The Sunbury American.

NEW SERIES, VOL. 8, NO. 34.

SUNBURY, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA.-SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1855.

OLD SERIES, VOL. 16. NO. 8.

The Sunbury American,

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY H. B. MASSER. Market Square, Sunbury, Penna.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. TWO DOLLARS per amount to be paid half yearly in wirence. No paper descontinued until ALL arrearages are All communications or letters on business relating the office, to matte attention, must be POST PAID.

TO CLUBS.

Three copies to one address, $5.00
Seven De Do 10.00
Fincen For Do 20.00
Five dellars in advance well pay for three year's subscription to the American.

Postmisters will please not use Agents, and frank letters containing subsecution money. They are permitted to do this under the Post Office Lew. TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

One Source of 14 faces, 2 times,
Every subsequent intertion,
One Square, 2 months,
Six months,
One year,
Sinsiness Cards of Five lines, ner sonars, Marchanis and others, advertising by the year, with the privilege of inserting different advectionments weekly.

1 Larger Advectionments, no per agreement.

JOB PRINTING

We have removeded with our establishment a well selected JOS CETTUP, which will enable us to execute in the nestest style, every variety of puming. H. B. MASSER, ATTORNEY AT LAW. SUNBURY, PA. Business attended to in the Counties of Northumberland, Union, Lycoming Montour and Celumbia.

References in Philadelphia: Zon. Joh R. Trann. Chas, Gibbons, Esq., Linn, Smith & Co.

WHITE ASH ANTHRACITE COAL FROM THE LANCASTER COLLIERY. Northumberland county, Pa.,

TELLI we have very extensive improve-Our exes of Coultage;

LUMPA | for Smelling purposes. STEAMBUAT," for sie. and Steamboat BROKEN, for Family use and Steam. STOVE,)

NUT. { for Limeburners and Steam. Our point of Shipping is Sunbury, where arexagements are made to load bosts without any OCCHRAN, PEALE & CO. J. J. CRERKAN, Untienster.

C. W. PRALE, Shamekin. BRET. REINHOLD, Lancaster. A. BAUMBARDSER, do.
Orders addressed to Shamokin or Sunbury. will receive prompt attention. Feb. 10, 1855 .- 1y

BICBLSOIR EATING SALOON! CHARLES D. WHARTON

HAS taken the Saloon farmerly occupied by J. W. Washington. In Market Square, Sunbary, where he will be happy to dispense to his ther weapon, this "gray goose quill." hours of the day, and all reasonable hours of the

LEATHER. FRITZ, HENDRY & Co. No. 29 North Third Street, Philadetphia.

MOROCCO Manufacturers, Curriers and Importers of FRENCH CALF-SKINS, and dealers in Red and Oak SOLE LEATHER & Feb. 17, 1855 .- w ly

F. H. SMITH, PORT MONNAIE, POCKET BOOK, Bressing Case Manufacturer, N. W. cor. of Fourth & Chestnut Sts.,

Work Boxes, Port Monunics. Packet Books, Traveling Bogs. Bankers Cases. Backgammon Boards, Note Holders. Portable Desks. Cigar Cases. Dressing Cases. Pocket Memorandum Books. Also, a general assortment of English, French and German Fancy Goods, Fine Pucket Cutlery. Razers, Razer Strops and Gold Pens.

Wholesale, Second and Third Floor F. H. SMITH N. W. cor. Fourth & Chestnut Sts., Philada. N. B .- On the receipt of $1, a Superior Gold Pen will be sent to any part of the United States, by mail; -describing peo, thus, medium, hard,

Phile., March 31, 1855 .- pty. DANVILLE HOTEL, JOHN DEEN, JR.,

Market Street, Dansille, Pa. THIS is one of the largest and most commodious hotels in the interior of Pennsylvania. It has been recently fitted up, in excellent style, with all the modern conveniences.

Danville, Sept. 22, 1855 .-TO GROCERS AND CONFECTIONERS. BUY your goods from first limits and save 20 per cont. The materizated has in store and offers for sale at the a discount of 3 per cent for cash. ALMONDS.
AVAINUTS.
CURRANTS, GRANGES,
CHEAM NUTS,
CHEAM NUTS,
CHEAN NUTS,
CASTILE SOAP, Ac.

