FELLOW CITIZENS :The undersigned desires to be elected DESTRICT ATTORNEY, and respectfully solicits your votes at the approaching October election

I am not the candidate of any political party, because I believe that political affini-ties alone, should not secure an office into which partisan feelings ought never to enter. The DISTRICT ATTORNEY is the servant of the law; it is not more his duty to convict guilt by legal evidence, than it is to guard the innocent and falsely accused. He is an agent selected by the people to do justice between the Commonwealth and those who break her laws. He should not therefore, be subjected to the necessity of courting popularity in the ranks of any one destinctive party but feel that, in the minds of the people, as well as in his own conscience, he is acquitted of all political partialities and obligations which might misdirect, or, be supposed unduly to contro! Lis action. He is required to possess due knowledge of, and experience in the practice of the law, because public interests, with the safety of society; the lives, character and freedom of individuals are, it a large degree, committed to his pro-tection. In his official character he should be a Lawyer, not a partisan-independent faithful, unbiased, competent,-nothing more.

I do not pretend my fellow citizens, to ba without political opinions; these, with me, are convictions calmly and conclusively ad, judged; and, having always a due regard for time, and place, and circumstances, will be expressed and acted upon with buldness and perfect freedom.

I have frankly exposed my views to you, and believe that most of you will pronounce solle, solle, your cordial support. I commit kryself to our cordial support. I commit systelf to our kindness and your judgments, entirely Confident that he experience of ten years in the leactice of the her will enable me to discharge with satisfactory having all the duties of the rasponsible office to which I hope and trust your suffrages will elect me.

Respectfully,

JNO, KAY CLEMENT.
