Local Affairs.

Mr. CALLELY offers for sale, at public vendue, on the 9th of March, some valuable horses, stock and other personal property—suitable for farm-ers and others—which is more fully described in the printed bills from this office.

The Inaugural Address of Governor Curtin will be found in another column. It is an able document and should be read by all.

HAND-BILLS—Those wishing bills and other printing well done, should call at this office— we have provided a large stock of materials for that purpose.

We are requested to say that Mr. E. P. Rob-ach, formerly of Centre High School, Juniors county, Pa., will open a classical school in the Grand Jury Room, about the first of April. Mr. Robach is represented as an experienced teacher and fine scholar, being a graduate of one of our best colleges. Advertisement next week.

WILLIS LAWRENCE has been appointed Post Master at Milton, in place of his father recently deceased.

We see it stated in an exchange that Mrs.
Mary Platt, aged 70 years, died last week near White Deer Mills in Union County. She was a daughter of John Brady, noted in the Revolutionary war of Northumberland county; a sister of Capt.
Wm. P. Brady, now and for many years past an elected member of the State Senate; niece of Gen. Hugh Brady and a blood relative of Sam Brady, the celebrated Indian fighter.

A new counterfeiter $25 bill, on the Pittston (Pa.) Bank, has just made its appearance. Vignette, will figure 23 on upper corner.

Mr. Ulph, the Superintendent of common schools of this County, in his report shows the number of male teachers to be 110; number of female teachers, 40. Number of male scholars 3,661; number of female scholars, 2,234. Out of the whole number of townships seven of them retain or accept the system of Common Schools. They are, Cameron, Jordan, Union Mahonay, Lower Mahonay, Limestone and Washington. There are only two non-accepting districts in the State.

Ira T. Clement has purchased what is known as "Shaw's four acre lot," at the upper end of its bank, along the branch of the Shamokin Valley railroad.

Hotel CHANGES.—Julius Arbiter will take possession of Mrs. Boldt's stand in April. Michael Wilvert the Washington House now kept by Mr. Walters, Mr. Drummel of the Susquehanna House will take Wilvert's old stand now kept by Mr.
Wilvert. Mr. G. W. Arbogast of Georgetown will take possession of the Susquehanna House. Mr.
Vandyke of the Central, and Mr. Snyder of the Lawrence House, continue at their old stands.

We understand a riot occurred among the miners at Shamokin. There was a "strike" on Friday last, which culminated in an outbreak at Mr.
Moore's Hotel, on Monday night last. Several of the ring-leaders were arrested and are now confined in jail at this place. The extraordinary high wages paid miners, instead of stimulating to greater industry and contentment, has only made them more turbulent and troublesome.

SHREK IN THE ICE.—On Saturday last, a boisterous who crossed the river at this place, broke in the ice, in the usual opposite this place. The horses were rescued by the aid of some of the skaters and others on the river.

A SCENE ON THE ICE.—Perhaps so many persons never before had been congregated on the boisterous of the Susquehanna, were assembled on Saturday last. The weather was moderate, and the bold expanse of ice, between this place and Northumberland, extending several miles, and which en-braced hundreds of acres of the finest skating, was covered with some three or four hundred persons, most of them skaters from this place and Northumberland. It appeared like a social Union of the two towns, represented by ladies and gentlemen, in perhaps, equal numbers. We observed that many of the fair daughters of both places, had acquired a degree of skill and activity on their skates, that will,
in another year, rank them as accomplished skaters.
As a general thing, we think skating comes to the ladies as naturally as dancing, and the purity of motion can be as beautifully exemplified by them on the ice, as on the floor of the ball room. Even girls of six or eight years take it as naturally, as a duck to the water. Skating has become an institution with the ladies, and it will furnish mirthful entertainment to the men, where the peculiarities of vision sometimes leads them to see double, or at least more than their sober sides sided.

BREAKING UP OF THE ICE.—On Saturday last, the ice on the river was from eight to ten inches thick and heavy teams passed over it. But the continued warm weather of Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, so completely relaxed it in strength and solidity, that it was carried off on Wednesday noon, with a rise of only about two feet of water.
Wednesday and Thursday were more like days in April, than January.
