

S. M. PETERSON & CO., No. 31 Park Row, New York, and 8 State Street, Boston, are agents for the Sunbury American in those cities, and are authorized to take advertisements and subscriptions for us at our lowest rates.

Local Affairs.

REWARD.—The undersigned offers a reward of TEN DOLLARS for information that will lead to the discovery and conviction of the person or persons who have been trespassing on his garden and stealing fruit and injuring his fruit trees.

H. B. MASSER.

Goods selling at Fair Prices, at the Dry Goods House of Eyrle & Landell, Fourth & Arch Sts., Philadelphia. Read advertisement.

Our readers will find in this issue the announcement of Messrs. Edwin Hall & Co., No. 26 South Second street, Philadelphia, stating they have offering their magnificent stock of dry goods at far below the present gold prices. Purchasers will do well to give them a call.

THE MEDAL.—The proceedings in relation to the presentation of a medal by one of the employees of the Northern Central Road, at this place, to a fellow employee, for services rendered on a trying occasion, has been postponed for the present.—The design of this medal is unique and original, and the description accompanying it, would, no doubt, be interesting to many connected with the road.

FALLS IN THE PRICE OF COAL.—Within the last few days there has been a heavy reduction in the price of coal varying in the markets from three dollars per ton. The stock has been accumulating and the market is dull while the general demand is falling off. Some of the operators propose to stop mining. In the Shamokin and Schuylkill region a reduction of 25 per cent. has been made and submitted to by the miners. In the Wilkesbarre region we understand the miners refused to submit to the reduction. But they came down, and so must all commodities, as the price of the rebellion approaches the price of gold comes down, as it is now doing under the vicissitudes of our officers of the army and navy.

SHORTLY.—Mr. George Timmer will be handling a revolution on Tuesday evening, that will sell in the night, the ball passing clear through the fishy part. The sound was severe, but no danger is apprehended from it.—Sassafras Herald.

Joseph Reed has been appointed postmaster at Lucknow, this county, vice E. F. Colket, resigned.

Letter from the Sunbury Guards, HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 1864.

DEAR WILBERT:—As there has been no train going back to Harper's Ferry, and our long and hurried chase after the Yankees, I have not been able to send you any account of our great and glorious victories. We have, this morning, a breathing spell, and I will profit by it and give you a short history of our doings.

On Monday, Sept. 19, we broke camp at two o'clock in the morning, and moved in the direction of Winchester. The 10th corps marched slowly for an hour when they stopped for two hours, hearing heavy firing they moved on and reached the top of the mountain, and pushed forward quickly, eager to join our main body in front. This fight was our first, and our last, and our only one.

At the election for precinct election officers in the State of Delaware, the Republicans have carried all the election officers in Wilmington, and the rest of New Castle county about even. Nothing is heard from the rest of the State, but the Democrats claim to have carried Kent and Sussex counties.

TRIAL AND FRIENDSHIP.—Herick Allen's Gold Medal Salutaris has had a trial among three million families, and is pronounced the best medicine in the known world. It is used always brings a smile to the household; it keeps them in health; it helps make the weak strong, and saves hundreds from that dreadful disease, dyspepsia. As you value health, use it. Most of the Grocers sell it, Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES. The beneficial effects resulting from the use of this Remedy is its extensive use for Coughs, Colds and Throat Affections, has brought out many imitations, most of which contain injurious ingredients. The Troches have proved their efficacy.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HATS! HATS!! SAMUEL FAUST, Tea and Groceries, Drug Store, Market st., SUNBURY, PENNA.

PROVISION, HUCKSTERING, & C. THE undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Sunbury, that he has commenced the "buck" store, and is ready to supply them weekly with choice provisions, such as Flour, Sugar, all kinds of FRESH BEEF and PORK, &c. &c. Persons desiring any of the above articles, will be promptly attended to, and their orders at his residence, in Hendrick's addition.

HENRY HARPER, No. 529 ARCH ST., Philadelphia, Has a large stock of FINE JEWELRY, SOLID SILVER WARE, Superior plated TEA SETS, SPOONS, FORKS, &c. &c. October 1, 1864.—4m

Washington House, NORTHUMBERLAND, PENNSYLVANIA. (Near the Bridge.) THE subscriber having leased this well known building, and the premises attached thereto, is prepared to receive the public, and is ready to accommodate them in the most comfortable manner. The building is situated in a healthy and pleasant location, and is well adapted for the accommodation of the public. For particulars, apply to the subscriber, at his residence, in Hendrick's addition.

BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, & C. THE subscriber, having opened in Thompson's Brick Building, 1111 North Second street, a large and complete stock of FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC LIQUORS, comprising the best brands of Brandy, Gin, Old Blend Scotch and Irish Whisky, Port, Sherry, Madeira, &c. &c. and also a large stock of the finest Champagne, &c. &c. Tax-drawers, by purchasing of me, save as much as the freight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

On Tuesday night our forces reached Sharpsburg, or rather on the hills, of the Winchester side. The next day we advanced about one mile, and camped on the position of the enemy. We lost our prisoners and retained possession of our wounded. I crossed over a part of the battle field, and found a sickening sight. Dead and dying covered the ground, wounded men gasping for breath and others crying for mercy. These were the scenes that met my eyes, and I was glad to see that they were further on in the battle field than our men. The rebels did so precipitately, that not to be deterred by their flight, they cut their way through from their waist and shoulders, and threw every thing they saw in the field.—Dead bodies were to be seen in the very town of Winchester, and on the outskirts, I saw one, breathing his last, who had been shot behind a stone fence, while trying to do the same trick to one of our own men. On the route through Mountain City, Middleburg and the bridge to Cedar Creek, evidence of their flight was seen. Dead horses, burned caissons, wagons, ambulances and the destruction of oxen. All these things were by the road side and in the fields, showing how hard pushed Early was in his flight.

COAL OIL LAMPS. I beg leave to inform my friends and the public generally that I have commenced the manufacture of COAL OIL LAMPS of every description and style of finish, at No. 38 S. SECOND ST., PHILADELPHIA. With my present facilities for manufacturing, and a practical experience of thirteen years in the management of the lamp business of some of the largest houses in the country, I feel myself that my experience and knowledge will enable me to offer to the public goods not equalled by any in regard to style and workmanship, and at prices competing with the lowest. I shall always endeavor to lead in offering to the public new and useful inventions in our line. I have also taken the wholesale agency for the sale of GEO. W. BROWN & CO'S Gasolene Lamps, Merat, Iowa. No. 35 S. Second St., Philadelphia. September 24, 1864.

To the Electors of Northumberland County. HAVING been solicited by numerous friends I hereby offer myself as a candidate for the office of REGISTER & RECORDER. Should they see fit to elect me, I will endeavor to fill the duties of said office to the satisfaction of all. Sept. 17, 1864. JOHN J. SMITH.

FOR RENT. A Furnished House from the 1st of November to 1st April to a small family without children, on the back part of the house, to a reliable couple who would take care of the premises. Also two excellent stoves—one a Gas-Furner. For further particulars inquire at this office Sept. 24, 1864.—2t

FOUNDRY & MACHINE SHOP. The undersigned having purchased of E. Y. Bright, Esq., his Machine Shop, Foundry, &c., and will be ready to receive orders about the 15th inst. Anything in the shape of engines, pumps, water for mines, &c., will be attended to. Being a practical mechanic, he will receive personal inspection and will be attended to promptly. WM. KENNEDY. Sunbury, Sept. 10, 1864.

A CARD. Having been placed in nomination by the Union Convention of Northumberland County for the office of Member of Assembly from this district, without solicitation, or in consent, on my part, and in total ignorance of the matter, I have declined to accept of the nomination, and I beg to thank you for the honor conferred upon me. I do not feel justified in declining it, and will cheerfully join with my fellow Union citizens in working for, and if possible, electing the ticket placed in nomination; knowing the cause it represents is a noble one worthy the highest efforts of every true citizen. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant. JACOB M. FULLMER. September 3, 1864.

