

From the Public Ledger. IMPORTANT POLICE DEVELOPMENTS. Through the instrumentality of Mayor Gilpin of this city, and Mayor Guthrie of Pittsburg, some very important police developments have been made during the past week, in the interior of this State, and the principal manufactory of counterfeit money destroyed.

WINDOW BLINDS.—Our readers will find in another column the advertisement of G. L. Miller & Co., manufacturer of window blinds, shades, &c.

ALLEGED HOUSE.—Our readers will find the advertisement of the proprietors of this House, in our paper, this week. The House is an excellent one, and the terms reasonable.

WINDOW BLINDS AND SHADES.—Persons in want of window blinds of a superior quality and beautiful style of finish are referred to the advertisement of Mr. George W. Zimmerman, No. 61 Arch Street Philadelphia. Mr. Zimmerman is himself a practical workman, and has supplied blinds for some of the handsomest residences in the valley of the Susquehanna, as well as the city.

GOODY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The September number of this excellent monthly, being a double number, contains a vast deal of entertaining and useful information. The embellishments of the present number are handsomely executed. The Lady's Book and the American will be furnished for $4 per annum in advance.

PRINTING INK.—For sale for cash, at this office, kegs of 25, 20 and 12 pounds each. Price 25 cents per pound.

The goose pond in Market street remains as it was. If the authorities don't intend to fill it up immediately they should at least strew lime over it, to prevent any evil effects arising from miasmatic influence.

FRUIT.—Apples, peaches, pears, plums, melons and other fruits are abundant this season. Peaches are just beginning to ripen, although some of the gardens of this place produced ripe peaches ten days since.

CONFERRERS.—Major W. L. Dewart, the nominee for Congress in this county, has selected J. M. Simpson, Isaac D. Baker, and George W. Armstrong as conferrers to meet the conferrers of Schuylkill county, to nominate a candidate for Congress. The conferrers will meet at the house of I. Seitzinger near Ashland on Tuesday next.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.—Some boys, for we can hardly believe they were men, on Tuesday night after midnight, went prowling through the streets, rolling boxes, barrels, &c., into the streets and gutters—tearing up and turning over porches, and carrying away door steps. We can make every allowance for a little fun or innocent mischief, but such work as this can only be attributed to rowdyism and malice, or gross stupidity.

WILLIAM SEARIGHT, the democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner, is no more. He died at his late residence, in Uniontown, Fayette county, on Thursday last week, after a painful illness of about four weeks.

The State Convention which re-assembles at Harrisburg, on Thursday next, will have to make a new nomination for the office of Canal Commissioner, as well as for a candidate for the Supreme Court.

THE TICKET. The Democratic County Convention which assembled at this place, on Monday last, made their nominations without much difficulty, excepting that of Register and Recorder, which was closely contested between Mr. Purssel and Mr. Martz, until the 11th ballot.

The candidates selected are all gentlemen well known. Major Wm. L. Dewart was nominated for Congress on the first ballot, by a vote of nearly two to one over all the candidates. Schuylkill county having nominated Col. Straub, the contest will be between these two candidates, which, we trust will be satisfactorily adjusted by the conferrers on Tuesday next.

For Assembly, Col. Wm. Follmer was nominated without opposition. Having served but one year, it was but proper to give him another term, especially as no fault has been found with him.

For Register and Recorder, John P. Purssel was nominated. Mr. Purssel has already held the office for three years and is well known as an excellent and obliging officer.

Joseph Nicely, of Delaware was nominated for Commissioner on the first ballot. It affords us much pleasure to say that Mr. Nicely is a highly respectable and intelligent man and will make an excellent officer.

M. J. D. Witherington, the candidate for Auditor, is said to be an excellent accountant, a necessary qualification for this most important office in the County.

For Coroner, Aron Kelly was unanimously nominated. Mr. Kelly will make a good officer.

Want of space prevents us saying more this week.

CANAL COMMISSIONER. The State Convention which meets at Harrisburg on the 26th inst., will have another important duty to perform in nominating a candidate for Canal Commissioner.

