"Dr. Muddack is the say of the late Henry Maddack, Eag. M. P. the well known herrister, and promises to fise, in his own profession, in an emineal a degree as his parent.

The system (inhabited proposed as the fine stellar to the system (inhabited proposed as the fine stellar method of applying a rended to a part in of the system which cannot be directly reached by medicine viried. We recommend our readers to purchase the Work?—Westeyan Chronicle, Leaden, Feb. 19, 1843.

We reasumed the Work to our readers, as it appears to be taily matored, cleanly written, and entirely diversed of any quackery or pell-secking tendency. The Work well deserves perusal, and the practice, as far as our knowledge and experience extends, will repay not only a serious consideration, but a patient trial of its merits?—

We think that no one can rise from its perusal, without being antisfied that it is the work of a practical and experienced man; and that it ought, for the sake of those who suffer from consumption, ashma, or bronchits, to be brought into extensive circulation. It is, in the stretest sense of the term, a valuable Work."—Oxford Paiversity Heralt, November, 7, 1816.

"A Re-Print of the Loudon Edition of Mr. Maddock's Work on Consumption, Bronchits, Ashma, &c.; with Notes, &c., by Dr. Chas, Greene—This Work will be found worthy the attention of our readers, for they may rearn from it what can be expected from this mode of treating Consumption and other affections of the nir-passages. (From Professor Jas. Bryan, Editor of the "Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Journal."

"Dr. Mandocc's news on Industation is one of the few which have been issued from the English press on this subject. Its re-publication in this country, with the judicious Notes of Dr. Greene, will add to the medical interators of the United States, and, it is hoped, excite some interest in the medical Profession on the subject of fainhibition, as a means of fresting pulmonary affections. With the addition of modern discoveries in Physiology, this mode of treating these diseases should have a fair trial and some atomement made for the long neglect which in halaction has suffered at the bands of medical mea.

SALAMANDER SAFES. EVANS & WATSON,

Mensrs. Evans & Warson, No. 29 South Gentlemen :- We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to Merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, etc., from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Yifth streets. The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The Safe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents. Will you please have the Safe and Locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence system of conveyancing. By A. Jordan, President Judge of the Eighth Judicial district of Pa., and Wm. M. Rockefeller and M. L. Shindel, of the bar of Northumberland county. Since the publication of the book, the following letter has been received from Judge Pearson of Harrisburg: HARRISBURG, June 30, 1853. GENTLEMEN:

After a careful examination of your "Amercan pleaders assistant," I take pleasure in expressing my entire approval of the selection and composition of the precedents thus offered to the public. The legal profession in Pennsylvania stands in need of a correct system of pleading, adapted to our habits of business, and the practice of the courts. Your forms of declarations being, to a great extent, founded on the acts of assembly will be a aving of labor to the pleader, and conduce to safety and brevity in our pleadings. It should be in the hands of every practising lawyer in our state.

Yours, with great respect, JNO. J. PEARSON. Han. A. Jordan, Wm. M. Rockefeller and M. L. Shindel, Esquires.

W. McCARTY, Esq., Dear Sic:—I received more than a year ago a copy of "Reed,s Pleaders' Assistant" improved by Judge Jordan and others. I examined it with ome care soon afterwards, and have had occasion to use it several times since. I think it de-cidedly valuable as a manuel for practising attorneys in Pennsylvania, and do not hesitate to recommend it. If it were generally used it would increase the accuracy of the profession in matters which are often very carelessly done.

I am very truly yours, &c., J. S. BLACK I also received a copy of the Pleaders' Assistant, and have examined it sufficiently to enable me to concur very heartily in the above commendations by the Chief Justice GEO, W. WOODWARD. July 19, 1854 .-