JACOBO BECK, MERCHANT TAILOR, and Dealer in CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTING, &c. Fawn street, south of Weaver's. SUNBURY, PA. I inform the citizens of Sunbury and vicinity, that he has just returned from Philadelphia with a full assortment of FINE AND WINTER GOODS, OF EVERY DESCRIPTION AND QUALITY. His stock consists of Cloth, French Cloth, Black Dressing, and Black Cassimere, Black Satin, Figured Silks, Plain and Fancy Cassimere VESTINGS, which he will make up to order in the most fashionable and economical manner, and at the most reasonable terms. Any Goods not on hand, will be furnished from Philadelphia, by giving two days' notice. Goods furnished by customers will be made up to order as soon as possible. As he employs none but experienced workmen, persons may rely on getting their work done at his shop. Thankful for the patronage heretofore bestowed, he respectfully solicits a continuance of the same. Sunbury, Sept. 10, 1864.

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING. SWALLOW two or three heaped of "Beck's" "Tonic Bitters," "Sassafras," "Nervine" Anodyne, &c. &c. and one box of DR. BECK'S English Specific Pills—and be restored to health and vigor in less than a week. The pills are perfectly pure, pleasant to take, prompt and salutary in their effects on the broken down and shattered constitution. Old and young can take them with advantage. Imported and sold in the United States only by JAS. S. BUTLER, No. 427 Broadway, New York. P. S.—A Box of the Pills, securely packed, will be mailed to you on receipt of the price, which is ONE DOLLAR, postpaid. Money refunded by the Agent if your satisfaction is not given. Sept. 10, 1864.—3m

LADIES FANCY FURN! AT JOHN FAIRBANKS' Old Established FURMANUFACTORY No. 718 ARCH ST. above 7th, PHILADELPHIA. Have now in store a large quantity of FANCY FURS, including the LARGEST and most BEAUTIFUL sections of Fancy Furs, for Ladies' and Children's Wear in the City. Also, a fine assortment of Gent's Fur Gloves & Collars. As my Furs were all purchased when Gold was at a much lower premium than at present, I can enable you to dispose of them at reasonable prices, and I would therefore solicit a call from my friends of Northumberland County, and my friends! Let me know the name of your Store, and I will call and procure an article cheaper and equal to any other store in Philadelphia. Sept. 10, 1864.—3m

JUST OPENED Fall & Winter Goods, and SOLD CHEAPER THAN ELSEWHERE! ISAAC FURMAN, In Zellinger's Building, opposite Gearhart's Confectionery Store, Market Street, SUNBURY, PA. HAS just opened a well selected assortment of Goods, which he offers for sale at very low prices.

DRY GOODS! FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC, such as Cloth, Cassimeres, Muslins, Shetlings, Tickings, Calicoes, De Laines, Black Silks, Ginghams, Batmans and Sateen Shirts, Canton Flannels, Nankeens, Carpeting of all kinds. HATS & CAPS. Comprising, Hosiery, Gloves, Thread, Buttons, Suspenders, Neck-ties, Collars, Handkerchiefs, Hair Brushes, Tooth Brushes, Gum Kibbles, and Towel, Apron, Crochet-Needle, worked collars, fancy head dresses, tidy cotton, carpet building, &c. &c. Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Blank Books, Paper, Envelopes, &c. &c. FRANKLYN BEE. Of all kinds, such as Nails, Hinges and Screws, Door Latches and Knobs, Locks, and CUTLERY of every description. Also, Dyes, Drugs, Paints, Varnishes, Fish, Flaxseed and Benzine Oils, Glass, Putty, &c. Queensware and Glassware of all kinds. STONE AND EARTHENWARE. An extensive Stock of GROCERIES. Composed of Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Rice, Corn-starch, Macaroni, Barley, Baking-powder, molasses, Cocoa, and Cocoa Butter, and Spices, Salt, Fish, Mustard, &c. &c. Also, a large variety of BOOTS & SHOES, for Men, Women and Children. No distinction made in Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. Give us a call before you purchase elsewhere, we have found to be for us as any one else. Store-room in Ira T. Clement's building at the south-west corner of Market Square, near the Court House, Sunbury, May 21, 1864.

