The Sunbury American.

NEW SERIES, VOL. 10, NO. 44.

SUNBURY, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA.-SATURDAY, JANUARY 23, 1858.

OLD SERIES, VOL. 18. NO

The Sunbury American. PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY

BY H. B. MASSER, Market Square, Sunbury, Penna. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. TWO DOLLARS per namum to be paid bull year-ly in advance. No rapes discontinued until all arrestages are paid. TO CLUBS:

Five dollars in advances will pay for three year's subscription to the American rustinasters will please set as our Agents, and frank letters containing subscription money. They are permit tel to do this under the Post Office Law.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING One Square of 12 mest 3 times, 81 60 One Square of Education, Every adhequent inaction, Sone Square, I months, Son months, One year.

Plusiness Cards or Five lines, per annum, Metchants and others, nover thong by the year, with the privilege of inserting different advertisements weekly.

Larger Advertisements, as per agreement. JOB PRINTING.

We have connected with our establishment a well se-sected JOB OFFICE, which will enable us to execute be neatest style, every variety of printing. H. B. MASSER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, SUMBURY, PA. Business attended to in the Counties of Nor-Stumberland, Union, Lycoming Montour and References in Philadelphia: Hon. Job R. Tyson, Chas. Gibloms, Esq. Somers & Sundgrass, Loss., Smith & Co.

NEW STORE. ELIAS EMERICH,

ESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of the of Lower Augusta township and the public generally, that he has purchased the Store lately kept by Issac Martz, in Lower Augusts township near Emerica's Tavern, and has just opened a splendid stock of Fall and Winter GOODS.

His stock consists of Cloths, Cossimeres, Cussinetts of all kinds, linea, cutton and Worsted.

Also, Calicoes, Ginghams, Lawns, Mousseline
De Laines and all kinds of Ladies Dress Goods.
GRUCERIES, Hardware, Queensware of various styles and patterns.

Also, an assortment of Ready-Made Clothing

It is the matter? asked a cheerful little woman by the fire, at whose side a bus-

Caps. SaLT FISH, &c., and a variety of other articles such as are suitable to the trade, all of which will be sold at the lowest prices. Country produce taken in exchange at | ten and sixpence ?"

the highest market prices.

Lower Augusta twp., October 10, 1857.—tf.

PATEAT WHICEL GREASE. THYMIS Grease is recommended to the notice of Wagoners, Livery Stable keepers, &c., as being Syremou to anything of the kind ever inroduced. As it does not gam upon the axles is much more durable, and is not affected by the weather, remaining the same in sommer affects the weather, remaining the same in sommer affects.

MUSIC! MUSIC! MR. O. KIMBALL, late of Elmira, having the content of Sunbury, respectfully and so is he; 'tis that disgusts me. Relimforms the citizens and others, that he intends gion, indeed! and he owes me four pounds. to form a Singing Class, both secular and sacred to place themselves under his charge.

N. B .- Mrs. O. Kimball is prepared to give

Sunbury, September 19, 1857 .-- tf

New Philadelphia Dry Goods!

SHARPLESS BROTHERS, LATE TOWNSERS SHARPLESS & SON. AVE removed to their new store, N. W. carner of Chesnut and 8th Streets, and have spened their usual full assumment of Autumn and Winter DET GOODS, which they offer at very low prices. Their stock includes Shawls, Black and Fancy Silks, Merino's and other Dress Goods, Men's and Boy's Wear, Blankers, Housekeeping Goods, and Goods for "Friends Wear."

SUNBURY STEAM FLOURING MILL in this place, has been completed, and will go into operation on Monday the Bost day of Audaving engaged a competent and careful Miller, they trust they will be able, with all the modern improvements adopted in their mill, to

SNYDER, RINEHART & HARRISON. Sunbury, August 29, 1857,--tf

GILBERT BULSON.

J O. CAMPBELL & CO., AND L. C. IVES, (Formerly No. 15 North Wharves.) DEALER IN PRODUCE, FRUIT AND VE-GETABLES, No. 4 North Wharves, 4th door Market street, Philadelphia. Oranges, Apples, Dried Fruits

Lemons, Opions, Mercer Potatoes, Cheese Raisins, Tomatoes, Sweet Potatoes, Beans, Pea Nuts, Peaches. Cranberries Eggs, &c. Orhers for Shipping put up with care and dis-

GOOD Sould on commission for Farmers and Dealers. October 24, 1857,--

The $10 and $15 Single and Double Threaded Empire Family Sewing Machines.