Phila Sept. 19, 1855 .- 1mp.

FARMERS TAKE NOTICE.

100 bushels Flaxseed wanted immediately at the Cheap Store of E. Y. Bright, for which the highest market price will be paid.

Sunbury, October 6, 1855 .- if HARDWARE.-Table Cutlery, Razors, Pock et Knives, Hand saws' Wood saws in frames, Axes, Chisels, Door Locks, and Hinges, Hand Bells, Waiters, &c., just received and for L. W. TENER & CO.

Sunbury Dec. 2, 1854. TANILLA BEANS just received by WEISER & BRUNER. Sunbury, May 19, 1855 .-LAND WARRANTS.—The highest price will be given for Land Warrants by the sub-

H. B. MASSER. ecribes.

BLACK Patty - good article for sale by Select Noctry.

WHAT A SERMON SHOULD BE.

It should be brief, if lengthy, it will steep Our loants in apathy, our eyes in sleep; The dull will yawn, the chapel-loanger dose Attention flag, and memory's portals close,

It should be warm, a living altar-coal, To melt the icy heart and churm the soul; A supless, dull harangue, however read, Will never rouse the soul or raise the dead.

It should be simple, practical and clear, No fine-span theory to please the enr: No curious lay to tickle lettered pride, And leave the poor and plain unalified,

It should be tender and affectionate. As His warm theme who wept lost Salem's 501 The flery laws with words of love allayed,

Will sweetly warm and artfully persuade. It should be manly, just and rational, Wisely conceived, and well expressed with all Not stuffed with silly notions, and to stuff A sacred desk, and show a muchly brain.

It should possess a well-adapted grace, To situation, audience time and place; A sermon formed for scholars, statesmen

With peasants and mechanics ill accords, It should with evangelic beauties bloom,

Like Paul's at Corinth, Athens or at Rome; While some Epictetus or Sterm estrem A gracious Savior in the Gospel theme, It should be mixed with many an ordent prayer, To reach the heart, and fix and fasten there;

God grants a blessing, men is truly blessed. means, and are prepared to offer to the It should be closely, well applied at last, for the manufacture of from and making Steam.

The manufacture of from and making Steam.

The manufacture of from and making Steam. A Point tremble and a David qualit!

Select Cale.

Presenting Process a Combonin Mouthly Mountains. A STEEPLE CHASE ON THE PRAIRIES.

PHILADELPHIA. The Inflied horde burst on my startled ears— over the ignoral expense of that prairie ocean.

Always on hand a large and varied assertment of all, all come back; nothing is forgetten, and nand. It was Sunday in the wilderness; the wagons all coralled on the banks of the Little Blue, the toil-worn mules scattered around cooking, mending elothes, washing, lounging or smoking, and all enjoying to the full a glo rious sunshing day of rest and indolence, when some evil genius possessed me with a sudden desire to be the first of the party to slay the long expected buffalo, no unimal we had not yet encountered, but which now began to be he constant theme of conversation and concture. Several of the boys were hunting arkeys in the margin of the timber which skirted the river, so that when I saddled up my steed, and, with my rifle at my saddle bow, started out to the northward, the few who had diserved my departure exchanged sty winks at my probable disappointment, but never breamed of the thrilling adventure that I was so rishly rushing into. Although we knew that we were about the confines of the Pawnce territories, and had been warmed by a convoy of trappers, whom we had met but a w days previous, returning from their distant practised eyes to detect any traces of them, we had attributed the well-meant warning of the old mountaineers rather to a spirit of news failed to see. Far away over the beautiful undulating and vernal bosom of the trackless prairies, I rode through, and, at all events, suffication or gently along, on the qui vice for any indica- capture in the bog was no worse than instar ions of the object of my desires; but, though timeous destruction where I was. Dushin I eagerly scanned the horizon as I proceeded. the rowels into the trembling animal, I madly ot a living being met my eye except a few urged him forward. The seil, though covered shy antelopes, whose wary caution and quick with grass, and apparently firm, gave way at But Nature made my face of clay. perception received them impossible of approach on the open prairies. Far as the forts, now for an instant raising himself on rision could reach nought but a monotonously some barder spot, then sinking to his saddle ked hills, covered only by the buffalo grass and flowers of every bue, extended in every direction towards the far horizon, when the blue sky of summer kissed the distant hills.