Sunbury High School. WILL RE-OPEN in the old Baptist Church, on the first day of August. The course of instruction embraces all the branches taught in Academies and Seminaries of the highest grade. TERMS PER SESSION OF 21 WEEKS. For Languages—ancient and modern—including Latin and Greek, $15 00 For English—Grammar, Geography, History, &c., 12 00 For Mathematics—Arithmetic, Algebra, &c., 10 00 For Natural Science, 5 00 For Drawing, 5 00 Tuition payable quarterly in advance. No distinction made in Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. Pupils can enter at any time, and will only be charged from the date they enter. For further particulars apply to the Principal, E. P. BOHACH. Sunbury, August 6, 1864.—4t

FISCHER'S DRUG & CHEMICAL EMPORIUM, Market Square, SUNBURY, PA. HAVING just returned from the City with an entire new stock of Drugs, Chemicals, Perfumery and Toilet Articles; to which he invites his friends and the public generally to call and examine. The Drugs and Medicines are all selected from the best importing houses in the Eastern market with the greatest care, so as to insure to his customers the most pure and reliable. The introduction of inferior nostrums.

PATENT MEDICINES. Of all kinds, such as Ayer's, Jaynes, McKittrick's, Holloway's, Whistler's, Hoodless, Scales, Clinton's, &c. &c. all other popular patent medicines, always on hand.

BRUSHES, Hair, Tooth, Nail, Cloth and Paint Brushes. Special care is taken to keep on hand constantly every variety of PAINTS AND CHEMICALS, suitable to the trade. Fancy Toilet Articles and the numerous articles which are generally kept in a well conducted establishment. In connection with the above articles, he also keeps on hand a large assortment of STATIONERY, such as Note-books, Pencils, Pens, Ink, &c. &c. Physician's prescriptions and family receipts compounded with the greatest accuracy and dispatch. All in the most desirable manner. Remember the place, Market Square, under the office of the "Sunbury American." R. A. FISCHER. Sunbury, June 25, 1864.

Supreme Court—Northern District of Pennsylvania. NOTICE is hereby given that the Supreme Court for the Northern District of Pennsylvania, will commence its annual session on the first Monday of October next, at the County Court House, in Sunbury, Pa. CHARLES PLEASANT, Pa. Sept. 10, 1864.

NOTICE OF CAUCUS FOR ARGUMENT AT OCT. 1864. 1 Forster & Love & Powell, Lyncaster county, 2 DeWitt & Clement, North do county, 3 Wootley & Roland, Lyncaster county, 4 Forster & Love & Powell, Lyncaster do, 5 Spaulding & Andrews, do, 6 Malone, et al vs. Sutter et al, North do county, 7 Forster & Love & Powell, Lyncaster do, 8 Nippens & township vs. Jersey Stone, Brothly, Lyncaster county, 9 CHAMBERS, PLEASANT, Brothly, Pa. Sup. Court Northern Dist. Pa. Sunbury, Sept. 10, 1864.

Leakwanna & Bloomsburg Railroad. ON and after Jan. 18th, 1864, Passenger Trains will run as follows: MOVING SOUTH. Passenger. Leave Sunbury, 4:20 P. M. " Kingston, 5:55 " Bloomsburg, 6:25 " " Danville, 6:55 " " Harrisburg, 7:15 " Arrive Northumberland, 9:45 MOVING NORTH. Leave Northumberland, 8:40 A. M. " Danville, 8:40 " " Harrisburg, 9:30 " " Bloomsburg, 9:50 " " Kingston, 12:12 P. M. " Sunbury, 1:30 " Arrive at Sunbury, 1:30 P. M. Passenger taking the New Train Service connect with the Express Train from Northumberland, arriving at Harrisburg, at 2:30 A. M., Baltimore 7:00 A. M., and at Philadelphia, at 7:30 A. M. The Mail Train from Northumberland leaves immediately after the arrival of the Express Train from Harrisburg, and arrives at Sunbury at 10:10 P. M. to reach points on the road during the next forenoon. New and elegant Sleeping cars accompany the night train each way between Northumberland and Baltimore, and Northumberland and Philadelphia. B. T. BOGGS, Supt.