AN AGENCY for the sale of these Sewing Machines can be secured on inscripterms for the County of Northumberland. No one need apply without capital sufficient to conduct the usiness properly and who cannot bring references as to reliability and capacity. A personal application will be necessary.
The peculiar adaptation of these Machines for all purposes of Family Sewing, will, where ever they are offered for sale command a ready and unlimited demand. JOHNSON & GOODALL.

S. E. Corner of 6th and Arch Sts., Philadel'a. August 15, 1857 .- tf

BELANKS! BLANKS!

BLANK Deeds, Mortgages, Bonds, Warrants Attachments, Commitments, Summons, Suparass, Executions, Justices' and Constable, Fee Bills, &c., &c., can be had by applying at

HYDROLEUM PAINTS,—These paints are mixed with water, thereby saving thecost

Original Poetry.

THE SAILOR BOY'S FAREWELL.

Farewell to father, blessed bulk, In spite of metal spite of bulk, His cable soon may slip; While yet the parting tear is moist, The flag of gratitude I'll hoist In duty to the ship.

Farewell to mother, first class she, Who launched me on life's stormy sea, And rigged me fore and aft; May Providence her timbers spare, And keep her hull in good repair,

To tow the smaller craft, Farewell to sister, lovely yacht, But whether she'il be manned or not I cannot now foresee; May some good ship a tender prove,

Well found in stores of truth and love, And take her under lea. Farewell to George, the jolly boat And all the little craft attent, In home's delightful bay;

When they arrive at sailing age, May wisdom prove the weather guage, And guide them on their way. Farewell to all on life's rude main,

And though we ne'er may meet again, Through stress of stormy weather; Yet summoned by the board above, We'll harbor in the port of love, And all be moored together.

Select Cale.

THE DREAM OF CALEB EDMONDS.

Christianity, indeed?" said Mr. Edmonds. as he looked over his books, in the little back parlier behind the shop. I am disgusted sith hypoerasy."

There was a dark frown upon the brow of the man of business as he spoke these words, rious styles and patterns.

Also, an assortment of Ready Made Clothing of all descriptions. Boots and patterns, Hats and ket of steckings told of a large family, and a consequent demand for stickery.
"Matter?" echoed the husband, "do you not know that Welsford owes me four pounds,

"Well, he will pay, I suppose,"
"Not he. The goods were purchased more than a year ago, and I have not had a penny "What does he say when you see him?"

in winter, and put up in the causters at 375 and the need not cross my door step again till he 76 cents, for sale by A. W. FISHER. could do that, "I am sorry for his wife," said the little stocking mender, presently; "she appears to be a traiy prous woman."

"Prous." retorted her husband. "Yes, en and sixpence. I thought the Bible said, and will impact instruction to all who may desire "Owe no man anything." Christianity, for-

Mr. Caleb Edmonds was a highly respectainstructions to a few more pupils on the Piano | ble gracer in the town of Mariby-in fact, a man of substance; for business had prospered with him. He was industrious and obliging; rising early, working hard; and thu from small beginnings be had risen to the possession of considerable wealth. But, although an excellent man of business, Mr. Edmonds was a very ordinary Christian .-- True, he had begun the race, but he did not press toward the mark. Alas, for the cares f this world and the descritfulness of riches And it is the characteristic of a low standard of piety to be bare's and censorious in our digment of our fellow Christians; so Mr. Edmonds, when he heard of any defect in the character of professors around him, was always the first to exclaim, "Christianity in-

Is not this too common with us all? Do we not, even if we give no expression to our we should doubt and hesitate, regarding the THE subscripers respectfully announce to the reality of the religion of our "lieady to halts" public, that their new Steam Flouring Mill and "Feeble minds?" Do we not set up a standard of perfection for our fellows, which were too lofty, in our view, as a standard for ourselves? And are we not too ready to exclaim against the wanderings of others, even while we turn aside into the forbidden paths? Perhaps such thoughts as these had passed give entire satisfaction to all who may favor them through the mind of Mrs. Edmonds as the sat over her work; for when she rose to leave her bushet for some more active household duty, she bent over her husband for a moment and said gently, "Caleb, I do not like to hear you say 'Christianity, indeed!' as you say just now. Suppose your fellow-Chris tians were to judge of you as harshly as you of them! You often say it," she continued bastily; "you doubted John Watson's religion yesterday, because he lent money to your rival; and Thernton's, because he oppoes you in business! and you shook your head about Miss Milwood's piety because she urged with you against total abstinence! Judge not that ye be not judged." Long after his wife left him these words ang in Caleb's cars-"Judge not !" At last, as he sat in the twilight, between eeping and walking-for business was very dull, and he could spare half an hour for rest -a vision stole upon him, and he passed, in imagination, rapidly through the scenes which

