Original Resolutions. Mr. Finney offered the following resolutions, proposing amendments to the State Resolved. By the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Penn-sylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in ac-cordance with the provisions of the tenth There shall be an additional article to said

Constitution, to be designated "article xiii," SECTION 1. The Legislature shall pass no

Special act conferring corporate powers.
Sect. 2. Corporation charters may be pas. sed under general laws; but all such laws may, from time to time, be altered or repealed with due regard to the rights of corporators; Provided, That all corporations created under general laws may be extended in the limitation of time by special enactment.
Secr. 3. The Legislature shall provide for whole American people, it can still further widen municipal corporations by general laws, and the existing breach, and render the salvation of the Union almost impossible. Commissioners extend their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit, so as to prevent the will be present representing the free States of Illinois, Indiana, New York, New Jersey, New nbase of such power.

Sect. 4. The Legislature shall have no Vermont, Iowa, and Connecticut, and the slave States of Virginia, Delaware, Kentucky, Mary land, Missouri, North Carolina, and Tennessee power to pass any act granting or extending any special charter for banking purposes, but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws. Laid over under the rules.

Mr Pinney's resolution directing an inves-tigotical into the affairs of the banks, came up in order.

Mr. Smith's amendment being under consideration.

Mr. Finney moved an amendment to the for the day fixed for the meeting. Michigan and

Mr. Finney moved an amendment to the amendment, empowering the Committee on Banks to investigate the condition of such banks as they may, from facts brought to their knowledge, deem unsound; that they shall have power to send for persons and papers; and that the committee be required to report what legislation, if any, is necessary or expedient.

The amendment, after considerable debute, was agreed to-yeas 17, pays 11 Bills in Place.

Mr. Irvin read in place a bill to incorporate the Mechanicsburg Bank.

Mr. Clark, a bill to incorporate the Harrishurg Passenger Railway Company. Mr. Armstrong, a bill to erect Lycoming county into a separate judicial district.
