legally there is no such thing as "home" vote. The Copperheads originated the phrase, and have had a great deal to say about carrying the State on the "home vote," as though the home vote was a more sacred thing than that cast by our battle-scarred heroes of a hundred fights. We tell them they may sneer at the soldiers' vote as much as they please, their victories will live in history whether gained on the battlefield or at the ballot box. They will be felt in Washington as well as Richmond, and all loyal peohear no more about the home vote. It is all "home," whether on the battle-field or in the quiet retreats far removed from it.

Buckwheat cakes are now in season, and our readers will be gratified to learn that the crop never was more abundant or plentiful. No American breakfast can be complete without buckwheat cakes. The English are great on breakfast, and it is almost as much a custom to invite friends, especially literary and professional men, to breakfast, or to dinner, and, perhaps, more complimentary. Thackary, the great English Novelist and Satirist, speaking on this subject, says, "Commend me to an American breakfast," and one of the principal attractions of which, to him, was the inevitable buckwheat cake.

Church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia. I have known Hoodand's German Elitters favora-I have known Hoodand's German litters favora-bly for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to ma-ny others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and cuiling the attention of those afflicted with the disease for which they recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the affilieted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly, LEVI G. BECK.

Dr. Jackson :- Dear Sir :- I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate aphere. I have in all cases declined, but with a stead proof in various nces, and particularly in my family, of the use-es of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart fulness of Dr. Honfland's German Bitters. I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full centified that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may full; but usually. I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause

From the Rev. J. M. Lyons, formerly Paster of the Columbia [N. J.] and Milestown (Pa.) Baptist Churches. Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I feet it a plea-sure thus of my own mecond, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Eithers. Some years since being rauch afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often re-commended to persons enfechled by that termenting disease, and have heard from them the most flatter-ing testimonials as to their grent value. In cases of general debitty, I believe it to be a tent that can-not be surpassed.
