

Franklin county, the birth place and old home of Mr. Buchanan, has also elected her Senatorial and two Representative delegates in favor of GENERAL CASS.

Our U. S. Senator elect, has always been a warm friend of Gen. Cass. But as Mr. Broadhead, has taken a decided stand against Mr. Buchanan, the Pennsylvania, Mr. Buchanan's shrewd organ, is down upon him, and now denounces him as much as it eulogized him a few months since.

A MAN SHOT?

Meney, Sept. 17. An old resident of this place by the name of James Fowler, was shot yesterday afternoon, either by accident or otherwise, about 4 o'clock, the contents of a pistol which was loaded with shot, taking effect in the upper part of the left temple, and which was said to have been in the hands of Mr. Edward Wilson, also a resident of this place.

Wilson was arrested, and an investigation held this morning before Justice Schuyler, but nothing was elicited to warrant his commitment. He has been held however, until tomorrow morning, when a further investigation will be made.

Fowler is still living, but in a very critical situation.

DEATH OF JUDGE WOODBURY.

The Hon. Levi Woodbury, Associate Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States, died at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, on the 4th inst. For some thirty years past Judge W. has been a very conspicuous public man, in Congress, in the Cabinet, and on the Bench. Like Jackson, Polk, Calhoun, and others who have been identified with the political history of the United States for some years past, Woodbury, too, has now departed this life. The Washington Union notices the character of Judge Woodbury thus:

"All who knew him, and who did not— for he has been an active, prominent, and useful public man for the last thirty years— will deplore his loss. We knew him intimately as a member of General Jackson's cabinet, and had a personal knowledge of his wonderful capacity for business, his devoted attachment to the interest of his country, and his inflexible adherence to those republican doctrines which were illustrated by the lives and services of such statesmen as Jefferson and Madison. Possessing an extraordinary memory, he put this happy faculty to its noblest uses in transcribing up the wisdom of others, and in thus obtaining a guide in action which enabled him to avoid error and guard against prejudice. Uniting, besides, to a vigorous and powerful perception, habits of great temperance and patient industry, there was no station in all the relations of life which he did not adorn— Hence, whether in private life, in the Senate, in the cabinet, or on the bench of our Supreme Court—the most elevated judicial position in the world—he has left a character which will be always remembered with pride and satisfaction by his country."

THE LAST WORDS OF COL. CRITTENDEN.—A private letter from an American gentleman in Havana states an incident occurring at the execution of the 50 expeditionists, which is interesting if true. It is, that when Col. Crittenden was told to turn back and kneel, he impatiently exclaimed: "No! I kneel only to God, and never turn my back to the enemy." The general started back, and he was left to face the almost instant fire of the platoon, which he did with utmost coolness. An American is usually a man, whether as a brave, a patriot, or in almost any other phase of life.
