Said brother Jonathan to John, "You are the elder born. And I can bear another's hate, But not your slightest scorn. You've lived a life of noble strife,

You've made a world your own, Why, when I follow in your steps, deceive me with a groan ! I feel the promptings of my youth,

That urge me evermore To spread my fame, my race, my name, From shore to furthermost shore. I feel the lightnings in my blood, The thunders in my hand,

And I must work my destiny Whoever may withstand "And if you'd give me, brother John,

The sympathy I crave, And stretch your warm fraternal hand Across the Atlantic wave,

I'd give it such a cordial grasp That earth should start to see, And ancient crowns and sceptres shake That fear both you and me.'

Said brother John to Jonathan, "You do my nature wrong; I never hated, never scorned, But loved you well and long. If children of the self-same sire, We've quarrel'd now and then, Twas only in our early youth, And not since we were men." And if with cautious, cooler blood, Result of suffering keen, I sometimes think you move too fast,

Mistake not what I mean. I've felt the follies of my youth, The errors of my prime, And dreamed for you-my father's son-A future more sublime

And here's my hand, tis freely given, I stretch it o'er the brine, And wish you from my heart of hearts A higher life than mine. Together let us rule the world, Together work and thrive ;

I'm scarcely thirty-five. "And I have strength for nobler work Than e'er my hand has done, And realms to rule and truths to plant

Beyond the rising sun.
Take you the West and I the East, We'll spread ourselves abroad, With trade and spade, and wholesome laws And faith in Man and Ged. "Take you the West and I the East!

We speak the self-same tongue That Milton wrote and Chatham spoke, And Burns and Shakspeare sung ; And from our tongue, our hand, our heart, Shall countless blessings flow, To light two darkened hemispheres That know not where they go."

Our Anglo-Saxon name and fame, Our Anglo-Saxon speech, Received their mission straight from Heaven To civilize and teach. So here's my hand, I stretch it forth :

Ye meaner lands look on! From this day hence there's friendship firm "Twixt Jonathan and John!" They shook their hands, this neble pair,

And o'er the "electric chain" Came daily messages of Peace When other nations, sore oppressed, Lie dark in Sorrow's night, They look to Jonathan and John And hope for coming light.

Humorous.

"What business was your father's?" said an imperious Colonol to a modest looking Lieuten-

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

The anniversary of the introduction of Holloway's Distinct ought to be a jubilee forever. It has save Omment ought to be a jenue joever. It has saved countless multiputes from dissignrenced, paralyzation, multipution, agony and feath. Starting from the surface to which it is applied, its leading balm finds its way through every coating and ligament of the body, to the very contre and basis of all eruptive, alcorous, transcrous, and cancerous discusses. It distinguishes the febric principle that feeds them, and the outtward symptoms finds, heal, and paus away with a rapidity incredible to those who have not wilnessed it.

SCROPULOUS ERUPTIONS AND ULCERS. Strop Claus Enter Floas and Clausias.

The poison of scrofula has never been unitalized or expelled by any of the remedies of the pharmacoparis. The sole antidate to this virulent and destructive element is Holloway's Ontment. Majornite & Brodie, the great is Holloway's Ontment. Majornite & Brodie, the great French and English surgeons, do no deny or dispute this great fact. There is no form of scrodula that may not be controlled and error by this labranite remedy.

Truth is Mighty, and Must Prevail. Report of the Committee appointed to superin tend the Burning of the Iron Safes, at Reading, February 27, 1857. READING, March 4. The undersigned, members of the committee, do respectfully report, that we saw the two Safes originally agreed upon by Farrels & Herring and Evans & Watson, placed side by side in a fur-nace, viz: The Safe inuse by the Paymaster of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, in his office at Reading, manufactured by Farrels & Herring, and the Safe in use by H. A. Lantz, in his store, manufactured by Evans & Watson, and put in books and papers precisely alike. The fire was started at 8½ o'clock, A. M., and kept up until feur cords of green hickory, two cords dry oak and half chesnut top wood were entirely consumed, the whole under the superintendence of the subscribers, members of the Committee. The Safes were then cooled off with water, after which they were opened, and the books and papers taken out by the Committee and sent to H. A. Lantz's store for public examined and marked by the Committee. The books and papers taken from the Safe manufactured Farrels & Herring were in our judgment, damaged fully fifteen per cent, more than shore taken from Evans & Watson's Safe.

We believe the above to have been a fair and impartial trial of the respective qualities of both

JACOB H. DYSHER, DANIEL S. HUNTER. Having been absent during the burning, we fully coincide with the above statement of the condition of the papers and books taken out of