A number of persons have already been named as candidates. Among them are Hon. Daniel Sturgeon, Wm. Hopkins, Wm. B. Foster, Joel B. Danner, Judge Ives and others. Among those just named we unhesitatingly prefer Judge Ives, who was a prominent candidate at the last Convention.

We should not, however, neglect to mention that our recent County Convention recommended Wm. Forsythe, Esq., of Northumberland for this office. Mr. Forsythe has many friends who would rejoice to see him occupying that station.

THE OLD DELEGATE SYSTEM ABOLISHED. A resolution was passed at the late County convention adopting the popular vote system instead of the old fashioned delegate system. As the resolution is not sufficiently explicit in its phrasology, we will endeavor to explain. Township elections will be held at the time and place appointed, as usual, when each candidate will be voted for. The proceedings are to be regularly kept and made out, of all the votes polled. Instead of delegates, return judges are appointed, who will all assemble at Sunbury, on a day fixed, as is now the custom in general elections. The candidate having the highest number of all the votes in the County, is declared the nominee of the party. This, we believe, is substantially the system which has been practiced for some time in Crawford county, and is said to work well.

The Harrisburg Union, in publishing the proceedings of the late "$200,000 Whiskey Insurrection" in Union county, omits the resolution passed by the party headed by Mr. Shriner, Gov. Bigler's Whiskey Inspector, in which the Governor was censured for signing the act allowing counties to subscribe. This is hardly fair play. The Governor should not be kept in the dark, in regard to the valuable services of his agents.

The next County Agricultural Fair to be held at Northumberland on the 7th and 8th of October, promises to be well attended. Its management is in the hands of excellent officers and managers, and is bound to flourish. All who can possibly do so should attend, and bring something for exhibition, and compete for the various premiums, a list of which will be found in another column.

Benjamin Matthias, Esq., State Senator, from Philadelphia, died on Saturday last, after a protracted illness. Mr. Matthias has, at various times during a number of years, represented the city in the State Legislature. Mr. M. was, at one time, connected with the press. For several years he was associated with Mr. Joshua Taylor, in the publication of the Saturday Chronicle.

ROW AT NEWPORT. There was quite a row at the Ocean House in Newport, on the 5th inst. A servant attempted to wreat a dial out of the hands of Mr. Yergar a Southern gentleman, who was helping some ladies, who struck the servant in the face with a knife. Mr. Yergar, anticipating an attack arrested himself, and next morning while at breakfast he observed a number of waiters preparing to attack him. He drew out two revolvers and with the aid of some friends expelled them. The waiters about 100 in number gathered, in another room. Mr. Yergar deemed it expedient to leave, and was accompanied by about 50 southerners.

THE PRESS AND THE COMMITTEE ON FRUIT. The Committee on fruit at the County Fair, to be held at Northumberland, with the exception of the head and tail, is composed entirely of members of the press of this County. This is right—the press and good fruit are well associated together, and the product is not hard to take in the shape of good cider, by democrats and whigs, although hard cider is supposed to be a beverage peculiarly adapted to the tastes of our whig friends, which can only be accounted for from the fact of their having been themselves, somewhat soured by frequent disappointments, they have assimilated their tastes accordingly, in order to be consistent. Be this as it may, we prefer our cider sweet and new. Our whig friends, who generally take it hard, will have to wait, as usual, until after the election when much of it is sure to get sour.

THE NORTHERN BRIDGE. Has been let to Mr. Kirkbride, the builder of the Williamsport and Lock Haven bridges, at $13.75 per foot. The bridge is 976 feet long. The contract will therefore amount to about $13,000. The contractor takes as much of the material of the old bridge, which is but a few years old, as can be used at a fixed price, which will, perhaps, amount to about $4,000. The shingles and the plank of the floor, have all been secured, and are worth, the former about $12,000 and the latter about $7,000.—The bridge is to be passed on the 1st of January next.

CAPT. MARCY.—Intelligence reached the War Department on Friday the 13th inst., which strengthens the belief that the report of the massacre of Capt. Marcy and his command is false. Some of the latest Texas papers ascribe the origin of the massacre of Capt. Marcy and his command to an encounter which a portion of it had with some Indians, resulting, as it was reported, in the killing of four of the soldiers.