Cirths, urged by my frantic exertions, terrified almost to frenzy by the appairing yells of the rapidly approaching enemy and the shots one passionately, which disorders, wrangling which began to wistle around us, the noble and irregularity, rob my peace, and make the house a badlant, instead of a quiet home.—

Language been addressed by mrs. Lyon, under things to order," or "Go and get he house a badlant, instead of a quiet home.—

Language been addressed by mrs. Lyon, under thing to order," or "Go and get he house a badlant, instead of a quiet home.—

Language been addressed by mrs. Lyon, under the first part of the attraction descrit. I rade slowly along, fazily a favorable spot to follow, pistols and glancing at my rifle's lock, I strock mad race for life or death. Onward we pistols and glancing at my rifle's lock, I strock mad race for life or death. Onward we spurs to my steed and galloped forward, nexrushed, over hills and valleys, across streams was fively red, and she stamped on the floor over the top of an old table making a most league, the condition of these who would con-coveted was now at hand, Charging down the hill and across the intervening valley. I rose another gently swelling roll of the prairie; and, as I gained the summit again the moving cloud of dust met my gaze, and this time considerably nearer. like buffalo, and as the object, whatever it white shields and burnished lance heads glaneing brightly in the merning son,

Still, however, I scarcely thought of Pawnees, but supposed it neight be some heating party of friendly Potrawatomies or Sloax; and at all events, knowing the mettle and powers of my horse, and having a retreat at the state of the state by waiting for a more satisfactory inspection.

The best of the broad expanse of the broad ex When God and man are mutually addressed, appearing from view in crossing some conevided bollow, and again aisplayed in bold relief against the sky as they surmounted some towards camp till they should manifest some spot which was to decide do ign to pursue me; when inagine the chill of horror which cordled my bload as I saw two consign me to despur, smaller in my rear, galleping together from either side to cut off my reteat, and heard the terrific yell school all three raised as they after boxing the compass of life's stormy sea, and shaking hands with every extremity of fortine. I should be seated at last in this quiet little sanctum; the hum of that nighty are around me; the wild freshom of the simulation thirds and the rating public generally, all the felicacies of the season, including Overtars tresh and spiced. The bill of fare will include sulstantials and delicacies, calculated to saisist these who are hungry, and those who desire merely to asset their palates tickled. It will be open at all purposes, the utilitarian views of the shave of those wild course so of the desort even if I ness first looked on Death? Alt no! On and transming with carresing words the this sixth antiversary of that memorable day, feight-ned steed, who alone could save me faltbful creature had toded to the last; he had done his best; his navors were exhaust. the thronging memories of that fearful bour mean a borrable fate. I made a bold dash for had done his best; his powers were exhaust-his duty dors, his powers exhausted, dropped almost lifeless to the earth; us I recled from the saddle and fervently thanked that gra to the rear, and after turning two or three the saddle and fervently thanked that gra-cious Providence who looked down upon and protected me in my fearful need.

