MOUNT COMFORT, Shamokin twsp. } H. B. MASSEY, Esq. March 14, 1853.

I understand I am censured by the anti-subscription party for not vacating my seat as President of the Mass Meeting, held at Sunbury, on the 8th inst.

Now for the purpose of throwing light upon the subject I will state the proceedings of the opening of the meeting as far as my observations served me, and then let an enlightened public cast the blame where it belongs.

When the Court House door was opened the people rushed in with the force of many waters; I stood back until the rush had subsided, and when I entered, the house was completely crowded.
