17 We learn from the Selinsgrove papers, that Wm. Duck of Middlecreek township, who had been living in a house by himself for some years, was missed by his neighbors sometime about Christmas, but his absence being no unusual occurrence, his friends made no search for him, as they had supposed that he had gone to Buffalo Valley, to visit some relatives. But hearing nothing of him for more than a month, they became alarmed, and forced an entrance into his dwelling. To their horror they found the body under the bed in which he had been necustomed to sleep. It presented a leathsome appearance, as decomposition had already began to take place, and his limbs had nearly entirely been

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the ship hones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the mose fail in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiscration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sanding him to that Unitscovered Country from whence no traveller returns. fifm to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a metaneholy fiver that thousands fall victim to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who by the use of that Deadly Prison. Mescary, rule the constitution and make the residue of life miscrable.
