

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 20, 1864.—Some time since copies of the trial of the O. A. K. were found in the office of Col. W. Voorhees, at Terre Haute, which naturally led to the inference that they were the property of Col. W. Voorhees.

FOR PRESIDENT: ABRAHAM LINCOLN, Of Illinois. FOR VICE PRESIDENT: ANDREW JOHNSON, Of Tennessee. National Union Ticket.

ple are soul sick, and heartily tired of this bloody, hopeless strife. They would end it if they could; but our would-be rulers will take good care that no opportunity be given the people to vote against it.

First. "That the office in which it is said these papers were found had not been occupied by you, or by any one connected with you, or been in any way under your control since last November."

COUNTY UNION TICKET. For Congress: JOHN D. PACHER, of Sunbury. Subject to the decision of the Conference of the District For Assembly: JACOB M. FOELLMEYER, of Turbut.

There is certainly no small proportion of our people who are in the lying declaration to learn that not only have the progress of our arms, but that daily pray that this exterminating war may soon be brought to a finality by our complete and perfect success.

Second. "You desire to ascertain whether the circumstances connected with the discovery of these papers in that office led to the supposition that you placed them there, or were even aware of their existence?"

TO OUR PATRONS AND THE PUBLIC. Owing to the present high price of paper, labor, printing material and every article entering in our business we are compelled to make a corresponding advance in our charges for subscription, advertising and jobbing, agreed upon and adopted by the publishers and printers of Northumberland county, to take effect on and after the first day of September, 1864.

It is not equally true in policy? Certain it is that the only remaining hope of the South lies in Mr. Lincoln's defeat. Now, I am not arguing a politician to know whether the election of a Democrat can result as favorably to the South as it anticipates.

Third. "The ritual had been issued in the autumn of 1863. Your Congressional documents were found in the office where 'these papers' were found."

RATES OF ADVERTISING. One square of 10 lines 1 time $1.00. Every additional 100 copies, 1.50. " " " " one month, 2.50. " " " " three months, 4.50. " " " " six months, 6.00. " " " " one year, 10.00.

THE CONDITION OF THE SOUTH. Letter from General Seymour, lately a Prisoner of War. New York, Friday, August 19, 1864. To the Editor of the New York Times.

Fourth. "The correspondence of E. C. Hibben, who assures you that 'the Democracy are fast stiffening up when this war is to be opened against the negro,' which will arouse another section of the country to arms, and declaring that 'Lincoln bayonets are shouldered in the office where these papers were found.'"

THE FISHING CREEK CONFEDERACY. We do not hear much of the action of these benighted and deluded men. Their organization, like the courage, has evaporated. The presence of some six or seven hundred soldiers, with a section of artillery, under the command of Lieut. Col. Stewart, has had a wonderful effect.

What folly, then to struggle on in this way when we can send to the field five times the force already in the field? We can crush them. Even at this moment a third column of 40,000 to 50,000 rightly moved would give unopposed blows to the confederacy from which she could never rise.

Fifth. "The correspondence of J. J. Bingham, who asks you 'if you think the South has resources enough to keep the Union forces at bay?' and says that 'you must have sources of information which the Union has not.'"

THE UNIONISTS OF SCHUYLKILL COUNTY. The Unionists of Schuylkill county, have nominated Howard Fisher for Congress and Col. Henry L. Calk for Senator. W. W. Thomas, Seth W. Geer and Dr. J. C. McWilliams for Assembly.

Very few persons are preparing to obey the late call of the Governor. His summons will meet with no response here. The people are soul sick, and heartily tired of this bloody, hopeless strife.

On cavalry now full back to give Hancock a chance. On came the enemy fully confident, apparently, of capturing Hancock's position which lay along the railroad, and was occupied by two divisions of the 2d Corps, with twenty guns in position.

THE ATTACK ON HANCOCK'S LINES. DESPERATE BATTLE ON THURSDAY EVENING. Defeat of the Rebels. WASHINGTON, Aug. 27, 10.20 A. M. Major General Dix, New York.

THE ARMY BEFORE ATLANTA. New York, Aug. 30.—A rebel dispatch from Atlanta, dated the 23d inst., states that the enemy's scouts reported that another Federal raid, seven thousand strong, with nine cannon, had left Decatur, in the direction of Conoverton, Georgia.

THE CONTEST FOR THE POSSESSION OF THE WELDON RAILROAD. FORTRESS MOXON, August 29.—The following additional particulars of the great fight on the Weldon Railroad are from an eyewitness: The light was commenced on Thursday by Col. S. H. Spear, 14th Pennsylvania Cavalry, who was ordered to charge on the rebel works.

What their casualties were in killed and wounded, we do not know. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

THE ENEMY COMPELLED TO FALL BACK. The Fight still progressing. WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. Passengers by mail boat from City Point report that on Thursday a division of the 2d Corps in the vicinity of Ream's Station, on the Weldon railroad, were attacked about 9 o'clock in the morning, by a large force of rebels, supposed to be Hill's cavalry corps, and were compelled to fall back, which they did gradually, disputing, however, every inch of the ground, and fighting for most of the distance hand to hand.

THE ENEMY COMPELLED TO FALL BACK. At 5 o'clock the fight was still progressing, but our men had gained a secure position. An movement was being made calculated to put the enemy on the retrograde turn.
