Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention -Resignation of Gen. Lane as President of the Convention. LEAVENWORTH, March 26th, 1858.—The Constitutional Convention met in this city last evening pursuant to adjournment. After the appointment of Standing Committees, each of which consisted of seven members, a majority of them being in favor of the adoption of the Topeka Constitution as a basis for the new one. Gen. Lane introduced a resolution, instructing the committe to provide for the submission of the question of locating the capital, to a full and fair vote of the people on the day on which will be submitted for ratification or rejection, of the new Constitu-

In accordance with a previous notice, General Lane has resigned his position as President of the Convention. This at once brought several on their feet, who objected to his been victorious thus far in the fight, under bain against Utah. I parted with these hole brates with much regret. A year of hard and almost unremitting labor with them border ruffian manners into the debates of the

Gen. Lane replied, that he demanded that his place should be supplied by another for he wished to sacrifice ALL for the sake of peace and free State principles; said he "I do re-sign and all the powers of earth cannot defeat me.
