

KOSSUTH AND LOLA MONTES.

The N. Y. Correspondent of the Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch, gives the following in relation to the recent arrival of Kosuth and Lola Montes in that city.

The chief combine elements of popular interest, the past week, have been the arrival of Kosuth and Lola Montes.

Lola and Kosuth were somewhat surprised to find that our city had not indulged in some extensive and magnificent preparations in anticipation of their visit.

THE AMERICAN. SUNBURY.

SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1852.

H. B. MASSER, Editor and Proprietor.

V. B. PALMER is our authorized agent to receive subscription and advertising at his office, in Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Baltimore.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The circulation of the Sunbury American among the different towns on the Susquehanna is not exceeded (equalled by any paper published in North or Pennsylvania).

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATION.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER.

WILLIAM SEARIGHT, of Fayette County.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Business Notices.

NEW STORES.—Two new stores have been opened in this place.

PRINTING INK.—For sale for cash, at this office, kegs of 25, 20 and 12 pounds each.

WE are indebted to Messrs. Broadhead, Sumner, Cass and Douglass, of the U. S. Senate, for Congressional favors.

BOROUGH ELECTION.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that an election for Borough officers will be held at the Court House, on Monday, 3d inst.

NEW TYPE.—We have received a new font of beautiful Scotch face type suitable for pamphlets, paper books, blanks, &c., and will therefore be able to execute all kinds of work of this character in the very best style.

MORE SNOW TO COME.—We were informed a few evenings since by an intelligent lady that, according to some great weatherwise prophet, the deepest snow of the season was to come off on the 4th of May inst. Would not our gardens look beautiful under a two foot snow.

DEATH OF JUDGE COULTER.

The death of this distinguished Jurist leaves a vacancy on the bench, which must be filled by appointment by the Governor until the next election.

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT.—There was a rumor a few days since that Gov. Bigler had offered the appointment of Judge of the Supreme Court for the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Coulter, to the Hon. George W. Woodward who declined, and that it has been since tendered to Judge Bell, who, it is said, will accept.

There is a bill now before the Legislature authorizing the construction of a dam across the Susquehanna at the terminus of the Trevorton, Mahony and Susquehanna Rail Road, about 12 miles below this place.

THE PHILADELPHIA SUN.

Having assumed a new dress of type, has not failed to receive, as it deserves, a number of highly complimentary notices from its cotemporaries.

A man was arrested in New York for causing the death of a child six years old by taking him to a grocery and giving him brandy, from the effects of which he died.

SUBSCRIPTION OF UNION COUNTY TO THE SUSQUEHANNA RAIL ROAD.

We have seen a letter from Lewisburg to a gentleman in this place, which states that the Commissioners of Union county, on Wednesday last, subscribed two hundred thousand dollars to the stock of the Susquehanna Rail Road, from Harrisburg to Sunbury and Williamsport.

The corporation of the Borough of Lewisburg has subscribed fifty thousand dollars, and individual subscriptions to the amount of ten thousand dollars have been obtained.

Wait till the Heavenly Union comes in" was the exclamation of an ardent whig friend on a certain occasion.

The Heavenly Union, however, on that occasion, surprised all parties by giving a democratic majority.

She has now done even better than that. She has invested $260,000 in an improvement that will greatly benefit her population and most probably yield a revenue of $4 or $6,000 to the County.

EXTENSIVE ADVERTISING.

The advertisement of C. P. Freeman & Co., No. 144 Broadway, New York, is now we presume, in almost every paper in the Union.

Several years ago Mr. Freeman commenced advertising in five hundred newspapers, and was so well satisfied, that the year following, his advertisement appeared in fifteen hundred papers, and when we last met him in New York, last spring, he informed us that he intended the following season to have his advertisement inserted in every paper in the United States, Oregon and California not excepted.

According to the last census there are upwards of three thousand papers published in the United States.

Mr. Freeman is a shrewd and enterprising merchant, in the silk millinery business—keeps as we can testify, a fine stock of goods, and is determined to let the world know it.

Mr. Freeman does his business through the extensive and well known advertising agency of V. B. Palmer, in New York Philadelphia and Boston.

NEW CIDER PRESS.—We called in, a few days ago, at the turning establishment of W. O. Hickok, Esq., and witnessed the operation of a new cider press, which he is about to have patented.

The principle upon which it is constructed is very simple, and what is most important, works to perfection.

By this machine, two men are enabled, by very little exertion, to produce from eighteen to twenty barrels of cider a day.

The cost of the machine is $35.—Harrisburg Union.

WE saw one of these machines in the shop of Mr. Hickok, at Harrisburg, and think they are an admirable improvement on the old system of cider making.

