EVACUATION OF NEW MADRID. A Million Dollars' Worth of Property Left in the Hasty Retreat of the Rebels.

Parson Brownlow in Nashville. THE BATTLE AT PEA RIDGE.

Thirteen Cannon and Sixteen Hundred Prisoners Captured. PEDERAL LOSS GOO RILLED AND NEARLY 800 WOUNDED.

Rebel Loss 1000 Killed and 2500 Wounded.

Rola, Mo., March 16. The remains of Colonel Hendricks, of the Twenty-ninth Indiana Regiment, killed at the battle of Pea Ridge, Arkenson, arrived here yesterony, accompanied by his brother and two or three other gentlemen.

They left the battile ground on the Monday following the fight. They represent the contest as terrible. The Rebels fought desperately, using stone in their cannon when their shot gave out. Their force is stated at 35,000 including 2,200 Indians under Albert Pike. As near as could be ascertained, our loss was 600 killed, and from 800 to 1000 wounded. The Rebel surgeons who came in to dress the wounds of their fallen, acknowledge a loss of 1007 killed, and from 2500 to 3000 wounded. We took 1600 prisoners and 13 pieces of cannon; 10 of which were captured by Gen. Signi's command, and 3 by Col. Patterson's

Two of our cannon, belonging to Davidson's Haitery, were taken by the Rebels, but The Rebels were completely defeated. One division, under Gen. Price, flying in one direction, and the oth r, under General Van Dorn, taking another, M-jor Herbett, of one of the Louisiana Regiments, who was taken prisoner, says that General Prost, of Camp Jackson notoriety, was killed in the battle.

Hend quarters of the Army of the Petomae. } SOLDIERS OF THE ACMY OF THE POTOMAGE

For a long time I have kept you inactive, but not without a purpose. You were to be disciplined, armed and instructed. The formidable artillery you now have had to be created. Other armies were to move and accomplish certain results. I held you back, that you might give the death blow to the to bellion that has distracted this once happy country. The patience you have shown, and your confidence in your General, are worth a dox-n victories.

These preliminary results are now accomplished. I feel that the patient labors of many months have produced their fruit. The Army of the Potomec is now a real army-magnificent in material admirable in discipline FRILING & GRANT. and instruction, excellently equipped and armed. Your commanders are all that I could

The moment for action has arrived, and I know that I can trust in you to save our country. As I ride through your ranks, I are in jour face the sure prestige of victory I feel that you will do whatever I ask of you The period of inaction has passed. I will bring you face to face with the Rebels, and only pray that God may defend the right.

In whatever direction you may moveconever strange my actions may appear to you -ever bear in mind that my fate is linked with yours, and that all I do is to bring you where I know you wish to be-on the decisive battle field. It is my business to place you there. I am to watch over you as a parent over his chudren, and you know that your General loves you from the depth of his

I know that, if it is necessary, you will will lingly follow me to our graves for our rightroom our facilities for doing by constance.

God smiles upon us. Victory attends us Yet I would not have you to think that our aim is to be attained without a manly strug gle. I will not disguise it from you. You have beard fore to encounter-former well worthy of the stiel you will use so well. 1; shall demend of you great, heroic exertionsrapid and long marches, desperate combats, privations, perhaps. We will share off these together, and when this sad war is over, we wai all return to our homes, and feel that we can ask no higher honor than the proud consciousness that we belonged to the Army of the Potomac.

GEO. B. MCCLELLAN. Major General Commanding.

Sr. Locis, March 14 -The following is a copy of the official despatch sent to the Becretery of War :-

"After several days' skirmishing and a number of attempts of the enomy's gun boats to dislodge General Pope's batteries at Point Pleasant, the enemy has evacuated his fort and entrenchments at New Madrid, teaving all his artillery, field batteries, tents, wagons. mules, &c., and an immense quantity of militury stores.

Brigadier General Hamilton now occupies This was the last stronghold of the enemy In this State, and no Rebel flag is now flying in Missouri. Sr. Louis, March 15.

General Pope, in a despatch to General Hallock, says :-

"Our suscess at New Madrid has been greater than reported. Twenty five pieces of heavy artillery.

(twenty four pounders and rifled.) thirty two batteries of field artiflery, an immense quan tity of fixed ammunition, several thousand small arms, hundreds of boxes of musket cartridges, three hundred mules, tents for an army of 12 000 men, and an immense quantity of other property, of not less value than a million dellars, have falled into our hands. The men only escaped. The enemy's whole force is demoralized, and dispersed in the swamp on the opposite side of the river.

"The enemy abandoned their works so burriedly as to leave all the baggage of their officers and the knapsacks of their men. Their dead were unburied—their suppars were on the tabler, and the candles burning in the the Court House, in the borough of Sunbury, on morning.

At Columbus they were joined by the gun boats "Pittsburg," "St. Louis" and "Mound City," and were overtaken by eight mortar boats, in tow of four steamers, with transports and ordeance boats.

They arrived here at 41 o'clock this after. noon. The mounted pickets of the enemy were in eight on the bloff on our arrival and two companies of the Twenty seventh Illinois r-giment were sent after them, but they

A strong Union feeling is mani ested here The impression prevails that Island No 10 will not offer much resistance. There are said said to be 2000 Rabel troops at the town of Union, 7000 at Hamboldt, and 15,000 in the vicinity of Island No. 10. At the latter place there are also said to be twelve heavy guns in their batteries.

ANOTHER SUNDAY BATTLE.

ISLAND No. 10 BEING SHELLED. Cateo, March 16, A. M.

Commodora Foote is shelling the Rebels at Island No. 10. Gen. Pope's batteries prevent their escape down the river. The Rebels are said to be from fifteen thousand to twenty thousand strong.

The Rebel gun housand are understood to be engaging General Pope's batteries.

The position of the R-bels on Island No. 10 is a very strong one. Forty six guns have been counted. Eight of our morters shelled a battery situsted above the island to day. The Rebels left it several times, but subsequently return They only fired with two gons.

There is no difficulty whatever in our shells reaching the island. General Pope has sent a despatch to Com-modere Foote saying that his heavy guns command the river, so that neither sceamer nor gan beat of the enemy could pass.

Fixing has been heard in the direction of New Madrid all day. It is supposed that the Rebel gun boats are trying to force a passage. Several Rebel transports near Island No.

10 are bemmed in. It is supposed the Rebel encampments are large enough to hold from fifteen thousand to twenty five thousand men.

Sr. Louis, March 17. General Halleck also announced that another victory had been gained by the United States forces in Arkanses, in which there were three Rebel Colonels captured. The particulars of this event have not yet east forty five perches to a place of beginning.
