Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects. I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits habelieves himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the bope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more rendily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Ibr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prepadent against them for many years, under the inquession that they were chiefly at alcoholic mixture. I ma indebted to use friend Robert Sheomaker, Esq., for the remarked of this prejudice by proper tests, and for entenancy of this prejudice by proper tests, and for entenancy of this prejudice by proper tests, and for entenancy of these litters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor wines I had not fell for six months before, and had simust departed of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing to the use of them.
