BY ADJUTANT WH. P. SEVILLE, IST DELAWARE REG T.

Oppressed beneath the tyrant's heel,
Maryland, my Maryland.
Now in the dust from Fortune's wheel,
Maryland, my Maryland:
When first was heard the hes ite drum,
And northern hordes in myriads come,
Thy valor spurned the Lincoln scum,
Maryland, my Maryland.

The day is coming; almost here, Maryland, my Maryland.
When somhers patriot's will appear, Maryland, my Maryland;
We'll sweep the northern crowds away, And open to freedom's day, Then for the liberators pray, Maryland, my Maryland.

Rejoice, oh 'porsecuted land, Maryland, my Maryland. For here we are a damitless band, Maryland, my Maryland, We come to save you from despair, We we possed through abolt ion fire. New to our standard test repair. Maryland, my Maryland.

Ya gods! in wonder now we greet, Maryland, post Maryland, Maryland, post Maryland,
Did over french such welcome meet?
Maryland, post Maryland;
Those whom we know secrets of you,
Now turn their backs and shat their doors,
Say hey re ashamed of rangest boors,
Maryland, ion Maryland.

Now let dread congenies be our boast, Maryland, lost Maryland. Here comes: Methellan with his best, Maryland, lost Maryland; We il drive them here by from the field, And form their novaryt form to realed. And turn their rate shall stom be realed. Maryland, lost Maryland.

Jales, weary whipped and worn,
Maryland, false Maryland,
Our mighty how to fragrams term.
Maryland, into Maryland;
Describedly you would us then,
Lor ourser-cruit we had to be man.
Then could not even find a friend,
Maryland, vite Maryland.

On the return of Lincoln's boys, Maryland, vile Maryland, Maryland, the Maryland,
Base hypocritics, you still repoles,
Maryland, till Maryland,
You south upon our southern braves,
And would then sell heavy graves,
On, who would die ingrates to save?
Maryland, cursed Maryland.
