The Courier also reports the arrival of Mr. Holmes, formerly member of Congress from South Carolina. He says that before he left Washington, Mr. Seward desired him to say to the people of Charleston that he was for a peaceful settlement, and would do everything in his power for the amicable arrangement of affairs. Mr. Holmes also reports that Gen. Scott gave similar assurance, and that the President favors the policy, and that a majority of the Cabinet desire a withdrawal of the troops from Fort Pickens as well as Fort Sumfer.