VANDAL OUTRAGE.—Some persons entered the lower nursery of the horticultural establishment of Henry H. Crapo, in New Bedford, Mass., and destroyed about twelve hundred young and thrifty fruit and ornamental trees. They were sawed, cut, hacked, and pulled up, so their loss is a total one, amounting to about $900 in actual value.

MINISTER TO ENGLAND.—The President has appointed Hon. Joseph R. Ingersoll, of Philadelphia, Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of St. James, in the room of Hon. Abbot Lawrence, of Boston, recalled at his own request.

The Camp Meeting which is held on the farm of John Farnsworth, Esq., about three miles from this place is well attended. Omnibuses and other vehicles run from this place well filled at 12½ cents. Three lines of truck cars, pretty well piled up, run at 6 cents. Cheap fares make passengers plenty.

SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD.—The vote of the Stockholders of the York and Cumberland Railroad, authorizing the loaning of its bonds, to aid in the construction of the Susquehanna Railroad, stands 1360 in favor, and none against it.

General Taylor's widow died at East Pascagoula, on Saturday night last.

On motion our representative, Wm. Follmer, was re-nominated by acclamation. On motion the Convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for the office of Register and Recorder, as follows:

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for Auditor. M. J. D. Witherington, 22 votes. George M. Wyckoff, 11 " Joseph Hogendoeber, 5 " M. J. D. Witherington was declared duly nominated.

On motion, Aaron Kelly, was unanimously nominated for Coroner. On motion, the following resolutions were passed: Resolved, That Jacob Leisenring, of Northumberland, be the Representative Delegate to the Harrisburg 4th of March Convention.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Northumberland county, adopt the "Popular Vote system" of nominating Candidates for the different offices of the County, and that the standing Committee be hereby authorized to notify them of the fact in their call for the selection of candidates.

Resolved, That our delegates to the State Convention, to be held on the 24th of August, be and they are hereby instructed to vote for William Forsythe, sr. Esq., for Canal Commissioner.

Resolved, That this convention recommend to the convention, which is to meet at Harrisburg on the 26th of August, the name of the Hon. George W. Haas, Valentine Klase, James Eckman. Resolved, That all the Democratic papers of the county publish the proceedings. (Signed by the Officers.)

TROUT IN LAKE ERIE.—Mr. Andrews, of Dunkirk, N. Y. recently succeeded in catching salmon trout in Lake Erie, where it was not known that they existed. Several unsuccessful attempts were made at different depths of water, and in different ways, but at length the true way was found, and that by turning out some thirteen miles from shore and dropping nets to the depth of nearly or quite 100 feet, and thus letting them remain for some hours, the fish could be secured.—Mr. Andrews took at one haul over fifteen hundred pounds of trout and whitefish. In this lot were thirty-three trout, weighing about thirty pounds each.

The Lancaster papers, say no cases of cholera have occurred there except the three in Orange street, ten days ago. At the Cincinnati Infirmary, for the week ending August 4th, there were 4 deaths from cholera.

Mr. Seward's speech on the whale fishery and American commerce in the Pacific, has been published in Washington, in pamphlet form, and more than 60,000 copies have been subscribed for by Senators and members.

The editors of the York Gazette have in their possession a cucumber, raised by George Anstine, Esq., in Windsor township, which has the appearance of a snake, and is nearly three feet long.

Two different railroad companies at Indianapolis, are building a Union Passenger Depot, 400 feet long, by 98 feet wide, and an eating house one story high, and 120 by 32 feet wide.

The man with hair so deeply red that it speaks seven different languages, and has saved Watts' Hymns to Greek hexameters, has lately dyed his crimson locks black.

CORRESPONDENCE. Saratoga, Aug. 11th, 1852. I find myself suddenly transferred from the quiet and retirement of a mountain life to the noise and confusion of Bable. The fashionable world hath gathered here her votaries—a pleasure seeking crowd—they have come from all quarters, with pomp and pageantry and glittering equipages.

