'Ah!" said Mrs. Partington, as she stood looking at the placards stuck all over a front of the store, advertising damaged goods for sale. It was not a big R, like those which dectors begin their proscriptions with, but the simple ejaculation "ah!" and as she said people going along listened to what she had to say. "This," continued she, running on like a wheelbarrow, "is what is meant by Mr. Jaconotha whom she what is meant by Bone Phosphote of Lime, $10 on a ton. Mr. Jacqueths, when she says, sweet are the use of advertisements, but "-and here she butted against the word "damaged," making two syllables of it, with a profane construc-tion on the first, that made her hold up her hands in unqualified horror. "But, though the goods are aged, I don't see the use of putting it quite so strong-so much stronger than the goods are, I dare say, pulled her sleeve, at the same time kicking a hig dog on the nose who was smelling at her "redicule," and the old lady moved on amid the crowd.

Poetican.-In a certain well known city a poetical genus was hauled up before the magistrate for kissing a girl and kicking up a dust and the following dialogue ensued;
Is your name John Jay?

Yes, your honor so the the people say. Was it you that kissed the girl and raised the alarm?

A Lesson is Ghamman.—"Jack, did you ever study gramman? "I did sir, "What case is Mr. D——?" "He's an objective case, "How so? "Because he objected to pay his subscription that's been owing for three years and a half, "Right What is a noun?" "Don't know; but I know what renown is. "Well what is it?" "Running off without paying the printer, and getting on the black list as a delinquent." "Good? Buckwheat Four in sacks, all of which will be wide work of collecting outstanding subscriptions in conjunction with a constable, never employed by Flour in this Market, from FIVE to SEVEN printers until the last extremity." "That's DO. LARS per Barrel, according to quality."

WAKE MONEY .- A good looking Irishman in the landlord "what is the news." The landlord, disposed to run upon him, replied.
"they say the devil is dead." "An sure."
says Pat, "that's news indade." Shortly after, he went to the hor laid devil as the hor laid. stopping at a hotel to warm himself, inquired of the landlord "what is the news." The after, he went to the bar, laid down some coppers and resamed his seat. The landford, always ready for a customer, asked him what he would take. "Nothing at all," said Pat. "Why then did you put this money here!" "An sure, sir, it's the custom in me own countbry, when a chap loses his daddy, to give him a few coppers to help him pay for Boys are sometimes endowed with remark. able memories. We know a family in this city, consisting of a girl and one boy-the inter about 7 years old. They were sitting one evening around the table, engaged in telling each other how far back they could recollect. The little girl recollected when she had a "doll that cried." The boy here spoke up, and said that he recollected worse tuan that, "Ifow worse," chimed in half dozen voices in a breath. "Why, I recollect four weeks before I was born, and I cried all the time, for four I'd be a gal!"

"Mary, my lave, do you remember the text "No, papa, I never can re-member the text. I've such a bad memory."
"Mary," said her mother, did you notice Su-san Brown?" "O, yes. What a fright! She had on her last year's bonnet done up, a peagreen silk, a black lace mantilla, brown gaiters, an imitation Henition collar, a lava bracelet, her old ear drops, and such a fau! O, my!" Mother-"Well, my dear, your memory is improving."

"Whiskerottes" is the name given to "beaucatchers" worn by the girls this spring, for luck of whiskers, moustaches, or goatees,-They are made by drawing down little tale of hair from the temples and forming them into
