

DEPARTURE OF GEN. PIERCE FROM CONCORD.
Concord, N. H., Feb. 14.—Gen. Pierce, President elect, left here this afternoon, for Boston, (en route for Washington) accompanied by Sidney Webster, Esq. Numerous friends were present at the station, and took leave of him, but there was no other public demonstration. He will remain in Boston to-night, and be in New York to-morrow night, or Wednesday morning. The Cabinet is definitely and unchangedly formed, but none but those selected know it, and probably will not until the 4th of March—the newspapers to the contrary notwithstanding.

GEN. PIERCE'S RESIDENCE IN WASHINGTON.—Washington, Feb. 14.—Gen. Pierce, it is said will take a private residence, during the spring and summer months, in this city, until the executive Mansion is repaired and refitted.

CONDITION OF MR. FULLER.—Washington, Feb. 14.—The condition of Mr. Fuller, who was shot a few days since by Capt. Schaumburg, is much improved, and the probabilities are in favor of his recovery.

MARRIAGE is a subject which has occupied the mind of Louis Napoleon for some time, and while the people of the civilized world have been expecting his union with the Princess Wassa, he suddenly went around and united himself with a Spanish lady, with as little ceremony as sensible people use when they go to Rock-hill & Wilson's Clothing Store, No. 111. Chestnut street, corner of Franklin Place, Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Nov. 6, 1852.—17.—ew.

POISONING.
Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c. In another column will be found the advertisement of Hohenack's Medicine, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own, as well as their Child's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hohenack's Liver Pills.

"Be not deceived," but ask for Hohenack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOHENACK, as none else are genuine.

MARRIED.
On Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. William White Montgomery, CHARLES D. WILKINSON, of Miss MARY, daughter of the late Martin Irwin, of Sunbury.
With the above notice the printers acknowledge the receipt of an excellent cake, plump, round and spongy, and in no way curtailed of its fair proportions. Wishing the happy couple a happy future, they hope they may bear lively testimony against the libel of Peter Pinlar, who says:
Well, a nice, fat, familiar steak,
Write this one very apt to social ease.
On the 6th inst., by John Hoff Faq, Mr. JOHN BRASS, to Miss SARAH KILPATRICK, both of Coal Township.
On the 20th ult., by Rev. Joseph France, Mr. ANDREW RUMYAN, of Rush tp., North D., to Miss SARAH GEHARTH, of Danville.
On the 25th ult., by the same, Mr. THOMAS NESBIT of North D., to Miss REBECCA BAILEY, of Danville.
On the same day, by the same, Mr. DANIEL LAYCOCK, of Lewisburg, to Miss NANCY J. PERSEL, of Danville.
On the 20th ult., by the Rev. Mr. Ball, Mr. FURSYTH PETRIKIN, of Orangeville, to Miss MARY A. STONERBERGER, of Biarebeck tp., Columbia co.
On the 18th ult., by Jesse Weigel, Esq., Mr. JOHN LUK, to Miss MARY CLEAVELAND, both of Franklin tp.
On the 20th ult., by the same, HAMILTON F. CLARK, to Miss MARGARET READER, all of Rush tp., North D.

DIED.
In Northumberland, MARY ELIZABETH, wife of Mr. Philip Shay, and only daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Wallis, in the 29th year of her age.
—Leaves her time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north winds breath,
And start as see—not all,
That last to rest—for those own, Oh Death!"

Scarce fifteen months have elapsed since the subject of this notice was led to the altar by her now bereaved and lonely partner. She entered upon the duties of her new relation full of health and hope, and with as fair prospects of a prolonged and useful career, as are ordinarily entertained at that interesting period of life. And faithfully did she fulfill the sacred obligations there assumed. But alas! how quietly has death annihilated the covenant into which she had entered! How soon have the hands which decked the happy bride for the marriage altar been required to shroud her cold, unconscious clay in the habiliments of the tomb! How brief the lapse of time between the bridal salutations, and the lost faint farewell with no return of the gentle pressure of affections hand. But such is life—a vapor which appears for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

The illness which terminated the connection of the deceased with this world was rapid in its progress, and of short duration. To the severe suffering, with which it was attended, she submitted with the utmost patience, and with a fortitude which excited the admiration of all around her. When informed of her critical situation, the intelligence was received with entire composure as well as a most manifest disposition to assist in the Divine purpose. She expressed her willingness to live, if such was the determination of her heavenly father, and her readiness to die, if he had thus appointed. As it became certain that death was rapidly approaching, the evidence of her preparation for that eventful change was rendered more and more apparent. She was enabled by Divine grace to look the King of Terrors not only without fear, but with a complacency which was marked as unusual by her professional attendant. During the forenoon of her last day, she conversed calmly but freely, and a few friends who were admitted to the "privileged chamber, where she met her fate." Assured of her title to the heavenly inheritance, and that all was well with herself, she manifested much concern for those most dear to her heart, calling them one by one to her bedside, she faintly breathed into their ear such words of affectionate counsel, as her rapidly diminishing strength would permit. For some hours previous to the closing scene, the power of utterance was lost. But the same calm, resigned and confident expressions of trust in her atoning Saviour, continued to the latest breath, and even left its peaceful impress upon the tenement of clay where its deathless occupant had fled. Of her it may with truth be said.—

—She sits
As seats the morning star, which goes not down
Behind the darkened west, nor hides obscure
Among the tempest of the sky, but meets away
Into the light of morning!"

