FROM THE "HOME JOURNAL." erOf all the child-furniture we have ever seen no article combines so much of those two impor-tant things-heelth and happiness-as the Adjustable Patent Steel Spring Saddle Horse, invented by lesse A. Crandull, It is not dangerand, like a common rocking-horse, to children's feet cannot be uport, does not wear carpets, but stands firm on its base, and its action is so like the ralion of a live horse that the child never wearies of it. This atest of child novelties is excredingly elegant and artistic in design; and so oljustable, substantial, and durable, that it will test a lifetime. It is indispensable in every tamity where there are children. It should be in every primary school and gymnasium in the country, as it can be made large and strong grouph to sustain grown persons. As a pedestal for photographic pictures, nothing is more beauti-