To the rece, and after running two or three miles they were strong out in a long line be-hind me. Gradually I slackened speed, for I well know that the bettom and columnes of It was on this day six years ago. Eighty. well know that the bottom and embrance of ye of us, weary wandeness over the trackless. five of us, weary wanderers over the trackless prairies, were day after day, and month after rairies, were day after day, and month after without limit, and many a long mile was still before us. Again they would diminish the But ne'er before to brass; gold, whose lefty sierras and summer plains distance, and again I was obliged to arge my so many a member of that gallant youthful dadied steed to his best efforts. But I was beginning to breathe freer, the first startling | But Nature made my face of clay. allien was over, half the distance was accomplished. If my gallant grey could but main-Bine, the toil-worn nucles scattered around joyfully cropping the virgin grass under the watchful vigilance of the guard. Some of the party were bathing in the clear stream, some glunge but once at the eighty American rifles which would gleam from behind our wagon. He may not earn enough on shore I was now descending a long but gentle in- "Tis folly in this flaunting age climation towards a broad level depression in the prairie which spread out about a couple of | Brass is the crown, and brass the rage; hundred yards wide at its base. My savage pursuers were for a moment out of sight be hind the ridge I had just crossed. I reached The cathage grows the daisy downthe foot of the hill at full speed; my steed plunged forward on what seemed hard ground; and, O. despair! sank to his belly in a treacherous swamp! Ah! can the gathering years of all faturity ever blot from my memory the despair of that awful moment? How far this seemingly impassible barrier extended up and down the rivolet which divided it I could not guess. A terrific yell burst from the exultant warriors as they appeared over the crest of the ridge and recognized the dilemma they had too truly anticipated. Terrible fear-chilled my blood. In that brief moment, as wintering ground in the mountains, that their the wild savages came charging down the hill. war parties were yet out, confident in our tunnitious thoughts of home and friends mingled with the bright anticipations, so lon cherished, of a golden future in the land of promise, came througing in wild confusion mongering than anything else, and rather despised those wild Bedouins of the prairies was no time for deliberation, no opportunity for choice. Resistance was madness. I was hemmed in on every side but one. Straight ahead was my only chance. I might flounder musing on the strange vicissitudes which had Their deliberation saved me. It required you Em, not a word more from your lips. It was in disorder, produced all the effects cosmiddenly translated me from college halfs a strong control of reason to walk my failing you can't live in peace with your sister. I'll sired. Julia went quickly about the work of to this wild seeme, and had almost imperceptibly placed some seven or eight miles between me and camp, when far in the distance.

But I rightly judged that a little breathing directly in front of me. I discerned a column time would not be wasted on him. I turned the speciet. of dust which as I supposed, belokened the summit of the hill just as the discombitted long desired buffalo. Away went remance—buffalos A before the line would not be summit of the hill just as the discombitted long desired buffalo. Away went romance Indians were beginning to crawl out of the Julia. and reflection. The order of the hunter took bog, and again putting spars to my jaded possession of me, and, hastily loosening my larse once more we spring forward in that suers and pursued. The timber which marked the camp grew more and more distinct; new for a me concealed by an intervening hill, and again as we flew over its summit rising nearer and and, as I closely regarded it. I perceived that it was rapidly approaching, and I began to discern the flashing of bright objects gleaming out from its obscurity. This looked less parameter the wild and of the control of the property of the still, however, toiled gallantly onward, apprening the wild and of the control o sparning the wild sod of the prairie with his flying hoofs. But the goal was nearly won, might be, continued to approach, I halted for a better view, and was not long in making out a large band of mounted Indians, their snows a match for his float links, in a large band of mounted Indians. no match for his fleet limbs in a short stretch, now exhibited their wonderful powers of endurance. Onward they swept after us with gently swelling ascent, the summit of which I was approaching. If from here the white wagons of our camp should be visible over the manterrupted plan I should yet reach them.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand.

Also, for the evil traces that were left he hand. best flant a quarter of a mile, and, thinking a closer acquaintance undesirable, I turned my horse's hear with a view of riding moderately towards camp till they should manifest some towards camp till they should manifest some spot which was to decide my fate, and I tronspot to the chill spot which was to decide my fate, and I tronspot to the chill spot which was to decide my fate, and I tronspot to the chill spot which was to decide my fate, and I tronspot to the chill spot which was to decide my fate, and I tronspot to the child spot which was to dec bled with eagerness for the view which might | A woman with good impulses, but with

The first of June 1849! Six years ago; How stranger than fiction it sources would be neckes.

How stranger than fiction it sources of the eventful day, after tweering all the view-plane for the parties had taken an after tooxing the compass of life's storing sear, and offer nowing the compass of life's storing sear, and shaking hands with every extremity of the numerous hollows, which at any shaking hands with every extremity of the parties had concealed them temporarily from an shaking hands with every extremity of the parties had concealed them temporarily from an often, very often, did she fall back into old states and often, very often, was self-resistance only.

