KEY WEST, Fla., March 2, 1863.

DEAR WILVERT:—ON Saturday, February 21, orders were issued to Col. Good, relieving him of the command at Beaufort, to be filled by Brigadier General Saxon. Military Governor, &c., of South Carolina, and for him (Col. Good) to report, with his regiment, to Headquarters for special duty. This was done. Our tents were pitched in a fold outside of the entrenchments at Hilton Head, wells dug, cook shanties erected, and everything in a shape to make us comfortable, when an order came for us to make us comfortable, and the steam of the form of the command at Beaufort, to be delicated to be command at Beaufort, to be delicated to be shaded to be command at Beaufort, to be delicated to be comman

The counterfeits in question are so well gotten up, that almost any person is liable to be duped by them. The engraving is a shade coarser, and the paper a trifle thinner than the genuine.

To go sgain to Key West was something the boys didn't like, for in the big fight that is to come off at Charleston. a place had been assigned us on board the Ben Deford with Major General Hunder. For want of a name, one might call the position. The post was that of honor, and one that any regiment would like to occupy, but "where duty calls, "its ownsto obey," and as there is some likelihood of the "nephew of his uncle" interfering in our private arrangements, and the Gulf will be the place where his French vessels will make their first appearance, the boys have got over their distilke to this little is now receiving in Mexico, and teach him that it is better to mind one's own business than to interfere in that of strangers.

Batteries are to be created at every available point, the Towers to have the necessary armament, in fact, to be so prepared that if John Bull or Monsieur Crapean wishes to engage us with their "dogs of war," we went be placed in like fix with Major Anderson and his noble fellows at Fort Sumter.

iellows at Fort Sumter.

Much joy was manifested by the inhabitants on our arrival. Fings streamed neroes the streets—on one cord alone I counted sixteen of different nations, the most conspicuous was a large American flag, having on it the inscription "Welcome 47th." Houses were opened and the good things of this earth, wherewith to comfort the inner man, were plentifully distributed among the men of the different companies. It would be self praise (which is not very commendable,) to say we are the regiment, par excellence, but the people here have a very high opinion of us, and proved it by this ovation.

An order for all to remove, who had a relative in the rebel army, had been promulgated, and by four o'clock they would have embarked on board a steamer, bound for Hilton Head, where they would have been sent, under a flag of trace, to the rebel lines, unless ordered differently by the Commander of the 16th Army Corps. Our arrival stepped the banishment of seven hundred and thirty souls, and until treasen is proved against them, here they are likely to remain, happy in their homes, endeared to then treasen is proved against them, here they are likely to remain, happy in their homes, endeared to them by old associations and family ties.

From Northern papers we learn a great deal about "demoralization" and "dissatisfaction" in the Army. It is news to us, and I can tell those cronkers at home that their stories are all untrue, and that, almost to a man, those composing the Army, as far as my observation has gone, have perfect confidence in President Lincoln, his Proclamation of Emancipation, and will join him, heart and head in any tion, and will join him heart and hand, in any measure to put down this infernal rebellion, and act with him in anything that will bring an honorable posee. There is dissatisfaction among the soldiers, but it is caused by men in the North who are con-tinually preaching conservative and peace decirines, whereby they give aid and comfort to the enemy, and as long as treason is allowed to be sown brond

PER . POSENSTON. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, Lendon, Graduste from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been epent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astenishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at saidlen sounds, bushfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured inmediately.

TARGE PARTICILAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured them-selves by improper indulgence and solitary habits selves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which rain both body and mind, unfitting them for either basiness, and, seeiety er marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, vir. Weekness of the Back and Limbs, Pans in the Hearl, Dinnees of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power. Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepay, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Dipestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumition, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Ecil-Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Seli-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c are some of the evils produced.

The confidently recommend these fails we take the majorist to any other I have even had a surjective to the public use. I have for many years known your Cherry Present as the best Cough medicine in the world; and these fills are in the wise interior to that admirable proparation for the treatment of diseases.

When the misguided and improdent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbilied the such of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone betrieved him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horid discuss make their appearance, such as alcerated sore throat, discused ness, nesturnal pains in the lead and limbs, dimness of sight, declaress, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at leat the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful discusse becomes a horizid object of commiscration, till death puts a period to his draniful sufferings, by sending him to "that Uniterovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a medanckeely fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible discusse, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant protenders, who, by the use of that Density Parson, Merency, rain the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.