The pomice is pressed in a small wooden vessel, every alternate stave being left out.

Any small quantity, even a few quarts can be made in a few minutes.

WE learn from the Schuylkill Haven Miscellany that the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haven Rail Road Company have appointed E. F. Gay, Esq., Engineer, on the route of the extension of the Broad Mountain, and we understand the work will be prosecuted as speedily as possible.

A DEFECT REMEDIED.

We learn from the Harrisburg Union that a bill has been introduced into the Senate by Mr. Packer, and passed that body, to remedy a defect in the law of last session, carrying out, as was supposed, the provisions of the Constitution in relation to the election of Supreme Judges, revealed by the death of Judge COULTER.

The amendment to the Constitution contains the following provision: "The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for, subsequent to the first election.)"

It will be observed that this language is emphatic as to the term of the Judges. The amendment further provides, that "any vacancy happening by death, resignation, or otherwise, in any of the said Courts, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday in December succeeding the next general election."

The law of last session, in direct conflict with these express provisions, authorized the Governor to appoint, in case of a vacancy, until the next General election, at which a person would be elected to fill the unexpired term of the deceased Judge, instead of for the full term of fifteen years.

The bill remedies this error of the law of 1851, so that the Governor will appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the December following the next election, at which a person will be chosen for the full term of fifteen years.

This will change the beautiful system of succession established by the uniform period between the term of each Judge, but its necessity is manifest from the requirement of the Constitution.

The Philadelphia Bulletin furnishes the following advice:

"The best advice that we can give to a young lady, about to marry, is to prefer the man of sense and amiability before the man of genius and passion.

And the best advice we can give a young bachelor, who wishes to become a Benedict is to prize, in woman, common sense and a sweet temper above all things else."

THE EMPEROR OF RUSSIA SUEDE IN CALIFORNIA.—By the last mails from California we learn that a suit has been brought in the California Courts against the "Emperor of all the Russias" for breach of covenant on his deed, for conveyance of lands, his majesty not having title as is alleged in his deed.

CALIFORNIA FORTUNES.—It is calculated that out of every hundred persons who have gone to California, fifty have been ruined, forty no better than they would have been had they remained at home, five a little better, four something better still, and one has made a fortune.

TROUBLE IN THE WHIG CONGRESSIONAL CAUCUS.

The Northern and Southern whigs are already in trouble in regard to the great question which will hereafter test the strength of both parties.

Upon the compromise measures of the last session the issue of the next Presidential election will be determined.

Hence the trouble among our whig friends who will find it an almost Herculean task to unite Southern and Northern abolitionists.

The New York Herald furnishes the following proceedings of the late Congressional Caucus.

The Whig Congressional caucus re-assembled to-night, in the Senate chamber, at eight o'clock—Judge Mangum presiding.

The attendance was rather thin, a number of southern members and some of Mr. Webster's friends being absent.

Among those present were Senators Smith, Fish, Seward, Wade, and Messrs. Fowler, Briggs, Brooks, Hawes, Stanly, Gentry, Laundry, and Humphrey Marshall.

The caucus have fixed upon Baltimore as the place, and the 17th of June as the time, for holding the Whig National Convention.

Mr. Marshall, of Kentucky, offered the original Whig caucus resolutions.

Mr. Stanly, of N. C., objected to them as out of order.

The chairman sustained the objection.

After a discussion, principally by Messrs. Marshall and Stanly, the decision of the chair was sustained—yeas 46, nays 18.

The negative vote against the decision were southern men, except Messrs. Stanly and Morehead (of N. C.) and two Kentuckians.

Among the affirmatives were Messrs. Fowler (of Mass.) Wade and Campbell (of Ohio) Sackett and Schoolcraft (of N. Y.) and others.

Mr. Marshall said, as the chair had decided the compromise principles of the Whig administration out of order, this was no place for Whigs to remain, and he then withdrew.

Mr. Gentry, of Tenn., with much feeling, said he would make one more effort to save the united Whig party, and offered a resolution, in substance, that, in fixing the time and place, the Whigs did not commit themselves unless the compromises were final.

A debate arose, in which Messrs. Campbell, Outlaw, Brooks, (Mass.) Strother, Moore (La.) Ewing, Cabell, and Clingman participated.

Mr. Outlaw, of N. C., wished to be understood—if the compromise resolutions were to be thrust out of the Whig caucus, it was thrusting him out, and the Whigs whom he represented; and then he withdrew.

Mr. Moore, of Louisiana, said such action ruled the southern Whigs out of the caucus, and then he and his colleague, Mr. Landry withdrew.

Mr. Brooks, of Miss., would like to know before he went to the Whig National Convention what company he would have to keep. He then left.