crowd thick upon me. The first sudden morning ment of wild abrua; that terrible warschoop, bursting from fifty sayage throats; the reck. The interval which they were rapidly and I thought that the last race of my gallant closely. less desperation; the thrilling excitement of that wild class of eight nules, with fifty pair-ted demont sailing after me on their wild. Shorting with terror at the wild shorts and supplied him care-ted in the sailing after me on their wild of our pursuers, trembling in every limb with mustangs; the appulling fear, as the sweat gathered on the banks of my flying gray and the foam flew from his heaving nostrils, lest his exertions, he deshed has the foam flew from his heaving nostrils, lest his strength and bottom should fail me in my fire extragates and have all the avertion. I tradged along on foot day after day for the mext two weeks, and led and chetished him as this remark arrested her action of the properties of my flying gray and the intensity of his exertions, he deshed has fally and cautiously with grass and water, how this remark arrested her action of the intensity of his exertions. With the intensity of his exertions, he deshed has fally and cautiously with grass and water, how the intensity of his exertions. With the intensity of his exertions, he deshed has a fally and cautiously with grass and water, how this remark arrested her action of the intensity of his exertions. With the intensity of his exertions, he deshed has a fally and cautiously with grass and water, how this remark arrested her action of the intensity of his exertions. With the intensity of his exertions, he deshed has a fally and cautiously with grass and water, how the intensity of his exertions. thrill of graticule and rapture when the whole cherse, On, on, towards the only hope it is after days over these dreary deserts, and wagon tops of my conventes have in sight as safety, fifty yelling demans hard upon our many a time brought me alongside of the fly-we flew over the same too the last but that trads, their blankets and finely flying in the ing buffalo in his mad career, yet never again divided as from safety, and the wild how of wind, onward we sped, parsucra and parsued, dat he can an eight mile steeplerhose against that unspeakable revalsion of feeling when surveys and ble of of my American first day doze by the converser began to tell on the enduring but warriers yelling in his rear.

poetrn.

BRASS.

Have racked my brain with many schemes,

Which seems misfortune di

Should not be left at large; To pay his parish charge,

To show a modest face; It leads off in the chase.

Poppies out-scent the rese Brass dignifies the brainless clown, And gives him great repose, The pumpkin for out-swells the peach-The burdock scorus the pink Brass often fancies it can teach Real fiesh and blood to think

Then why may I not bravely sing In praise of staring brass; It seems, in this mad age, to sing To raise to power an --- as The voice of gold breaks on the air, And says, "I'm King of Earth;" But brais, which hoots down all despair, Claims prior right by birth

Brass stares unflinehing in the face. Of e'en "Old Nick" himself. And macks all modesty and grace While clamoring for pelf; He wears a self-sufficient look. And swings with such an sir!

I've half a mind to write a book

On brass!-it would be rare.

Yes, I have sung on many themes, But ne'er before on brass; Have racked my brain with many schemes, To claim through lifs a pass-

Which seems misfortune dire; For ninnies to sapire

"Then make Jule give me my pin cushion.

"You have, I say,"

"I want my pin-cushion. Make Jule give e my pin-cushion," Irritated beyond control, Mrs. Lyon caught ulia by the arm, and thrusting her hand in it makes mether's head ache." her pocket, drew out a thimble, a proce of e and a pen kuife. This impertinence was more than the mother could endure, and, acting upon her indigwrong necusation of her sister, she turned upon her also, administering an equal punishs fellow, cheerfully. "But I'll forget some-ment. Frightened by all this, the younger times." children, whose incessant noise, for the last sour, had contributed to the overthrow of the their nother's tempor became suddenly quiet and they skulked away into corners—and the agingl at all events, knowing the mettle and the wind, were of my horse, and having a retreat at asure. I thought I incurred no great risk which I had carnestly longed for, had been glanced fearfully up to the distorted face in of against the sky as they surmounted some comment ridge.

At length their distance was diminished to a first state of the second part of the seco

I neared the summit; another bound and we were ever, and were flying with faltering steps down a long gentle inclination which steps down a long gentle inclination which in repeatance and humiliation, she recalled the stormy scenes through which she had just ressed, and blamed herself for violaing bling y to passion, instead of meeting the trouble oug her children with a quiet discriminatime baby was asleep, and the mother felt true mother knows when a young babe is slumbering on her bosom. A book lay on a shelf tear where she was sitting, and Mr.

and closed the book and bowed her head in we and mere distinct, and she was roused to the painful fact, that, as usual, when left mione, the children were wrangling among of Mrs. Lyon, and harriedly placing the sleeping habe in its crib, she started for the sce of disorder, moved by an impulse to punish severely the young rebels against her author ity, and was half way down stairs when her feet was checked by the remembrance of the sentiment: "All right government of children begins with self government."