The first scene was the drawing room of the John Watson of whom Mrs. Edmonds and spoken. A lady was making tea behind silver urn, and a gentleman-her husband sat beside her. "Poor Thompson," said Mrs. Watson-for t was she ... 'I trust he will succeed. "He shall, if by God's blessings, I can com-Dass it." "He is a very deserving young man," continued the lady; "the manner in which he bore the loss of all his property would win esteem, even if he had no other claim." Mr. Watson did not reply, his mind had wandered to another branch of the subject.-That Caleb Edmonds," said at length am surprised at the ill-feelings he displays."

"Towards Thornton ?" "Yes he is evidently annoyed at the opening of another shop so near his own; where as in the principal street of a town like this he should have expected competition. Beides, he has made a little fortune, and has

"I thought he was a religious man," said

"He pretends to be," replied her husband, but I have no faith in a religion which brings forth so little fruit."

Poor Caleb! his wife's words—the Master's words-all sounded in his ears as they had never done before, meeting with a responsive echo in his heart.

sible to look without interest upon her pale and anxious face—a face which had once been beautiful; and equally impossible to disregard the careful tenderness with which her steps were guided by the strong man at her side. Their conversation, too, was worthy of remark-they were speaking of the consolutions of the Gospel. "Who knows?" exclaimed the invalid.

look, up, and to trust 11m for the 'meat that | diet. perisheth not?" They walked on for a while, and then the wife said, mournfully, "I sometimes fear that the fish cought in that locality, and closed by palatabler."

"We shall be able to do so soon, I hope," said Welsford; "it has been a hard struggle, fish only, Mary, starvation almost, but I think it is Now, a nearly over." "Ah, it was all for me! I am sure Mr. Ed-has said some crushing things to me—marsh things which he may live to repent, things which he may live to repent, things which made me doubt his Christianity."

The name of Centaer was considered to be a at the Bullalo depot manning "so gan wish which made me doubt his Christianity."

"Nay," said Mrs. Weisterd gently, "I very appropriate one, and with which the

"You are right. I may not lift my voice;

Again the echeing voice thrilled through the soul of the listener-again he beard the words, "Judge not!"-and as he dwelt upon them the vision slowly faded and he. Bunyan like, awoke, and behold it was a dream. But the lesson of the dream was not quite lost upon him, for he awoke to a deeper spirit of Christian charity, a nother self-denial, a heliupon him, for he awoke to a deeper spirit of Christian charity, a nobler self-denial, a helihad been taught in that brief twilight musing one of the grand old lessons of the Book of

You are come, sir-" "I am come," said the grocer, interrupting boilm a goose, too; but "nostpenin" a goose lim, "to express my loope that you are not I don't bleve dat about Mrs. Glass, de great under any concerned about the little amount cook dey talk 'bout, ober hearn of. It must take you time " as grasuing the outstretched hand be tried to speak his thanks.

biscuits, from the good wiles ample store, united to pass current, till Mary's eyes too filled with grateful Justus Centaur concluded his ruminations, seart's gratitude, his wife wept tears of joy, tion which soon after placed him far above the reach of want : it was to him be owed a host of kindly deeds, which came like sunshine to his immost soul.

We hasten on. Not alone in this regard was Caleb Edmonds changed, for two days after this strange dream he walked into his rival,s shop, shock lands, invited him to drack tea at his house, spoke pleasantly about their opposition, and even hanted as his returement some future day, when his new friend would have a better chance.

And from that time the charity which "suffereth long and is kind, is noteasily provoked all, hepeth all things, emieth all things," held an almost undisputed sway over the heart of Caleb Edmonds; and ever was the maxim of the Bible borne in mind .- "Judge and that ye be not judged."

