

HORRID CHILD-MURDER IN DELAWARE

The Dover-Sentinel gives an account of a most atrocious affair which happened in that vicinity on last Thursday, the 24th: "A man, by the name of George Parker, was (colored) living in the name of Dover, near to Mr. Slaughter's house early yesterday morning and knocked at the door for admission. When Mr. Slaughter came to the door, which he opened cautiously, he found Parker standing on the outside, with a gun levelled at him, threatening to kill him. Slaughter immediately closed the door, when Parker went to his own house, had some words with the girl, who lives with his wife, and shot her, injuring her severely. He then went off to Mr. Gibbs' house, the door of which he broke open, and rushed upon Gibbs, who made his escape out of a back door, not however, before the negro had discharged the gun at him.

Gibbs made off to a neighbor's house, by the name of Moore, to give the alarm, which he found, when they immediately went to secure Parker, who he found that Gibbs had fled, returned again to his own house, and by this time Gibbs, who had fled, was in a most cruel and barbarous manner, cut his throat from ear to ear, then threw the body away from him. He then went out into the yard in search of his wife, no doubt to murder her, who had fled to a neighbor's house with the youngest child, but seeing his other child, he sprang at it, and in an instant he had this one in his grasp, cutting its throat also, and threw it up as high as his strength would allow. As it came down upon the hard ground, waltering in its gore and blood.

"This fiend incarnate then sought his wife about the premises, but not being able to find her returned to the house, where he was waiting for Gibbs' horse, where he was when Gibbs, Moore, and others arrived to take him. Mr. Cooper had previously been sent for, and when he arrived found the inhuman monster in the hands of his captors, anything but a peaceful man. The prisoner had to be held down on the ground with a man on each arm, one on his breast, and one on each foot. In this situation Mr. Cooper found him, upon whom he placed manacles, tied him in a cart and brought him to Dover, and lodged him in jail for safe keeping.

"He shot at his pursuers after holding them at bay a long time; and it was only when his gun had been discharged, that they dare approach the house to take him. Several shots were fired at him, one or two taking effect, when a simultaneous charge was made, and after a severe struggle, he was secured as above described."

SOLE AND PERMY

Mr. Perry, the American Secretary of Legation at Madrid, and in the National Intelligence a long letter, addressed to the President of the United States, replying to Mr. Soule's letter of March 24th. He charges Mr. Soule with wilfully and knowingly mismanaging the Black Carrier affair, so as not to obtain the result which he desired. He says Mr. Soule neglected the instructions he received, suppressed five months, an important despatch from Secretary Marcy, intended for the Spanish Government, intercepted the cables, and suppressed the charge of Affairs of the United States at Madrid, with the Secretary of State, at Washington, and endeavored to seduce Mr. Perry to abandon his post, for the purpose of procuring the appearance of a rupture of diplomatic relations with the Spanish court. These charges will of course be replied to by Mr. Soule.

Gen. Scott—His Appearance.—In passing down Twelfth street to-day (May 21st) I met for the first time for many months, Gen. Scott, he residing in a splendid mansion in that street, which he has purchased since the title of Lieutenant-General was given to him, with the salary added from the time of the war with Mexico. He grows old quite rapidly, and the change in his appearance is decidedly result of the campaign that elected Gen. Pierce is very apparent.—His lofty form is bowed down—his elastic step has passed away—a look of sadness and weariness has settled upon these once expressive official features. He looks a very retired life, but little company—rarely appears in public, and usually walks alone.—New York Correspondence of Boston Journal.

POPULAR IGNORANCE.—The Morris Jerseyman learns that on Saturday evening last, at the Rockaway, a boat was capsized, and a boy named Henry Herring, aged about 13 years, while performing some duty on a boat, fell over into the canal. An alarm was immediately given, a boat-hook procured, and the boy taken out. He had been in the water only about five minutes, and it is stated that his eyes were open, and that he had every appearance of coming to life; but his rescuers threw a rope around his neck, and threw him back into the canal, where he remained until morning, when he was taken to the hospital. It is stated that the law required him to remain in the water until an inquest could be held!

AMERICAN SOLDIER.—The last Westminster Review has an article on America that widely contrasts with much that has hitherto come from the British press. For instance, it says: "One knows that what is most to be admired in the Mexican war—the facility with which an army of volunteers submitted to discipline, the perfection of their weapons, new inventions of American, and the skill and previous unknown—the goodness of their commissariat in a wild and vast country, or the flexibility of their mechanical adaptations as to reporting, printing and communicating homeward. For fifty years past, the merchant ships of our long coast have not only been far better built than those of Great Britain; and as in 1812 our gunners were very inferior to theirs, so at the crisis of the Mexican war, into which they plunged out of a long peace, their practice in small arms was immeasurably superior to anything that trained British regulars had at that time attained."

RELIEF FOR ERICSSON.—John Ericsson, the inventor of the carline engine, has expended all of his own and of his wife's fortune in prosecuting his experiments, and is now in that dire straits. As his poverty is the consequence of his exertions to promote science and to benefit mankind, it has been proposed that a collection be taken up for his (Ericsson's) benefit, in every town and ward in the United States, on the 4th day of July next, and in all the meetings for making arrangements to celebrate that day.

KIDNAPPING IN CALIFORNIA.—Some Mexicans lately made an attempt to steal three Indian children from one of the recent arrivals, but they were pursued and overtaken, and some of them captured. The poor children were tied together by the wrists, and when rescued, the rope had cut them severely. A great many children have been stolen and sold in the mercantile districts, where they bring from 20 to 250 dollars each.

A DIRTY TOWN.—There is said to be a woman in Pittsburg, Pa., who takes in children to wash. She gives them a good scrubbing with soap and sand, and then sets them in the sun to dry. Pittsburg is such a smoky town that the children have to be washed all over twice a day.

"THE WAY OF THE TRANSFORMER IS HARD."—In London, a young man was recently sentenced to four years' imprisonment for attempting to forge checks. Before his term of confinement is up, he will come into possession of a fortune of £100,000, but will, nevertheless, be still liable to be tried on other charges.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills, the most efficacious Remedies in the United States.—Cure for Ulcers, Sores, &c.—Charles Yeats, of Maiden-lane, New York, had scrofulous sores on his legs for four or five years, attended with a continual discharge, he suffered considerably, and everything was tried in the hope of curing him, without success.—After every other remedy had failed, he had recourse to Holloway's Ointment and Pills, these infallible medicines thoroughly cleansed the blood and healed the sore in his leg, and he is now in the enjoyment of perfect health.

The Virginia Election excitement is over and Florida defeated, but it must not be understood that Rockhill & Wilson are run off the track. They are still abroad in the clothing business, which may be seen by calling at their store, No. 111 Chestnut st., corner of Franklin Place.

GREAT FIRE, Chestnut and Fifth Streets, Friday morning, December 25th, 1854. Evans & Watson's Salamander Safes Triumphant, as they always are when put to the test. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15, 1854.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON, No. 25 South Fourth St., Philadelphia. Gentlemen—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to Merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, etc., from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the four-story building of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets. The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The safe was then removed and placed in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents. Will you please have the Safe and Locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire-proof qualities. Yours, Respectfully, LACY & PHILIPS.

Evans & Watson take pleasure in referring to the following, among the many hundreds who have testified in their favor:—S. M.
