HER PROBABLE FATE.

In an article on the perils of the sea, the New York Courier states that the steamer Baltic sailed from New York on the 4th of March last.

Arthur Morrison, one of the victims of whom we speak, had a young and fondly attached wife, and a child five years old, in Illinois, the place of his birth.

But he "counted without his host," for Mr. Walker immediately despatched a party in pursuit, which overtook Morrison near San Diego.

In order to effect this, Morrison entered into a combination with ten others to desert at the first opportunity.

John J. Crittenden is suffering severely in public estimation, in consequence of his volunteering to defend the Wards.

"Resolved, That this meeting request the Board of Directors of the Jefferson County Agricultural Fair, to withdraw their invitation to Governor Crittenden to deliver the address at the next annual Fair of Jefferson County.

The Kentucky papers are filled with the proceedings of public meetings in that State, by every one of which Gov. Crittenden has been denounced.

The Ward family have left Louisville, and the whereabouts of the alleged criminal is unknown.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Despatches from Spain, have been received by the Government, and by the French and English Legation.

Mr. Soble has peremptorily demanded the recall of the Captain General of Cuba, and a large indemnity for the seizure of the Black Warrior.

Letters are in town from Mr. Calderon, former Minister from Spain, in Washington, expressing deep regret at the course pursued by Mr. Soble.

IMPORTANT MOVEMENT.—A Nebraska Emigration Convention met at Worcester yesterday, and held two sessions in the City Hall.

Intelligence by telegraph from Independence to the 4th of May, received here, states that the Salt Lake Mail had arrived.

THE MANUFACTURE OF IRON.—It is stated that sixteen iron works are now in operation—9 in Pennsylvania, 3 in Virginia, 1 in New Jersey, 1 in Ohio, 1 in Massachusetts, and 1 in Maryland.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR, DATED U. S. Hotel, Philadelphia, May 9, 1854.

Philadelphia now would hardly be recognized by one who had seen it 20 years ago. It has, in that brief time, not only more than doubled its population, but its architectural style of building has been greatly changed.

The prevailing style of building, then, was of brick of 3 and 4 stories in height, with scarcely an exception.

In the political horizon things have thus far worn a comparatively quiet aspect, but parties are beginning to marshal their forces and calculate their strength.

The late incorporation of the Clearfield, Painesville and Ashabula Railroad Company secures $500,000 to the Sunbury and Erie road, which, with a similar amount which will be subscribed in this city, will enable the company to demand from the City Councils to-morrow evening, the additional million of dollars.

The vast increase of business consequent upon the completion of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has opened the eyes and somewhat awakened the energies of the Philadelphians.