"Will auger subdue auger? When storm meet storm, is the tempest stilled?' These were questions asked of berself almost involuntarily. This is no spirit in which to meet my children. It never has never will enforce order and obedience,' she added, as she stood upon the stairs, struggling with hereelf and striving for the victory. From the nursery came londer sounds of disorder. How went ery of anguish smote him rars, and so she mirved on quickly, and opening the nursery per, stood revealed to her children, Julia had just raised her hand to strike Endly, and stood fronting her with a fiery face. Both were a little startled at their mother's sudden appearance, and both expecting the storm aged by his friends; and being hermle a to say in delence? Nothing, please your hosassume the defiant, stubborn air with which her intemperate reproofs were always not.

A few moments did Mrs. Lyon stand looking at her children-grad, not anger, upon his acquaintances, or excite merriment, as her pale confidenance. How still it became, What a look of womfer came gradually into the children's faces, as they glauced, or the other. Something of shame was next visi-

"Emily" said she, speaking mildly, and yet with a touch of sorrow in her voice she could not subdue, I wish you would go up into my room, and sit with Mary while she alcops."

Without a sign of opposition, or even of reluctance, Emily went quietly from the nurseum in the control of the sign of opposition, or even of reluctance, Emily went quietly from the nurseum in chedings to her most of the sign of opposition. This method is due to the Bohendau gardner.

A celebrated Poet at one time advertised that he would supply "lines for any occasion." A fisherman sought him shortly after stat wanted a line strong enough to catch a porposition. This method is due to the Bohendau gardner. serv, in obedience to her mother's desires.

"This room is very much in disorder. Juhand to put things to order," or. "Go and get able dint; step that noise this instant! And But now the mild intimation that the room separate you. Dive hear? Hush! this in-stant?"

"Then make Jule give me my pin cushion, fusion reigned hefore. Little Tommy, whose love of hammering was nu incessant anney-"It is no such thing, I have not," retorted | ance to his mother, coused his din on her sudden appearance, and for a few moments stood in expectation of a boxed car; for a time he question, tren. Fox, a distinguished crater is den appearance, and for a few moments stood ! "I tell you I have to" was puzzled to understand the new aspect of the Fr "Will you look!" The face of Mrs. Lyon was puzzled to understand the new aspect of the French Chambers, gave the following an-low voice to him-, "Don't. Tommy, don't do that You know

"Does it make your head sche, mother?" able to fill them," asked the child, curiously, and with a pitying "I told you it wasn't there. Couldn't you believe me?" but and looking at her in doubt his mother's side and tooking at her in doubt whether he would be repulsed or not. "Sometimes it does, my son," replied Mrs. must impulses, she hoved the ears of Julia Lyon, kindly, and it is always unpleasant,—soundly, conscious at the time, that Emily Won't you try to play without making so was chiefly to blame for all this trouble by a much mise." "Yes, mother, I'll try," nuswered the little

> He looked carnestly at his mother if someng more was in thoughts. "Well dear, what else?" said she encour-

When I forg. t. tell me, won't you?"

"Be a good boy, Tommy; and mother will mover scold you more," she murmored gently lies tightly against her cheek, thus scaling ca. There are three thousand hands car-

How sweet to the mother's taste were those I neared the summit; another bound and scarcely any control, was Mrs Lyon. She loved her children, and desired their good.—

Scarcely any control, was Mrs Lyon. She loved her children, and desired their good.—

Govern herself, what a power she had acquired to be sufficient to love her children, and desired their good.—

Govern herself, what a power she had acquired to be sufficient to love her children, and desired their good.—

Govern herself, what a power she had acquired to be sufficient to love the silly world may make upon the summit to be sufficient to love the summit to be sufficient to be sufficient to love the summit to be sufficient to be suf

LAST OF THE BANDOLPHS.