Allentown Military College. Rev. M. L. HOFFORD, A. M., President. Major G. B. KENNEDY, Superintendent of the Department. THIS Institution, chartered by the State of Pennsylvania with full collegiate powers, will open on the 1st of September. Every facility is provided for an English Course, Scientific, and Military education under the best of instructors. Pupils are required in the Primary, Preparatory and Collegiate Departments to be large amount of the above goods at low prices. Watch and Fine Clocks, Repaired, by skilled workmen, and Jewellery, Engraving and Goldsmithing, in all kinds of Hair-work to order, at short notice. For Don't forget the old stand, No. 622 Market Street, Philadelphia. Sept. 10, 1864.—3m

FOR SALE. A Tract of Timber Land, below Tenbury bridge, containing about 30 acres. For further particulars apply to H. B. MASSER. Sunbury, April 13, 1864.—4m

NEW SUMMER GOODS. AT NO. 1 STORE. WEAVER & FAGELY, HATS & CAPS. DRY GOODS! FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC, such as Cloth, Cassimeres, Muslins, Shetlings, Tickings, Calicoes, De Laines, Black Silks, Ginghams, Batmans and Sateen Shirts, Canton Flannels, Nankeens, Carpeting of all kinds. HATS & CAPS. Comprising, Hosiery, Gloves, Thread, Buttons, Suspenders, Neck-ties, Collars, Handkerchiefs, Hair Brushes, Tooth Brushes, Gum Kibbles, and Towel, Apron, Crochet-Needle, worked collars, fancy head dresses, tidy cotton, carpet building, &c. &c. Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Blank Books, Paper, Envelopes, &c. &c. FRANKLYN BEE. Of all kinds, such as Nails, Hinges and Screws, Door Latches and Knobs, Locks, and CUTLERY of every description. Also, Dyes, Drugs, Paints, Varnishes, Fish, Flaxseed and Benzine Oils, Glass, Putty, &c. Queensware and Glassware of all kinds. STONE AND EARTHENWARE. An extensive Stock of GROCERIES. Composed of Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Rice, Corn-starch, Macaroni, Barley, Baking-powder, molasses, Cocoa, and Cocoa Butter, and Spices, Salt, Fish, Mustard, &c. &c. Also, a large variety of BOOTS & SHOES, for Men, Women and Children. No distinction made in Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. Give us a call before you purchase elsewhere, we have found to be for us as any one else. Store-room in Ira T. Clement's building at the south-west corner of Market Square, near the Court House, Sunbury, May 21, 1864.

Sunbury High School. WILL RE-OPEN in the old Baptist Church, on the first day of August. The course of instruction embraces all the branches taught in Academies and Seminaries of the highest grade. TERMS PER SESSION OF 21 WEEKS. For Languages—ancient and modern—including Latin and Greek, $15 00 For English—Grammar, Geography, History, &c., 12 00 For Mathematics—Arithmetic, Algebra, &c., 10 00 For Natural Science, 5 00 For Drawing, 5 00 Tuition payable quarterly in advance. No distinction made in Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. Pupils can enter at any time, and will only be charged from the date they enter. For further particulars apply to the Principal, E. P. BOHACH. Sunbury, August 6, 1864.—4t

FISCHER'S DRUG & CHEMICAL EMPORIUM, Market Square, SUNBURY, PA. HAVING just returned from the City with an entire new stock of Drugs, Chemicals, Perfumery and Toilet Articles; to which he invites his friends and the public generally to call and examine. The Drugs and Medicines are all selected from the best importing houses in the Eastern market with the greatest care, so as to insure to his customers the most pure and reliable. The introduction of inferior nostrums.

PATENT MEDICINES. Of all kinds, such as Ayer's, Jaynes, McKittrick's, Holloway's, Whistler's, Hoodless, Scales, Clinton's, &c. &c. all other popular patent medicines, always on hand.

BRUSHES, Hair, Tooth, Nail, Cloth and Paint Brushes. Special care is taken to keep on hand constantly every variety of PAINTS AND CHEMICALS, suitable to the trade. Fancy Toilet Articles and the numerous articles which are generally kept in a well conducted establishment. In connection with the above articles, he also keeps on hand a large assortment of STATIONERY, such as Note-books, Pencils, Pens, Ink, &c. &c. Physician's prescriptions and family receipts compounded with the greatest accuracy and dispatch. All in the most desirable manner. Remember the place, Market Square, under the office of the "Sunbury American." R. A. FISCHER. Sunbury, June 25, 1864.

Supreme Court—Northern District of Pennsylvania. NOTICE is hereby given that the Supreme Court for the Northern District of Pennsylvania, will commence its annual session on the first Monday of October next, at the County Court House, in Sunbury, Pa. CHARLES PLEASANT, Pa. Sept. 10, 1864.