Mr. Strother, of Va., said the Whigs of Virginia had in substance instructed him to leave the caucus when the compromise was thrown out. He left.

Mr. Cabell, of Fla., said the previous decision of the chair caused many Southern Whigs to be absent to night. He and others came, hoping for the reverse of such a decision. The confirmation of the decision would leave the caucus with only the Northern men and eight or ten Southern whigs—He left with Senator Morton.

Mr. Clingman, of N. C., after some few remarks, left also.

Of the Tennessee delegation, there remained in the chamber only Messrs. Cullum and Jones.

The greatest excitement prevailed at this secession. There remained from the South only part of the North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee delegates. All the other Southern States were wholly unrepresented. Indeed, it had become almost exclusively a Northern caucus.

Mr. Morehead, of N. C., said he staid behind only because he hoped the Whig convention would adopt the compromise, and it was certain that North Carolina would vote only for the compromise.

Mr. Dockery, of N. C., endorsed his colleague to the fullest extent.

Mr. Cullum said no man could hope to carry Tennessee unless for the compromise.

On the motion of Mr. Sackett, of N. Y., the time and place was fixed.

Upon a division between Baltimore and Pittsburg, the former received 31 and the latter 18—showing but 49 present, after the Southern members had left.

Mr. Stanly defined his position at length. He averred that unless the Whig party stood upon the compromise no candidate could receive the Southern vote.

A sharp controversy ensued between Messrs. Brooks, Stanly, and Truman Smith, and the caucus separated amidst great excitement.

Previous to the adjournment Mr. Mangum said he anticipated a manifesto from the retiring Southern Whigs, and in that case he desired authority to re-convene the caucus. Authority was given.

The result seems to seem to indicate a sectional division in the Whig party. Such men as John Bell, Dawson, Berrien, Grier, Badger, Pratt, and Pearce, of the Senate, with all the Maryland representatives, and other prominent members absented themselves in consequence of the pre-announced decision of the chair.

We lay it down as a rule of business, from our experience as well as reason, that he who advertises judiciously and extensively can afford to sell to his customers to better advantage than he who does not, because he adopts the correct means to multiply their number, and to secure to himself a large amount of business.

When the Russians desire to keep fish perfectly fresh, to be carried a long journey in a hot climate, they dip them into hot beeswax, which acts like an air-tight covering. In this way they are taken to Malta, even sweet in summer.

Notary Publics have been abolished in Ohio by an act of the Legislature.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

HARRISBURG, April 21. SENATE.—Mr. Crabb read in place a bill authorizing the Governor to appoint an entomologist.

Mr. McCaslin offered a resolution providing for the publication of the names of defaulters to the State, with the amount due by them respectively.

The Senate then took up, and passed to a second reading, the bill authorizing the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to run their cars and engines on other and connecting rail roads.

The bill for the more effectual prevention and punishment of the crime of murder, or rather to abolish capital punishment, was taken up and passed Committee of the Whole.

HARRISBURG, April 24. SENATE.—The Committee on finance reported the general appropriation bill, with sundry amendments.

A bill was also introduced relative to last wills and testaments.

The Congressional Appropriation bill came back from the House, with the non-concurrence of that body in the amendments of the Senate.

On motion, Messrs. Evans, Haslett and Guernsey were appointed a Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate.

The Speaker (Mr. Walker) took the floor, and moved that the Senate proceed to consideration of the bill incorporating the Erie City Bank, of Erie, which had recently been vetoed by the Governor.

The bill was accordingly taken up and passed finally—yeas 18, nays 12.

The Senate soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Senate's amendments to the bill appointing the State for the election of representatives in Congress, were taken up and non-concurred in, and Messrs. Busham, Wise and Broomall appointed a committee of conference on the part of the House.

The bill relating to goods, wares and merchandise, remaining in warehouses in this Commonwealth for the period of twelve months, unclaimed, was considered and passed finally.

Several other private bills passed, and the House then adjourned.

HARRISBURG, April 26. SENATE.—The Senate, after the presentation of a number of petitions, resumed on second reading, the consideration of the general appropriation bill. Various amendments were proposed, many rejected and others agreed to, and the bill discussed until the adjournment.

HOUSE.—The bill to incorporate the Kutztown Railroad Company, in Berks county, was reported from the Committee on Corporations, with a negative recommendation.

The bill to increase the capital stock of the Bank of Commerce, was reported from the Committee without amendment.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill for the better regulation and management of the public works.

Mr. Reilly moved to postpone the bill indefinitely, which was negatived.

Mr. Flanigan then moved to postpone for the present, which was also negatived.

