CO. COUNTY CONVENTION.
The members of the Union Party of Northumberland County, are requested to meet in the different Townships and Birth rights of the County, on Saturday the 6th of August, to elect delegates to attend a County Convention, which will assemble in Sunbury, on Monday the 8th of August, to nominate candidates for Congress, Legislature, and the County Office, to be held at the October election. It is of the greatest importance that each District in the County should be represented.

C. B. SMITH,
Chairman of Standing Committee.

The news from Grant's army is that it will certainly capture Richmond.

Sherman's army in the Southwest accomplished wonders. His march from Chattanooga to Atlanta, has been a triumph. Our losses in the recent battles, estimated at 8000. Our men found 3000 rebels on the field, which, according to usual proportions of killed and wounded, would make the rebel loss 18000.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The August number has come to hand, and is handsomely illustrated with engravings and fashion plates. It contains the usual variety of reading matter.

THE AMENDMENTS.—We again call attention of our Union readers to the importance of turning out to the election Tuesday next, the 2d of August. It be the friends of the soldiers to turn and poll every vote. There is, no doubt, majority of the people of Pennsylvania in favor of the soldiers amendment, but the danger of defeat through apathy and non-confidence. We exhort, therefore, every man of the soldier to turn out and do his duty on Tuesday next.

The Great Battle at Atlanta.

LOUISVILLE, July 23.—To-day's Nashville Union says that a telegram from General Sherman says the enemy attacked General Thomas on Wednesday forenoon and was handsomely repulsed and roughly handled.

The Union adds that the two armies are now on level ground, and the fighting is more nearly equal.

NEW YORK, July 23.—A Washington despatch dated last night, says that the battle of Thursday between Sherman and Hood's (late Johnston's) armies, was very severe and bloody, and the defeat of the Rebels most complete. They were driven back into their fortifications with a loss from six to eight hundred killed, and our forces held the field with about four thousand wounded.

All the lines of retreat had been cut off by Sherman except the one via Macon, and that has probably been attended to before this time.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Atlanta was visited in our hands yesterday, so completely is it under the grasp of Sherman from his positions gained, and we are satisfied that he now occupies it fully, all the fighting with Johnson and with his successor, Hood, having resulted disastrously to the enemy. Sherman cut the rebel telegraphic communications with Montgomery, Natchez, on the 17th, by a cavalry expedition, which was at Talladega on Saturday, and which was undoubtedly heard from very soon as having played the mischief generally with the Rebel communications with Atlanta.

The Rebel General John B. Hood, heretofore only a division commander, took command of the Rebel army in Georgia on the 18th. He owned his appointment over Hardee and others to the fact that he alone of Johnston's captains has been fiercely opposed to Johnston's retrograde movement.

He was appointed upon to resist Sherman's advance at every hazard, but it seems he has been no more successful than Johnston.

General Bragg reached Atlanta on the 18th.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Republican, extra says: "The Government is in receipt of a despatch to-day from the telegraph operator at Chattanooga, via Louisville, in the following words:—

Atlanta is not ours yet. Our forces find strong opposition. It seems that we are in possession of a part of the city, but the enemy holds the rest."

The Republican extra also announces the following official news of the battle before Atlanta on Wednesday last:—

An official despatch from General Sherman, dated the 23d, announcing that the day, General Howard, commanding the Fourth Corps, sent word that he had buried two hundred dead rebels in front of his lines, and a large number of wounded were lying on the field.

General Hooker, commanding the Twentieth Corps, in advancing his lines on Wednesday, met the enemy in an open field, and a most desperate battle, lasting several hours, was the result.

The enemy was thoroughly whipped and driven from the field. After the battle General Sherman reported to General Sherman as follows:—

"I have buried four hundred dead Rebels and four thousand wounded are lying on my front."

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Official details of General Sherman's battle on Thursday show that it was a brilliant and decisive success.

Hood abandoned the field and fell back to his fortifications, leaving all his dead and wounded in our hands, while nearly four thousand prisoners were taken. Our loss was but 200 men.

NASHVILLE, July 23.—Reports which are well authenticated place the occupation of Atlanta by General Sherman beyond a doubt.

No particulars have been received here. Protest Marshal Goodwin received a telegram from Atlanta on the 23d, announcing the possession of that place by our forces.

