

UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR: A. G. CURTIN, OF CENTRE COUNTY.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT: DANIEL AGNEW, OF BEAVER COUNTY.

UNION COUNTY TICKET.

For Senator: Hon. FRANKLIN A. BOUND, of Milton.

For Assembly: JONAS STINE, of Mt. Carmel.

For Prothonotary: SAM'L H. ROTHEMEL, of Mt. Mahoney.

For Treasurer: WILLIAM H. WOLF, of Milton.

For Commissioner: JACOB F. ROHRBACH, of Sunbury.

For Auditor: ANDREW YEAGER, of Lower Mahoney.

For Auditor: WILLIAM REED, of Upper Augusta.

THE COST OF COMPROMISE.—The Peace party want the war stopped, and to compromise with the traitors.

Now, compromise means giving and taking from both sides. And if the rebels were even willing, we should have to agree to pay their enormous public debt, which already amounts to more than twelve hundred millions of dollars.

BECOMING TICKETS.—The Copperhead leaders intend having their tickets all bunched, and in that way, compel their men to vote the whole ticket.

There is an old proverb that a man is known by the company he keeps. Now it cannot be questioned that a number of the Copperhead leaders are open and avowed secessionists, and assert that the rebels are contending for their just rights.

COOPERHEAD CALCULATIONS.—Purdy and Beckman must have an idea that their readers will swallow anything they say—but the big story of fifteen hundred wagons at the late Milton Copperhead gathering was a little too much.

Men of Northumberland county, you have sons, brothers, relations, friends and neighbors in the army, fighting nobly for the old flag, the stars and stripes, and while these brave soldiers are discharging their duties faithfully towards their country on the distant battle-field, it devolves upon you to equally discharge your duties faithfully at home, by voting and working for Andrew G. Curtin and every man on the Union ticket.

MAINE ELECTIONS.—The Union ticket in Maine, has made a clean sweep. The majority of Coney, the Union candidate for Governor, is 18,000. But one Copperhead has been elected to the Senate, and in the House there has been but a few.

COMPLIMENTARY.

We took occasion two weeks since, to state why Purdy was nominated giving a few plain and simple facts, as the ground work of our opinion.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, RICHMOND, Sept. 18, 1863.

TRUMAN H. PERRY, Esq.—Through the intervention of one of our correspondents of the "Knights of the Golden Circle" and the "Northumberland County Democrat," which is kept on file in this Department, I have learned of your success in procuring a nomination for the Legislature, over older residents and Democrats, of much longer standing.

With thanks for your friendly offers and devotedness to the Confederacy, I am, Respectfully Yours, JEFF. DAVIS.

GENERAL GRANT'S CHARACTER.—Major E. D. Osborn, formerly of Rochester, a member of General Grant's staff, writes to a friend in answer to a question in regard to Grant's character. He says:

General Grant is, and always has been a democrat in politics, but he does not recognize the Copperheads as Democrats. When told that General Logan was making stump speeches in Illinois, while on furlough he replied that he considered him in the field serving his country as long as he was fighting the Copperheads.

Let every man take part earnestly in the present contest. It is the greatest that ever yet has animated the people of Pennsylvania. Heretofore, our political battles have been fought upon questions of Administrative policy, now the Constitution itself is the stake.

Our Brekinridge neighbor tried his hand at speech making at a Copperhead meeting, at Bloomsburg, two weeks since. The circus was just opened, and the contest was, which could draw the biggest crowd, the clown inside or his competitor outside.

The Stirlinggrove Post will hereafter be published by J. P. & C. W. Gutelius, sons of the late editor, Isaac Gutelius.

THE ISSUE SIMPLIFIED.

The Ohio soldiers now fighting for their country are authorized and enabled by law to vote at the ensuing and subsequent elections; and accredited representatives of either party are now visiting the several armies distributing the necessary blanks and ballots.

Garfield remarked, in substance, that he understood the Vallandigham party professed to believe that the Government couldn't succeed in crushing the rebellion, and that it was in favor of immediately and unconditionally stopping the war; to which Griffiths answered affirmatively.

Garfield—Oh! then, as a party, you don't want to see us succeed? Griffiths—Really, we have no interest in the fight.

Garfield—You are perfectly indifferent, then, whether we drag our country into a civil war, or whether we crush the rebellion? Griffiths—Really, we have no interest in the fight.

As my wife and I have been together for some time, we have had a conversation on the subject of the restoration of the Union.
