New LOCOMOTIVE.-The Baltimore County Advocate says a new coal Burning locomotive, called the "Col. J. S. Gittings," has recently been put upon the Baltimore and Susquebanna Railroad. This makes four of these beavy locomotives now in use on the road, engaged in the transportation of freight.

MURDERERS SENTENCED-Otto Grunzig, convicted of the murder of his wife, and Antonio Lopez, of the murder of policeman Foster, were sentenced in the Over and Terminer Court of New York, on Saturday, to be hung on the 23rd of January.

HOVER'S WRITING INK .- "We are opposed to all kinds of 'Puffing,' in the figurative sence of the term. Whether in the notice of a book, or anything else, we have a repagnance to give it a fulsome adulation, or to recommend it in any way at all, unless we honestly believe it worthy of favor.

"We have again furnished ourselves with a key of Hover's Black Writing Ink, and when we say that this is not the first or the second keg that has been procured from Mr. Hoover, the article may be considered as being endorsed 'good' by us, otherwise we should not have continued its use for whese six or seven years past. Others may have their preferences in favor of different manufactures, and we are quite willing that they enjoy those preferences (save and except those of our correspondents, who some times impose that loathsome Blue stuff upon ers, which is not fit to be used); for our own part, we continue the manufacture of Mr. Hover, whose tok is not only clear and black, but does not clog and conglomerate our pen, as some otherwise good inks do.22 German Reformed Messenger, Chambersburg Malich.
