THE PRESIDENT ELECT. DEPARTURE FROM SPRINGFIELD

SPRINCFIELD, Ill., Feb. 11. Mr. Lincoln left the hotel at 7.30 A. M accompanied by a large concourse to the depot, where nearly one thousand citizens had already collected. After he had shaken hands with a number of his friends he took his stand on the platform of the car, and Spoke as follows : My FRIENDS : No one, not in my position, can appreciate the sadness I feel at this parting. To the people I owe all that I am. Here I have lived more than a quarter of a century; here my children were born, and here one of them lies buried. I know not how soon I shall see you again. A duty devolves upon me which is, perhaps, greater than that which has devolved upon any other man since the days of Washington. He ARTICLE 1. I hope you, my friends, will all pray that I may receive that Divine assistance without which I cannot succeed, but with which success is certain .-Again, I bid you all an affectionate farewell. Loud applause, and cries of "We will pray ior you."

During the speech, Mr. Lincoln betrayed much emotion, and the crowd was affected to tears. The trais left at precisely half past eight o'clock. Mrs. Lincoln remains in Springfield, until next week, and will meet Mr. Lincoln in New York.

HIS ARRIVAL AT INDIANAPOLIS. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., February 11th .- The tiring of thirty three guns this afternoon announced the approach of the train bearing the President elect and his party. Mr. Lincoln was received and welcomed by Governor Morton, who escorted him to a carriage drawn by four white horses.

The procession was then formed. It was composed of the members of both Houses of the Logislature, the public officers and municipal authorities, the military and firemen. Gent enthusiasm was manifested along the line of march. The President elect stood in the carriage.

acknowledging the welcomes of the surrounding musses. On reaching the Bates house the procession halted. Mr. Lincoln was escorted to the balcony, and responded to the demands of the assemblage in the following speech :--

MR. LINCOLN'S SPEECH. Mr. Lincoln said he had come here to

to-morrow, at ten o'clock, for Cincinnati. ARRIVAL AT CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12,-The train with Mr. Lincoln and party arrived here at the appointed time. The foot of Fifth street was literally blocked with people, and the locomotive was compelled to stop : the crowd was so great that it was impossible to get out of the way. At the deput it was found necessary to bring the millitary and police forces into requisition to clear the track. This reception is an era in the history of Cincinnati. The weather was mild and beantiful, and the streets were crowded with citizens and people from this and the neighboring States.

After a few moments rest, Mr. Lincoln made his appearance on the balcony, accompanied by Mayor Bishop, who made a short introductory address.

IMPORTANT SPEECH OF MR. LIN-COLN. He Addresses Himself to the Kentuckians.
