Bring me companions ! Am 1 mad ? No wonder I should rave; They took the only one I had And hid her—in a grave. And I'm kept here—a merry thing— Wherefore full well I know; --Ha! ha !--because I laugh and sing They will not let me go.

1 saw the moon come down last night And dance upon the sca, Go, catch her ere she take to flight, And bar her up with me. The sun the say at rise of day, Did what he should not do ; He smiled-and made the hills look gay -Let him be prisoned too.

And yonder star is quite as bad-Run, seize it ere it fly : We'll dance together-all are mad-Sun, moon and star-and I. Look ! ho ! aside my fetters cast ! That image !-- loose my chain-Tis she ! she's there-help ! hold her fast -Ha! ha! she's mine again FORT MILLER, Cal., Nov 1852.