BALTIMORE, July 24.—A private despatch, which has been received here by a relative of Major-General McPherson, residing in this city, dated near Atlanta, July 23d, announces that General Sherman's accomplished chief was killed in battle on the day previous, and that his remains would be sent home for interment in charge of members of his staff.

LOUISVILLE, July 23.—Major Norcross, Local Postmaster at Covington, telegraphs to Major Allen, Chief Postmaster at this post, that Major-General McPherson was killed in battle to-day before Atlanta.

Another correspondent adds that he was shot fatally through the lungs.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The latest official despatches from General Sherman represent that he has had much fighting since crossing the Chattahoochee, and give the circumstances attending the death of General McPherson, who was killed in the severe contest on Friday last.

From General Sherman's Army.

NASHVILLE, July 26.—Official news from the front at Atlanta is meager; but no reverses are reported.

General Sherman still maintains his position and is vigorously advancing.

Gen. Ransom has successfully fulfilled his orders, and reports a loss of only twelve of his command.

Gen. Garrard's expedition has been successful in destroying the bridges at Covington, forty miles east of Atlanta, destroying the railroads at Covington and Conyers, and capturing 2,000 bales of cotton and a large number of train cars, and capturing two hundred prisoners and a number of horses.

Our loss in the recent battles will foot up something less than 2,000.

We have found over 1,600 dead rebels, which is nearly a proportion of the wounded. Our cavalry would probably intercept their retreat long enough to enable our infantry to come up.

The rebel lines were to have been assaulted on Saturday.

Two rebel brigades were killed and two wounded.

Another Report.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—[Special to the Tribune.]—A despatch from our army at Atlanta, received by the Government, this evening, estimates our losses in Friday's battle at about 3,000, and that the rebels at about 6,000. About 800 dead rebels were buried in front of our left wing.

The fighting is described as having been the most desperate and sanguinary since our first campaign with the bayonet, each time being repulsed with much slaughter, and finally driven into their fortifications.

The rebels had destroyed all their immense depots of provisions in Atlanta, and it was believed was retreating by the Savannah route. Our cavalry would probably intercept their retreat long enough to enable our infantry to come up.

Two rebel brigades were killed and two wounded.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Auditor's Report. To the Burgess and Council of the Borough of Sunbury, Penn'a.

The undersigned, the Committee on Finance report that they find uncollected Borough orders amounting to the sum of $1,237 70, and find that the greater part of the same is unpaid, and do not report that amount of orders remain unpaid, but only that they are uncollected on the account of the Treasurer, viz:

The Treasurer paid and encashed on their books, orders (through and read) to the sum of $1,218 80.

The Treasurer paid and encashed orders for Poor purposes to the sum of $1,063 51.

The Poor orders uncollected, amount to $151 22. The most of these probably remain unpaid to the date of the closing of the account with the Treasurer, viz: the 1st of March, 1864.

We audited the accounts of the collector of Borough, Poor and Road Taxes of 1863. This statement is brought down to the 11th of April, 1864, the date of the report. At the date of the report the balance on account of all their taxes instead of paying on account of all their taxes instead of appropriating the same to one or the other, or specific funds to which we could not ascertain the amount of each tax outstanding but have exhibited the amount of the three combined. The uncollected taxes amount to $1,063 51, subject to such abatements as may be allowed.

We have stated an account between the Borough and John Diemer, collector of taxes for 1863, heretofore uncollected, and find and report a balance to his credit of $109 24.

We have stated accounts with John W. Bucher, Treasurer, in respect of Borough and Road Taxes, and also in respect of the Poor taxes, heretofore uncollected, and find and report a balance to his credit of $1,063 51.

The balance in the hands of Peter W. Gray, Treasurer, was $140 17. Of this he paid Treasurer Bucher as charged in his account $125, leaving a balance still due of $15 17.

In the accounts with the Treasurer we have not allowed anything for his commission. We believe that two per cent. on the gross amount of all orders paid has heretofore been paid to the Treasurer, and which properly belongs to his account for the current year. The balance in the hands of Peter W. Gray, Treasurer, was $140 17. Of this he paid Treasurer Bucher as charged in his account $125, leaving a balance still due of $15 17.