The season is now at its height. The grand Fancy Dress Ball comes off on the 20th. Preparations are on foot to render it a most magnificent affair. The hotels are crowded to overflowing. Every train of cars bring in fresh arrivals and the side-walks are filled with men and women running about in search of lodgings. All the fashion congregates around the "United States Hotel" Perhaps the most noted character of this establishment is black Morris, the head waiter. I am told he makes his hundred dollars a day from fees alone. At dinner I often watch his movements with the most lively interest.—He moves among his vast array of waiters with the dignity of a sovereign. His commands are given with the most extravagant pomposity; and over a broken dish or plate he assumes a tragic attitude and goes off in regular Booth style.

There is but little variation in amusements here, after breakfast there is bowling, billiards, or a ride in the country. Home in time to dress for dinner at three, after dinner music by the band. Promenade with the ladies; smoke a cigar; or perchance dash off behind a fleet pair of horses. Tea at 7; then a hop, concert or flirtation as a person feels inclined. I find much pleasure in rising early and walking to Congress Spring. Every body goes there before breakfast. The grounds about the Spring are laid off with much good taste and beauty. It is a delightful place for a morning walk. Three or four glasses of water and as many rapid walks around the premises produces a voracious appetite for breakfast. A band is in attendance every morning stationed near the spring and discourses most eloquent music. "Still so gently o'er me stealing"—"Old Folks at Home," with a waltz or polka, touches a reverberating chord and calls up loved and cherished memories.

What shall I say of the ladies—heaven bless their kind souls! They are ever around the path-way of man. Not alone in his hours of anguish, ministering to his wants and comforts and breathing words of hope; but in the illumined hall and at the festive board dispensing joy and sunlight and rendering gay and delicious what else would be an Egyptian banquet. Saratoga was ever to me a magic word, at its very name visions of beauty and loveliness have passed before me. I fancied to myself a fairy realm; peopled with beings bright and beautiful as the most lovely ideal form of boyhood's dream. The Saratoga of to-day is unlike the Saratoga of past years. With one or two exceptions I find nothing beyond the ordinary run of handsome women. I could name a dozen of the Susquehanna girls that in a contest for beauty with the Saratoga belles, would triumphantly bear off the palm. Miss G. from Jersey city is certainly very handsome. She is not more than "sweet sixteen," but her gay ringing laugh and sweet smile have gathered for her many admirers. Miss T. from North Carolina has perhaps the most substantial claim as "Belle." Her numerous charms have already brought to her feet a host of suitors.

Her eyes dark charms were soon to tell, But gaze on that of the gazelle. It will amaze the fancy well. The evening "Hop" constitutes one of the chief amusements to those who love the motion of the dance. The five-step waltz is a favorite. It certainly is fascinating—"fatally fascinating" to those who indulge in it.—Mothers would do well to strike out this from the list of their daughters amusements.

Madame Albani gave her second and last concert to a large audience. Price of tickets $2.00. I objected to this exorbitant price, but took a ticket as I am in for sight seeing. Many persons compare her to the "Divine Jenny." But this is ridiculous praise. She sings well and shows superior cultivation and talent. But in my humble estimation she is far behind the sweet warblings of the "nightingale."

Many distinguished people are here. Mr. Buchanan is at the "United States." He seems to be a favorite with the ladies. Every one visits "Saratoga Lake." It is a beautiful spot four miles from the village. A picnic for benefit of guests at the "United States" was held there to-day. The roads were awfully dusty, but the party very pleasant.

To-morrow I have set apart to visit with some friends the scene of Gates' triumph.—The spot is about 12 miles to the east. It is hardly known here, and very few, I fancy, allow themselves to associate the name of Saratoga with one of the most memorable achievements of American arms.

JOHN MURRAY, JAMES MOORE, sr. THOS. MERWINE, Wm. C. LAWSON, JOHN J. PETERMAN. Committee of Arrangements. August 14, 1852.

Hundreds of our citizens complain of debility and languor of the system, derangement of the liver and stomach, want of appetite, &c.; they are frequently the result of too close application, and a thousand other causes we cannot here name; but we would say to all so afflicted, do as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hooffland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and, our word for it, you will be cured. We recommend this medicine, knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines. We would give to our readers, purchase none unless prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.