During the summer of 1854 I had some business transactions which called me to the county of Charlette, in lower Virginia. A mild and lovely Sal-bath morning found me surs of the day, and all reasonable hours of the share all their stormy vicissing the day, and all reasonable hours of the business. But have all their stormy vicissing the day and their stormy vicissing the day of the wild excitements blotted from the mind the fearful memories of that terrife scene, long ago, when the tyro of the wildern day of my startled comrades, with a grean of excited control of my startled comrades, with a grean of excited control of my startled comrades, with a grean of excited control of my startled comrades, with a grean of excited control of my startled comrades, with a grean of excited control of my startled control of my startle large and respectful looking andience assems was bottle-holder for Gov. Seward." bled, and was finally attracted by a very eccentric individual, who was just entering—a bottle-holder for John Van Buren. He is something of that tranquil peace that every rather used man, talk of dark complexion, consoled, in this transfer by the fact that he long white hair waving plentifully over his will not now have to pull the cork as often as shoulders, and an equally venerable beard he did them." flowing on his breast. His step was notice | Nor so Rich as Scoroscie-A statement and graceful, his form erect and manly. But his parallar actions were in striking contract stop in the purposs makes the Rodischilds worth to be discussed as were in striking contract $700,000,000 in money capital and $250,000, to his dignified appearance. At first, I that | 000 in real estate. The National Intelligenbut she had read only a few sentences when this remark arrested her attention:

to an organized appearance. At the model in only eccentric, but a few moments of further observation proved to me that he was wealth is only 200,000,000 or frames, or about "All right government of children begins means. Immediately on entering his pewhy $40,000,000. Some difference, it is true, but his strength and bottom should fail me in my dire extremity; and, above all, the exalting my knees and bent forward to assist his figing tell; but, although many a mile he carried me truth expressed was obviated instantly into perfect to alter days over these dreary deserts, and perfectly repeated a prayer. The words seemed written of the first expressed was obviated instantly into perfect to the clearest light perfect to the clearest light perfectly. She saw it in the clearest light perfectly to the contraction of the first light perfectly to the contraction of the first light perfectly to the contraction of the first light perfectly the contraction of the first light lig apparently repeated a prayer. He then sat comfortable circumstances, sad acknowledgement of her own errors — this Bible, hissed it and read, examined his by a theel, on Friday morang. There were Thus for some time she had been sitting. Sis Binte, kissed it and read, examined his cally three finales in the hone at the time, when the number of vocas from holes were care, used his handkerchief again, and all only three finales in the hone at the time, the time keeping himself in constant motion, one of whom jumped out of bed, and called I say all the time, but, occasionally, he was out to know who was there, when the fellow possive for a few minutes-has attention, decomped leaving behind a bundle of silver apparently, aroused by some truths from the articles which he had pucked up. themselves. Various notices, as of pounding on, and throwing about chairs and other particles the state of these times were rare. His critical which is included up minister; but these times were rare. His critical which is included up. on, and throwing about chairs and other ple-ces of furniture were heard, and at length a Contempt, alarm, pleasure, carnestness, sur-926 citizens. The value of her manufactures Lond scream, mingled with argry vociferations row and noger, flatted across it in tapid sucsmote upon her ears.

London the vocabled instantle in the heart cession. It remaided me more of what child serve the content of $11.751.—

1. The first the vocabled instantle in the heart cession. It remaided me more of what child serve the content of $11.751.—

1. The first the vocabled instantle in the heart cession. It remaided me more of what child serve the content of $11.751.—

1. The first the vocable distantle in the heart cession. It remaided me more of what child serve the content of $11.751.—

1. The first the content of $11.751. dren call "making faces," than any thing else. Value of manufactures $1,087,900; live stock After the services were over, I ascertained | $148,560, that this gentleman was no other than the valls himself Sir John St. George Randolph. and is sole heir to his colebrated oncie. Ran. and then he gets on his high-heeled boots and dolph, himself, remarked with batterness, du. exclaims: "Hagging a blue-cycle girl on a ring his last days, that their blood flowed in pile of fresh cut of over! Go away strawberthe veins of but one single scion, and he was likes, you have lost your taste, deaf, damb and invane. So much for bottom greatness. The subject of this shotch—altive-had a mind cultivated in the highest slegree. In his youth he was sent to Pars where, under the protection of a celebrated abbe, he received a thorough education -striving for the victory. From the nursery came loader sounds of disorder. How weak the mather field? Yet in this very weakness was strength.