Doctor, he has nort ly .- A physician tells the following story, not however, without some regret on her part or his part for the advice given: A lard-working women had a drunken husband, who, when partially sober, would get the blacs and endeavor to destroy himself by taking landanum. Twice did the wife ascertain that he had swallowed the poisonous drug, and twice did the doctor restore him. Upon the second restoration, the doctor addressed him as follows : "You good for nothig seoundrel, you don't want to kill yourself, you merely want to annoy your wife and me. If you want to kill yourself, why don't you cut your throat and put an end to the matter?" Well away went the doctor and thought no more of his patient, until some weeks after he was awakened from a sound nap by the tinkling of his night-bell. ile put his head out of the window and inquired, "What's the matter?" Poctor, he has done it," was the reply. "Done what ?" "John has taken your advice." vice?" "Why you told him to cut his throat, and he has done it, and he is uncommon dead this time. Imagine the doctor's feelings. He has since ceased giving such cutting advice.

Mr. Shorts says Kansas is a great country. Rents cheap, because they have no houses Women not expensive, because they don't have any. Society primitive and not partic-The men and hogs, cattle and dogs all lay in the same bed. If you want to live like a double breasted fighting-cock, go to If you want to live Kansas. The boat sails frequently.

A young lady recently remarked, with much simplicity, that she could not under-stand what her brother George Henry saw in nothing to fear; yet he will not treat George in the girls, that he liked them so well, and Thornton with ordinary civility." company of one young man for that of twenPostponing a Goose.

Having business at Mubile some time since, but being in no particular burry to transact it, I determined to take passage in one of the packet ships that run between that city and Again a change, and Mr. Edmonds found himself beside a sickly looking woman, who, leaning on her hydroxide woman, who, New York. She was called the Rover, and leaning on her husband's arm, walked slowly towards the house of prayer. It was impos-were becalined one day upon a part of the coast which was known to be excellent fishing ground; and the captain with a view, of course, of saving a dollar or two, ordered the "Who knows?" exclaimed the invalid, men to bring out their fishing tackle and try the points for the poor." The punishment, however, did not appear to be very severe, for in fitteen minutes nothing "Poor as regards this world only, Mary."

Her eyes brightened as she looked up cheerfully. "Yes, rich in treasure far more costly than earth's gold. God help us to for that day at least, a pleasant change of were soon transferred from their aqueous abode to the deck of the ship, to the infinite goose. for that day at least, a pleasant change of he had completed the task; "if that's a post-

In the course of the morning the captain postponed every week. The dressin', owever took occasion to enlarge upon the delicacy of might be waried, so as to be a leetle more wife said, mournfully, "I sometimes real it is pride which makes me shrink from meeting Mr. Edmonds. I do shrink from it. Oh, day, ladies and gentlemen?" Everybody said. Oh, by all means! and so it was stranged on the force that day was to comprise that the bill of fare that day was to comprise

Now, attached to the ship was a negro cook, a sleek, oily, and rather good looking the conclusion that there was nothing fit to negro, who was called Centaur-a name eat in Buffalo, I started for New York on "Ah, it was all for me! I am sure Mr. For monds would be patient, if he knew how much you spent in medicines for me, and how little work you have!"

"He is patient after a fashion; and we have reason to be thankful for that; still he has said some crushing things to me—harsh approximated to adapting act of horsengashin. "Nay," said Mrs. Weisterd gently, "I very appropriate one, and with which the would not judge him; how many inconsistent the passengers had agreed to the fish dinner, senger, of course," when he charged me for I chanced to be on the forecastle, not far tickets for two! and upon my expostulating "You are right. I may not lift my voice; I changed to be the captain came for sales, but little likeness to my Lord is found irom the guiley, when the captain came for ward, and looking in, sang out—"Centage!" supposed that any one else could sit in the er humility, a nearer likeness to Jesus. He his wool in the most vigorous and determined manner. I overheard him asking himself-"What de detail he mean by cockin' de fish and postponia' the geore? I bee on sebberal The fireside merning worship war just ended and Charles. Welsford was about to go forth to his daily took when a gentle knock at the deor, spoke of a visitor; how great was the surprise of all when Caleb Edmonds entered.

"You are come, sir—"

and postponia' the gence? I bee on sebberal voyages, it not more—I bin in hig letters and little hotels, man and boy, for eber so long, if it has daily took when a gentle knock at the deor, spoke of a visitor; how great was the surprise of all when Caleb Edmonds entered.

"You are come, sir—"

goese, an' stuffin' a goose, la know; an' roustin' a goose, an' bakin a goose—yes, by goly an' pages. the poor man's eyes were filled with tears, ob it! He knows most ebery ting."

