Extract from a communication from Dr. North, of Saratoga Springs, to the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, dated June the 5th, 1851: "The New Empire Spring is working charm-ingly for Scröfula. Do the profession know that there are twelve grains of Hydriodate of Sods, or Iodine, in a gallon of water - double any other Spring? There being only a trace of Iron in the water, I send my consumptive patients to that Spring unhesitatingly, hitherto with most satisfactory results."