"I must not stand filly here, as a sharper of the first was before lost; for, on returning to an old wat would break dawn with me," his home in V rginin, he neet with, and level a young lady, whom he addressed, but was referred, on account of his physical defects. On becoming aware of the truth, he was plunged into the most profound grief, from which he was at fact aroused, but - he are

He has considerable wealth, which is man . he still communits respect; and his prenone would suppose .- [Exchange.

GRAFTING FACIT TREES. - An interesting discovery has been made in France with rea new power over the young rebels of her gard to engronting fruit trees. Instead of household. making dso of a graft, a slip is taken from an | girls we kiss, apple tree, for example, and planted in a no

A DEAD SHOT .- The following dialogue easued between a conductor on one of our Many times, Mrs. Lyons said, under like Portland railroads and a passenger, a few circumstances, "why don't you put things to days since: Passenger-Well, Mr. Conducrights?' or I never saw such girls! If all in | tor, what is the political news? Conductorthe room was topsey turvy, and the floor an Don't know, sir, for I havn't been to church excellent men are of great value, like the dust inch thick with dirt, you'd never turn over a for the last two Sundays.

Miscellany.

A Loverice Heatt - There is no louliness there can be none in all the wasta or peopled deserts of the world bearing the slightest comparison with that of an unloved wife She stands amid her family like a living stat ule among the marble memorials of the dead -instinct with life, yet paralysed with death -the burning tide of natural feeling circling round her heart—the thousand channels from through which that feeling eight to flow.

car piercing noise. Instantly Julia said, in a some without producing, live without working, know without learning anything, carry all honors without deserving them, and occupy all the places of government without being

Tue Veny Last Dopor,-During the late Agricultural Fair, at Baverhill, a place was wanted for the trial of horses, and a mon named Lee offered the committee and spectators free admission to his graunds for that purpose. The crowd rashed in last when the sport was over it cost them a quarter each MOUNT VERSON .- It will be recollected by our readers that come months ago an effort was started by an association of patriosic ladess for raising funds to perchase the property of Mount Vernor. The faquirer states that between 60,000 and $70,000 of the purchase money has already been collected.

GROWTH OF WESTERN TOWNS .- The village of La Crosse, Wisconsin, the terminal of the La Crosse and Milwankee Railcond, was table

Groves .- Balgiam is the great glove man-In his car.

Wis arms stole upwards and as they were twined closely about her nock, he pressed his pairs were experted to England and Ameriployed there.

He not diverted from your duty by any the abruing intelligence. Down he rushed with him. A large kettle of boiling water was on the fire. "Well why don't you put out ed can't sure. "Why, you fool! pour the water upon it."

"Sure it's hot water, nurr." "A ROLAND FOR AN ODISHR,"-The following is from an Albany (N. Y.) paper; "John Van Buren, the other evening, said Gen. Nyo still leaving enough to make them feel in

A Brave Would, ... The house of Chante

mephew of John Handelph of Roamelle. He | An editor down East has been courting and says it remaids him of Paradise Regained

> A WONDERFUL WOMAN .- A female schooltencher in her advertisoment, stated that she was "complete mistress of her own tongue, "If that's the case," said a cassic old back-for, "the can't ask too much for her services." A Lany was requested by a buckeler,

A young widow was also why she was no ing to be nearried to soon after the death her husband. "Oh, b.," subtake I do it prevent fection myself to death on access to

Prisoner you have heard the prosecution The editor of Rochester Domocrat gives this receipts to kill flow on done .- Soak the fire to him. The effect is instantaneous, The following toast was recently given he striction" young man; The ladia .- Ma we kiss the girls we please, and please the A celebrated Poet at one time advertised

WHEAT FROM GEORGIA,-The ship Georgia leared from Savannah, Ga., but week, ter liverpool, baring, as part of her cargo, 1315 bushels of wheat, being the second shipment of the kind from that port. The little and short sayings of wise and of gold, or the least sparks of diamond