"My wife," said Mr. Edmonds, turning to sound of Bow bells, considered himself to be wards Mrs. Weislerd, "put semething into a cert of walking encyclopedia. If he didn't my band, just as I left, for you, ma'am."— know, he at least pretended to do so—and And forth from his pockets came tea, surgar, too often, I am sorry to say, pretence is per-

Jimmy and one or two others of the crew "And now," said the visitor kindly, "don't passed the gailey door, and the bewildered for sake the shop; get your little parcels there | cook rushed | out and | anxiously inquired | of and pay just when it suits you. By the way, the tracle if he knew how to postpone a a sovereign would be of any service to you, goose?' Now, Jimmy was somewhat sensitive, and probably thought for the moment I have one which will been a hole in my live, and probably thought for the moment pocket—as the saying goes—nuless I give it that the term goose might apply to himself. to somebody. And before they could reply, and that there was a covert joke in the re-

They knell, and as he breathed forth his me is now, says, he Cook a large mess of — who asked if there was more than one of me half preart's gratitude, his wife wept tears of joy. Esh for the cabin passengers' closer to day, —he suggested that I had better go into the times.

affair, and winking at his companions, "that's very polite, asked me what I wanted. I easy enough, a I thought every fool knew told him I wanted to stay in there. He said applies date; biscuit pounded into small the baggage man dove his load in again, a bits, and portion of fish previously browned if to end some argument, and asked if I is will serve it with prepared gravy."

Centagr listened with profound attention.

galley, highly cluted. The alfair was of course kept a profound secret, and I would not have spoiled the ex-pected loke for the world. and what 'would cost two shallings in Newpected joke for the world. Dinner time arrived, and Centaur certainly won honors for himself by the style in which the served the fish, both boiled and fried. recovered sufficiently to say 'Far Boy.' This Dish after dish had disappeared, and when answer affording me no information whatever every one supposed the meal to be concluded. I backed into the car again, much puzzled as who, on removing the cover, to his great sur-His wrath was not to be suppressed, even in was running from me in innumerable rivulets the presence of the passengers, and in a which was being caught in little tin cups towering passion, he shouted-"Soud that and sold by tradesmen of all descriptions, I afernal cook aft directly."

Poor Centaur entered the cabin, very greasy and good humored, having no suspiction of anything wrong, and was considerably startled by the question-"What do you mean, you scoundrel, by annoyed. this disobedience of orders?"

Beyed orders, sa; done jes what you said, sa," he stammered out. "Obeyed orders, you black rascal!" said the captain, greatly astonished-"Didn't I tell you to postpone the goose ?" ou did, sa; and I did it."

"Did what?" shouted the captain, "Postponed de goese, sa, 'cordin' to direc-Jimmy Ducks 'lighten me on de subleck, an' I foller 'zactly his 'cription By gelly, I had trouble enough: don't want to postpone anoder, no how." Everybody laughed beartily at Centaur's explanation, and even the captain could not help smiling. "Be off, you black blockhead!" he said "and send Jemmy Ducks here."

course didn't know nothin' 'bout it : but

The darkey was off in a twinkling, and there being some curiosity as to this new this discovery for as a general thing, a meaner table was never provided in the meanest of third class hotels, or even in a cheap New York boarding house.

Style of cooking, we tried the goose; but for the life of us we could not tell whether we were eating fish, flesh, or lowl. Jemmy soon York boarding house, were enting lish, flesh, or low! Jemmy soon 1t happened that during the passage we afterwards appeared, and was compelled to

> "My heres!" was his exclamation, when poned goose, I wish the capting ud ave one 40000 Trials of a Fat Man.

The Boy ato Republic has a fat correspondent who writes that paper frankly thus; "As I intimated to you, having come to "Aye, aye, sa!" replied the personage.

"Cock a large mess of fish to-day for the cabin passengers' dinner; and dye hear, postpone that goose!"

supposed that any one else could sit in the same sent I occupied. Being aware that it was a matter of some doubt, I said no more, but heard bin muster something to binself about hors always going as freight, as I Such were the captain's directions, to which walked off—which remers was made, 1 preabout hogs always going us freight, as I

"I got on the ears somewhat ruffled in and pop-corn vender, so that their indentity sceame a matter of considerable research. I nally obtained a scat opposite an old, scroggy bady and her unmarried daughter. They screamed us I sat down, and I was tempted to expand my langs in the same manner, for the whole seat gave way with me and deposited me with my wig in a pool of tobacco juice, and my feet in the buny, unmarried girl's hap. If pon extricating myself from the wreek, I discovered to my horrer that I had split the back of my cost, had naterly crushed out of existence three buildboxes; and obtained the eternal hate of the the power of publi boxes; and obtained the elemnal hate of the scraggy woman and her body daughter has scraggy woman and her body daughter has manufactured through the press.

