AMERICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

This body assembled on Monday morning pursuant to adjournment. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Tenn. The consideration the Convention proceed at once to make nominations for candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, and called the previous question, which was sustained.

agreed on.

The nominations as made were Millard Fillmore of N. Y., John Bell, of Tenn., R. F. Stockton, of N. J., George Law of N. Y., Sam. Houston, of Texas, Erasus Brooks of N. Y., Garret Davis, of Ky., Kenneth Raynor, of N. C., John M. Clayton, of Del. Ex-Governor Johnston, of Pennsylvania, was also put in nomination, but he positively declined being considered a candidate before The Convention then adjourned to 5 o clock. Afternoon Session .- The Convention in the morning having made the general nomi-nations by calls of the several States, the first business of the afternoon session was to fix upon the plan of taking the vote for the final nomination. This was settled by taking the votes of the States according to their representation in the electoral college, the absentees to be represented and counted in proportion to the votes given by the delegates of any State voting for the respective nominees, where they differed in their preferences. and where the whole number voted for one candidate, to give the entire number of votes the State was entitled to for that candidate

The roll was then called, and the result was as follows :- For Millard Fillmore of New York, 179; George Law of New York. 24; John McLean of Obio, 13; Garret Davis of Kentucky, 10; Kenneth Raynor, 15; Sam. Houston, 3.