NOTICE OF CAUCUS FOR ARGUMENT AT OCT. 1864. 1 Forster & Love & Powell, Lyncaster county, 2 DeWitt & Clement, North do county, 3 Wootley & Roland, Lyncaster county, 4 Forster & Love & Powell, Lyncaster do, 5 Spaulding & Andrews, do, 6 Malone, et al vs. Sutter et al, North do county, 7 Forster & Love & Powell, Lyncaster do, 8 Nippens & township vs. Jersey Stone, Brothly, Lyncaster county, 9 CHAMBERS, PLEASANT, Brothly, Pa. Sup. Court Northern Dist. Pa. Sunbury, Sept. 10, 1864.

Leakwanna & Bloomsburg Railroad. ON and after Jan. 18th, 1864, Passenger Trains will run as follows: MOVING SOUTH. Passenger. Leave Sunbury, 4:20 P. M. " Kingston, 5:55 " Bloomsburg, 6:25 " " Danville, 6:55 " " Harrisburg, 7:15 " Arrive Northumberland, 9:45 MOVING NORTH. Leave Northumberland, 8:40 A. M. " Danville, 8:40 " " Harrisburg, 9:30 " " Bloomsburg, 9:50 " " Kingston, 12:12 P. M. " Sunbury, 1:30 " Arrive at Sunbury, 1:30 P. M. Passenger taking the New Train Service connect with the Express Train from Northumberland, arriving at Harrisburg, at 2:30 A. M., Baltimore 7:00 A. M., and at Philadelphia, at 7:30 A. M. The Mail Train from Northumberland leaves immediately after the arrival of the Express Train from Harrisburg, and arrives at Sunbury at 10:10 P. M. to reach points on the road during the next forenoon. New and elegant Sleeping cars accompany the night train each way between Northumberland and Baltimore, and Northumberland and Philadelphia. B. T. BOGGS, Supt.

Allentown Military College. Rev. M. L. HOFFORD, A. M., President. Major G. B. KENNEDY, Superintendent of the Department. THIS Institution, chartered by the State of Pennsylvania with full collegiate powers, will open on the 1st of September. Every facility is provided for an English Course, Scientific, and Military education under the best of instructors. Pupils are required in the Primary, Preparatory and Collegiate Departments to be large amount of the above goods at low prices. Watch and Fine Clocks, Repaired, by skilled workmen, and Jewellery, Engraving and Goldsmithing, in all kinds of Hair-work to order, at short notice. For Don't forget the old stand, No. 622 Market Street, Philadelphia. Sept. 10, 1864.—3m

FOR SALE. A Tract of Timber Land, below Tenbury bridge, containing about 30 acres. For further particulars apply to H. B. MASSER. Sunbury, April 13, 1864.—4m

PUTNAM CLOTHES-WRENGER. THE ONLY reliable self-Adjusting Wringer. No Wood Work to swell or split. No Thumb-Screws to get out of Order. Warranted with or without Cog-Wheels. It took the FIRST PREMIUM at Fifty-Seven State and County Fairs in 1862, and it without an exception the best Wringer ever made. Patented in the United States, England, Canada, and Australia. Sample Wringer sent, Express paid, on receipt of Price. Energetic agents can make from 2 to 10 Dollars per day. No. 28 & 30, N. 1st St. No. P. F. $2.50 No. A. $2.50. Manufactured and sold wholesale and retail, by THE PUTNAM MANUFACTURING CO. No. 13 Platt Street, New York, and Cleveland, Ohio. No. 3, N. 10th St., N. C. NORTHROP, Agent.

WHAT EVERYBODY KNOWS, viz.—That Iron will galvanize and rust, and that a simple machine, better than a complicated one, that a wringer should be self-adjusting, durable, and efficient; that the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog-wheels, will rust-proof the clothes; that cog-wheel regulators are not essential; that the Putnam Wringer has all the advantages of a wringer, and is more durable; that all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made; that wood work is liable to rot and will wear out; that the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog-wheels, will rust-proof the clothes; that cog-wheel regulators are not essential; that the Putnam Wringer has all the advantages of a wringer, and is more durable; that all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made; that wood work is liable to rot and will wear out.

WE might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few.

WE might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few.

WE might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few.

WE might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few.

WE might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few.

WE might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few. We might fill the paper with testimonials, but in order to save space, we will only mention a few.