Mr. Broomall moved an amendment, providing for the appointment of three Canal Commissioners, and fixing their salaries at one per cent. of the net revenues derived from the public works.

Mr. Gillis moved to strike out and insert the bill leasing the public works of the State to John Soudgrass, of Westmoreland, and John W. Geary, of California, for the period of five years, for the sum of $900,000 for the first year, $1,000,000 for the second year, and $1,200,000 each for the subsequent years.

The reading of the proposed amendment was called for, and the same having been read, the House adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—The House, agreeably to order, took up the Senate Judicial omnibus bill, relating to the Courts of this Commonwealth, which was variously amended and debated during the whole of the session.

BAKED HAM.—Most persons boil hams.—They are much better baked, if baked right. Soak for an hour in clean water, and wipe dry and then spread it all over with flour butter, and lay in a deep dish with sticks under the gravy. When fully done, take off the skin and the batter crushed upon the flesh-side, and set away to cool. You will find it very delicious, but too rich for dyspeptics. So says one of our agricultural "exchanges."

NEW MODE OF STOPPING HICCUPS.—Dr. Pirety appears to have found a very simple means of arresting this disagreeable and very often obstinate symptom. It is sufficient to squeeze the wrist—preferably that of the right hand—with a piece of string, or with the forefinger and thumb of the other hand.

SAID AN OLD MAN.—"When I was young, I was poor; when old, I became rich; but in each condition I found disappointment.—When the faculties of enjoyment were bright I had not the means; when the means came the faculties were gone."

ARISTOCRATIC WIT.—To ridicule the Secret Ballot Law in the late Rhode Island election, one hundred of the nabobs of Newport turned out in white kid gloves, and put the envelopes containing their votes into the box with silver sugar tongs.

A LITTLE FELLOW, having been whipped severely at school last week, rushed crying home, and paroxysmally exclaimed: "Oh, feel what I have felt, Go bear what I have born."

NO one, however, seemed disposed to avail themselves of the kind offer.

The Free Soilers of Indiana are to hold a State Convention at Indianapolis on the 17th inst.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF TAGLIONI!—This renowned danseuse, who once astonished and charmed half the world with her beauty and her art, has of late hardly been thought or heard of.

But a late writer has dug up her name from its oblivion, and paraded her before the public. He says:

Taglioni is now a countess, and has anything but the sylph-like figure one would attribute to the quondam queen of the dance—the Terpsichore of christendom. She is as fat and clumsy as a Spanish dancer!

She lives in the summer at her "palace by the Lake of Como," and in the winter at Venice. Her husband, the Count, she supports at Paris, always provided he shall never approach her. She has one daughter a lovely girl of sixteen. Her lover is Prince Trubetski, a Russian, to whom she presented Ca' Doro, the richest little gem of a palace in Venice, or any where else. Her father and mother occupy a palace with herself and daughter.

EXTENSIVE LAND SLIDE.—A land slide occurred on the 23d ult., at Coal Hill, near Pittsburg, which entirely destroyed the factory of Lorenz & Wightman, and a large school house. In several places the chasms were twenty feet deep.

POETRY.—A wispy washy kind of food that young people live on while troubled with the palpitation of the heart. Mixed with moonlight, it is very apt to make your young ladies feel as they would lean against a white vest.

BYARD TAYLOR, in one of his letters to the Tribune, says the Turkish name of America is Yankee Doonee. This sounds very much like Yankee-doodle-doo, but is said to be, in reality, the Turkish for "New World."

"SOMETHING LIKE CHOLERA."—Mr. Elwood, his son, and Mrs. Duncan, his mother-in-law, died near Anora, Indiana, a few days ago, after an illness of a few hours, of a disease resembling cholera.

GOING INTO IT.—James Robb, Esq., of New Orleans, who is worth only $80,000, has subscribed to $50,000 worth of stock in the New Orleans and Jackson Rail Road.

CROPS IN TEXAS.—The frost on the night of the 18th ult., nearly destroyed the cotton on many of the plantations near Richmond, Texas. The corn is also cut off in many sections.

No money is better spent than what is laid out for domestic satisfaction. A man is pleased that his wife is dressed as well as other people, and the wife is pleased that she is well dressed.

OUR Southern neighbors have been enjoying rural and steamboat excursions, whilst we were uncomfortable without fires and overcoats.

IT was not the magnitude of the Grecian army, nor the martial strength of Achilles, their leader, that conquered Troy, but ten years perseverance.

A new paper, to be called the Daily Sun, is shortly to be published in Erie. It will be independent in politics.

KOSSUTH set foot upon the soil of New England on Friday. His first experience of Connecticut must prove gratifying.