Complement — The enter of a Western the green stalks it will be found preferable to think I failed. My failure is easily explained, paper owes a bank about $1,000, for which erect works designed for the purpose espector who ever heard of any man making a they hold his note. The default og wag anially. Mr. Burkey says that he found that Having no doubt that the him referred to dollars for ours. We hope great care is taken as well as pruning kinde, they would avoid Was me, I made myself as released to details for the preserve these capital and interesting disasters. To prove surfacely, a vine planted was me, I made myself as release in the relies, as, should they be lost, we doubt whether unskilledly, is like rightly furnishing a house to somebody. And before they could reply, he had laid the coin upon the table and was gone.

"Warn" said Mr. Welsford let us thank explained:

"Was me, I made myself as reform as possible, and that there was a covert joke in the real part and got into the next car. The seats in the last five he was evidently taken and got into the next car. The seats in the car were all weak, find thu s, as four of them fell to pieces as I sat down on them.

Should the bank, however, be so unfortunate. The decorations are crushed in the general car were all weak, however, be so unfortunate. The case is dis, you see. Cap'n says to Upon making my complaint to the conductor as to lose ours, we'll let them have another at | rain | So far as vines are concerned, it would and even the httle enes murmered the amen." an postpone de goose. Now, dat is jus what list Mr. Edmends did not step at this; it dis nigger can't git through his wool, no was to him Charles. Welsford owed a situation. how, what pesiponial a goose is!" baggage car, and sit on one of the express trunks. They being iron-bound, he thought they'd stand it, if nothing else would. I did said Jimmy, seeing through the go in there. The baggage-man, who was not it couldn't be did; as, if I came in, he would "I tought so, too," said Centaur, innocent-lay: "an' ro I says to myzelf, Jimmy Ducks'ii "two trunks and both of us in that there bag-"gage car," I accommodated matters with Well, you see," said Jimmy, looking very bim by giving him a dollar (one of twenty I serious, "it isn't a common or a very usual had borrowed,) and he agreed to ride on the way of cooking your geose; but ven it is outside of the cur, while 1 occupied the gived up hafter fish, and nothing to follow, inside. I got upon two express trunks, and avocations of business. Persons in sedentaat the nobility's changers, or at the Lord was very comfortable. Indeed, I should mayor's banquets, then they postpone it. have been perfectly so if the baggago man ladin't kept annoying me. He kept diving Every person, great and small, should wash or coal store can burn from fifty to one handless. Persons in selections in selections in selections in selections. Persons in selections in selections in selections. Persons in selections in selections in selections. It is a subject to burning the selections of burning the selection of burning the selections of burning the selection of burning the selection of burning the selections of burning the selection of burning the selections of burning the selection of burning the the goese as clean as possible; then with a proce of lighted paper, burn the samps of going to New York; and upon my replying the feathers. After drawing the bird, you that I was, he would convey my reply to the will stuff it with a mixture composed of 'ord-brakeman, who evidently had been talking builed eggs, chopped very line; onions ditto; of mo all the way from Buchester. Finally on the fire. You will then put the goose tended to go to Barnam's Museum when I into a pot, boil it for all an hoar; then put got to New York, I told him I should; it on your spit, roact it until done, and you which information he conveyed to the brake man, who ejaculated, "Thought so-it's him ! "I couldn't imagine what they meant. and noting carefully upon the tablet of his They chucked considerably, and said; Seen brain Jimmy's directions, started for the him for nothin'. "Twould a cost two shillin's in New York'-when I abruptly put an end to their conversation by putting my head out York,' and what they had 'seen for nothing. another dish was placed before the captain. to what they meant. Dreaming that I was being broiled on an immense gridiron, for the prise and indignation discovered the goore, purpose of frying me out, and that the fat arrived in Syracuse, and there awoke, deflesh, and that gongs were sound og eestatic announcements of 'dinners.' I will write you again soon. Till then believe me you much "PAT CONTRIBUTOR.