The deceased possessed an amiable and affectionate disposition, kind and gentle manners, and was eminently qualified both by nature and education, to discharge with fidelity the duties of every relation in life, whether as wife, mother, daughter, sister or friend. Her unexpected removal has left a painful void in the happy family of which she was the chief ornament—beside the sore bereavement sustained by her beloved husband, and the unspeakable loss to her tender infant son, two young alas! to realize the value of a mothers care, or to mourn the loss of a mothers love, the stroke has fallen with great severity upon an aged and widowed mother, and an affectionate brother. Nor does the loss stop within the circle of weeping friends. Her acquaintances, the society in which she has been prominent, the community in which almost her entire life has been passed, and the Presbyterian Church, of which for several years she has been an exemplary and valuable member, have all been bereaved by this mysterious disposition of God's inscrutable providence. But we sorrow not as those who have no hope. Our loss is her unending gain. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints!

While we mourn and lament,
They are freed from anguish,
E'en the forms that we do miss,
Never are by heaven forgotten,
For the dead again shall awake,
Rise to an immortal day,
There in realms supernal,
Joy shall be eternal,
Gone no sorrow are our souls here,
Dearly friends no more shall sever,
They shall dwell with God forever,
In that glorious heavenly home."

Assignee's Public Sale of Valuable COAL LANDS, in Coal Township, Northumberland County, Pa. THE following Tracts of very valuable Anthracite Coal Lands, will be offered at Public Sale on THURSDAY, the 3d day of MARCH, 1853 at 7 o'clock in the evening, at the Philadelphia Exchange, in the City of Philadelphia, viz:
No. 1. Part of the Buck Ridge Tract CONTAINING 212 ACRES, strict measure, being the undivided one-fourth part of Buck Ridge Tract, which contains, by estimate, in all, 848 acres, strict measure. Upon this tract there are several Mines opened, and thereon are erected Four two story DOUBLE FRAME DWELLING HOUSES; a branch Rail Road, about a quarter of a mile in length, leading from the Sunbury and Danville and Pottsville Rail Road to the Coal Mines; and other improvements suitable for a colliery. Buck Run passes through the middle of this tract.
No. 2. Part of Green Ridge Tract containing 937 ACRES 431 PERCHES, strict measure, it being the equal undivided half part of Green Ridge Tract, which contains, by estimate, in all, 1874 Acres 97 Perches, strict measure. The Sunbury and Danville and Pottsville Rail Road passes through it, (near the middle) and also the Shamokin Creek. Valuable Mines of Iron Ore, and a great number of Coal Veins have been discovered and opened upon this tract.
The prospect of the early completion of the Rail Road through this region some 30 miles further to Pottsville, and a branch of 8 miles to the Danville Iron Works and Ore region, render these lands very desirable for enterprising men and capitalists.
Conditions will be made known, and attendance given, at time of sale, by JAMES B. LANE, Assignee of Geo. Hecker.
Lancaster, February 12, 1853.—4t.

BLANK Books bound and ruled in any and every style, in the most durable and substantial manner, with or without Printed Heads. Person in want of—Leggers, Day Books, Journals, Receipt Books, Blotters, Letter Books, Cook Ledgers, &c., &c. or any kind of Blank Books, would do well to give me a call as I pledge myself to give satisfaction. Paper ruled to any pattern desired. Particular attention paid to Binding all kinds of Old Books, Bibles, Hymn Books, Gessey's Pictorial, Graham's Magazine, Sartin's Magazine, Harper's Magazine, Joseph's works, Law Books, &c., &c.

Any of the above or other books bound in full gilt, plain or fancy, to suit the wishes of customers. I would again call the attention of my friends and customers, to the fact that I have been a Practical Book Binder for the last 18 years, and they can depend on having their work done in the very best manner, and do the work myself. I use the best paper & material; please give me a call, my charges are reasonable and fair, but there is no difficulty about prices where work is done satisfactorily.
N. B. Persons having Books they want Bound can send them by stage directed to me stating the style they wish them bound in: I will do them as low as they can be done anywhere, carefully pack them up and return them: Also persons can send orders for Blank Books by mail, which will be punctually attended to. All work done at short notice.
R. L. MARPLE, Practical Book Binder.
