NEW DRUG STORE .- Mr. W. A. Bennett, of Lewisburg, having purchased the Drug Store of R. A. Fisher, Market Square, has neatly and handsomely fitted up the store room, and replenished his stock by the addition of a fresh supply of Drugs Paints, Oils, Glass, Liquors, &c., just received from Philadelphia. Mr. Bennett is a regularly educated Druggist, and has displayed taste and enterprise in fitting up his establishment. He has also charge of the Express Office, in the place of R. A. Fisher, re-

But little work was done on the new Court House last week, owing to the great difficulty of getting lumber over the railroad from Williamsport .-Workmen are now putting on the sheeting boards of the roof preparatory for the slating which will be commenced next week.

THE TYRONE TRAIN,-The passenger train between this place and Tyrone, by way of Lock Haven and Bellefonte, has been discontinued for the present. The train, we understand, was pretty well patronised, and was certainly a convenience to the traveling community. We trust it will be re-instated next spring

To Man.s. - The conversion of the night mail for Philadelphia to an afternoon mail, does not suit the convenience of our business men, and we trust will soon be remedied, and the night mail leave as previously, by the night Express train at 11.40 P. M. The companies talk of gotting a night baggage master at this place. They certainly need one. No one man can perform the duties by day and night.

To SAMBURG WINE .- This is one of the humbugs of the day, and not at all what it is represented in the advertisements. It is made in Jersey of the Elderberry, and was formerly called Sambuci wine. It is prepared similar to Blackberry and Currant wines, and in flavor, tut not as good.

DREE HUNT.—A party of five persons, consisting of Geo. Sanderson John Tomb, A. D. Rodearmel, Geo. W. & James V. Crane, of Jersey Shore with twelve dogs, returned on Tuesday with eight splendid deer, four of them averaged 167 pounds

COMMENDABLE.—The Alumni of Lewisburg University have taken initiatory steps for the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of their brother students who have fallen in the service of their country It is proposed to place a plain mar. ble shaft, in a conspicuous spot on the college cam-pus, permission having already been obtained from DUCKS .-- These splendid birds are now appearing along the Susquehanna. Sportsmen should PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS remember that they are only allowed to shoot them on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

MEETING OF THE GOOD INTENT FIRE COMPA-NY .- The members of the Good Intent Fire Company are requested to meet at the Court House, on Monday evening, next, at 7 o'clock. All the members are particularly requested to be present as there will be an election of officers for the coming year, and arrangements made for the proper care of company FANCY DRESS GOODS.

The Lewisburg Chromiele, speaking of the two Synods (Presbyterian and German Reformed.) recently held at that place, says : "Some few families may have been burdened-but, generally, Lowisburg hospitality proved equal to the emergency, and there are several chickens and potatoes left.' The German Reformed Synod recommended a consideration of a division of the Eastern into two or more Synods, and of an annual meeting of the Gene

HOTEL KEEPING -We understand the large lotels in Harrisburg are doing a very slim business We think the great harvest for hotel keepers is drawing to a close. In Philadelphia landlords have made ortunch in a year by their extortionate prices. When rices range from $3 50 to $4 50 per day, as they, o now, the clear profits are estimated to be not less hen $2 to $2 50 per day on each guest. No wonder nat fortunes of $100,000 are made in a year. But to time is coming when people will retuse to er

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for November, is published, with an excellent table of contents. The principal contributors are Robert Date Owen, J. G. Whittier, Donald G. Mitchell, Mrs. H. B. Stowe, John Neal, Dr. O. W. Holmes, and other favorites of the Atlantic's large circle of readers. The lovers of light literature will find "The Porge" a story of more than ordinary interest, while those who seek more solid food will find it in "The Progress of the Electric Telegraph's, and a masterly sketch of the life and gentus of "Alexander Hamil-ton." Boston: Ticknor & Fields. $4 a year.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS .- The contents of the November number of this excellent Magazine, will delight its youthful readers. The contributions are by some of the best American authors, and are ad-mirably adapted to the entertainment and instruction of the juvenile mind. Among the articles most worthy of notice, we may name "How a Pine Tree did some Good," "The Boy of Chickmanga," "Sir Walter Scott and his Dogs," and Sunday Afternoon Ticknor & Fields, Boston, are the publishers, and the MORNING MAILS. - The Philadelphia morning mail is carried past this place on an average three times a week, of late. Something should be done in this matter, and that very promptly.