> Exclusin Wine - At a late pomological meeting in London, Mr. Wilkins handed round some wine, which he said had been manufactured from his roots of Mangel Centaur looked perfectly amazed, "Course Warzel, and was but ten months old .-"This," says the Chronicle, "for a light wine, was certainly very excellent, and Mr. Wilkins declared, could be retailed at a profit at 6d. The passengers here began to seent the joke, and burst into a loud laugh. Even the little captain was somewhat mellified, and brequested Centaur to explain binself. "Well, sa," he said, "you ordered me to also tasted bread made of one-third of Mangel Took de lish and postpone de goose. Now, I nebber postpone one in all my life, an' of certainly fully equal to the a crage quality," face.

Select Poetry.

[From the Presbyterien] A NEW YEAR'S HYMN.

From the German of B. Selmolke-born, 1672; died, 1737. God with us! Immanuel! Open, with the year before us, Thy treasury where blessings dwell, And their fulness scatter o'er us, Source of good! make us to know Whence our daily comforts flow. Bless the body and the soul, O, thou source of every blessing ! Every auxious fear control. Lead as still thy grace possessing Where thy foot in mercy trends, Where thy hand its bounty shade.

Let our every not be blest Our incoming and outgoing, May thine eye upon us rest, Still the path to glory showing. We our need of grace confess; Let thy grace, Lord, give success. Make us seek our heavenly home,

Here on earth let concord floorish; And though evil days should come, Let e'en them our virtues nourish. Let the Nation and the State, Through "thy gentleness" be "great." Lord, thy covenant seal impress

On the year thy love is sending; With divine protection bless Its beginning, midst, and enling. Hear our humble prayer, and—then Thyself pronounce the glad Amen.

Miscellancons.

They have a new chimney in France, incuted for the consumption of wood, instead a cool, by the Parisians. It consists of a core pipe, into which the logs of wood are "colls" that were ever discarded as worthless own, and beneath which the fire is lighted, if they only have life in them; and we we This contrivance produces so much heat that agree to beat him two-fold by means of t the apartment is thoroughly warmed during best management already mentioned. the day, and ut night the logs, completely speak from actual experiment, charred, but not consumed, ore withdrawn in the state of charcosi, and will sell for donote the price of the wood in its natural state. This chimeny is the invention of a Monsiegr Renaud, and much is expected from it on the temper, and after crushing two or three score of economy. The same idea is being women from a diameter of ten feet into about applied to steam, using coal, which turns to six inches, and flattening out an apple-boy coke, as it works without smoke or askes of of a crushing mil, and enables parties pro of the United States shows that we have two millions and a half of farmers, one hundred thousand merchants, sixty four thousand masons, and hearly to hundred thousand carpenters. We have fourteen thousand bakers | Boiling the cut cames will answer where no to make our brend; twenty-four thousand conveniences for steaming exist, though steam lawyers to set us by the ears; forty thousand is preferable and an ingenious man can man doctors to "kill or cure," and fifteen handred a steamer out of a case, an old gun barrel, editors to keep this motely mass in order by common kettle with a weeden hid cemented the power of public opinion controlled and light with clay and cow dung mixed into a decent apology in a fractured coat and a head saturated with tobacco juice?

"I then went into another car, in consequence of the indignation of the passengers of distinguished individuals deposited for safe keeping in the cabinet of the Farmers men and a boy, in two half days.

The work of the safe to th having been aroused by the two women allu-ded to, and especially as I heard a gentleman and to in the hand writing of the nutographist, with short hair and not very placid face. We learn that they cost the bank a great nquiring if he hadn't better punch him, deal of money. They paid over a thou-and says- it gardeners would consult the spade half price, in consequence of the very hard be better to leave them unprimed than to hours a day in the open air.

The more clothing we wear, other things being equal, the less food we need.

Sleeping rooms should have a fire place, or me mode of ventilation beside the window. Young people and others cannot study to the vines has yet been deserved from some mode of ventilation beside the window. such by lamp light with impunity.

From one to one pound and a half of solid food is sufficient for a person in the ordinary all over in cold water every morning. The best remedy for eyes weakened by night use is to apply a fine stream of cold was

Mn. Jons Davis, of Slaughter Neck, Delaware, has twin daughters, live years old that cannot be told apart by strangers, and the nearest neighbors, who see them daily, are same time disprove the firs. Carry your burned to distinguish one from the other. A ed lime along with your ashes on one pile, gentleman recently had the children brought before him, placed side by side when he scansed every feature, determined, if possible, to distinguished. They were then removed from the room a short time only, and on their how the friends present that they could be return he was completely foiled, and could only guess. A lady relative of the family, a near neighbor and frequent visitor, defared that she could not learn to tell one rom another, though she had labored constantly to do so. The only method of deter-mining with certainty which is which, is by a small mark on the ear of one of them, that mly visible on close inspection.

-A correspondent of the Medical Times in s bug; but them in the water until the sys he had lately been to see a patient in hounds, and he found this gentlemen's hunts- put them back in the hop water, stirring monages, and he toom this gentlemen's bunts in vaccinating a litter of pupples as a preventice against distemper. The buntsman said he had done this for some years just half a cop of sait. After it is cool enough. that the success was quite complete, and that add two cups of good yeast, let it stand until the practice was becoming general with it is thoroughly blended, and ceases fermen-

Lord Braxford was an eccentric Scotch | cool place. dge, with a bad tempered wife. His butler determined to leave, because Lady Braxford was always scolding him. "Why," exclaimed the judge, "ye've little to complain; ye may be thankful ye're not married to her!"

The wife of Senator Benites, of San Antonio, Texas, recently gave birth to her nineteenth child. She is but 38 years old,

The Memphis Enquirer says the wife of Dr Wheatley jumped overboard from the burning steamer Rainbow, with $25,000 in gold secubut clear fire, keeping them stirred until the

Farmer's Departmer

Importance of Good Transplant A correspondent of the Generee Far states that he precured twenty dry and sl eled peach trees last spring, of a nursery who had dug them up early in the spring heeled them in, and, being "culls," had mained unsold. They were set out at the time that peach trees in the norsery were coming out in full leaf. They were attended in the following unabar: The b sed roots were proned off, the tops clo shortened in, so that they might corresp with the reduced roots. They were caref set in holes made about two feet zeross eight inches deep. The earth was well fi in among the interstics, settling it v water poured in. They were then fre culched with strawy names. Every lived and made "an extraordinary growt while one in the same row treated in ommen manner, (which we suppose me unshorted and unmulched,) did not I through half the smmer.

The peach tree, more than any other, so the Country Gentlemen, in which we ago n eds very free shortung back in sett out. We have succeeded better with tre three or four years from the bud, or tw the ordinary size, than with one year to without this treatment. The egis no cil tree, that is more sensibily affected wigood open culture—for example, after beiset will, give it mellow cultivation the sat season throughout, or mulch it heavily we course manure,) and it will rend out show about three feet long. Give it no cultivation or mulching, nor shortening back, and I the earth become hard and grown up wi weeds, and the shoots will not be more the three inches long. This experiment is w trying by any one who doubts it, on alterna-trees in a row, or on alternate rows. We are willing to let any one who prefers or pra-

Sugar Cane.

H. C. Bulkly, of Kalamazoo, Micj made a successful experiment upon plan of extracting Chinese cane just ecommends it to others as it saved the any kind, by means of a revolving cylinder beneath the fornace.

"The Great United States."—The consus

PRUNING THE VINE -The Harriculturist plant them in earth they cannot feed upon, HEALTH.—Reading about is conducive to sealth.

Young persons should walk at least two mours a day in the open air.

The more clothing we wear, other things or in places where their roots ga grene at last Horticulturist-"Pruning the vines may be continued in any mild or moderately cool winter pruning in good weather."

> Bussing Line -1 will suggest a somewhat ed into small chips, of which you can add to your coals as you use them a considerable a mount daily, or have them mixed with the pile. You will find it to save coal and at the and by spring it will be ready for your summer crops. Where farmers buil rugar with coul as they do in our county, they can burn from five to ten bushels of time day y and be

Recipes.

Recess, in the tonic California, gives the following as making the best yeast." One half gallan of peoled potatoes, one gallon of water, three large hardfulls of hops, Take the potatoes, cut fine, and hops tied up in s bug; bull them, in the water until the country who is a master of a pack of much and run them through a cullendarting, then put it into a jug, with the cors tied fast. It will keep two mouths, if kept in a

> APPLE MARMALADE.- Cut apples (all of the same kind and that will become clear in boiling) into long thin slices; put them into cold water, take them up, weigh them, and put them into the preserving pan, with an equal quantity of eager broken into small pieces; to every three pounds of apples add the peel of one lemon, chopped very fine, and two-thirds of an ounce of ginger, cut in pieces