

To Those Interested.—Our patrons all know that our expenses are now twice as much as formerly. In our business we must pay the cash for all we consume. We therefore ask the favor of our patrons to remit us the amount due us, though it may be small. The large amount of small bills outstanding when brought together, will be an important item and greatly aid us in our business.

Local Affairs.

The staking for the roof of the new Court House has arrived, and workmen are now engaged in covering the building.

The Swiss Band, consisting of the Peck Family, Swiss Bell Rings, Violinists, Harpists and Pianists, will perform at the Court House, in this place, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week, November 27th and 28th. They perform with 240 silver bells manufactured expressly for them and afford a magnificent variety of the prettiest of the public.

We would call attention to the advertisement of Harkins & Co. in another column. They want Agents to sell fine Steel Engravings, and offer good inducements. They are in the business of engraving and have the reputation of dealing promptly and honestly with their customers. Many of our young men may find it very profitable to employ their spare time in selling for them.

J. N. De Barry, the President and Gen. Superintendent of this well managed Railroad, was in town on Wednesday last, and we understand decided to abandon the use of their temporary sheds and engine house in the lower part of the borough, using the shops of the P. & E. R. Co., now nearly completed. Should it be determined, also to remove the Passenger Depot, "Cokeville" will become to Sunbury, like "Herdville" to Williamsport, a decidedly unpopular.

D. C. Disinger is prepared to letter Tombstones in any style, and when desired, will furnish the most appropriate inscriptions for departed friends. Give him a call, at his shop, opposite the Court House.

Blended Winter Clothing at Moderate Prices.—J. E. Smick, Fashion tailor opposite Weaver's Hotel, is supplying his customers with the most elegant clothing at moderate prices. His garments and suits to order are models of style.

Valuable Hotel Property for Sale.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of J. W. Covert, who offers for sale the well known Washington House, in this borough, a valuable Hotel property, located on the corner of Market Square and River street, immediately opposite the new Court House. The location for a hotel is perhaps the most desirable in the borough. Those who desire to enter into this business will not find a more favorable opportunity.

Evening Apparel.—On Monday night, at a fashionable Mr. Whittier, one of the Foremen of the new Academy Shop, in company with a friend, were there found two colored men, journeymen barbers, in the shop of James Washington, also taking in the building of Charles Pressing, Market Square. It is believed that they had been invited to the shop, and were there to take a lesson in the art of shaving. Mr. Whittier's request to share them, used some insolent language, when the friend of Mr. Whittier replied that a nigger was a nigger the world over. The latter told him if he reported that he would be sorry for it, which he did. They left and shortly after Mr. Whittier left to go home, and on turning the corner, near the barber shop, close by, he was necked down and stabbed through the neck. As man was approaching they fled, and Mr. W. managed to crawl back into the shop. A warrant was immediately procured, but the darkies, who were on the windows in the shop, threatened the ostensible if he attempted to break in. F. E. Washington, the proprietor, was sent for, who opened the door, when the two men were arrested and bound. Under the counter of the shop, a sword case was found, which from the appearance and size of a wound, is supposed to have been the instrument used by them in stabbing Mr. Whittier.

Seminary & Boarding School.—We are pleased to learn that the large three story brick building, now under way, belonging to the McCarry estate, has been purchased by some gentlemen in this city, and will be converted into a Seminary and boarding school. The building, which is commodious, well adapted for the purpose, will be fitted up soon as possession can be given. The Principal of the school is the Rev. Mr. — a gentleman from Chester, who comes highly recommended as a competent teacher, having had considerable experience in that capacity in the south. This is a desirable and well needed movement and one that has every reason to believe is a success. There is scarcely a town on Susquehanna so deficient in schools as Sunbury, where a better opportunity is presented.

Change of Date.—A new schedule or time-table, published in another column, regulating the passenger trains on the Philadelphia and Erie and Northern Central roads, took effect on the 20th inst. The Erie mail train east, now leaves this place at 3:30 P. M., instead of 3:40 P. M., and west at 2:05 A. M. The Sunbury Accommodation leaves for Harrisburg at 7:30 A. M., half an hour later. These are the most important changes in the schedule.

Williamsport.—Having occasion to visit Williamsport a few days since, we took the cars of the Erie Express, but found on our arrival at that the train no longer stopped at that small and that the depot had just been removed to a new and more important village just erected, about one mile above. It is true street cars are run to and from Williamsport, for the accommodation of the passengers that may yet have to visit that place before it is entirely replaced by it. These things necessarily create great dissatisfaction with the shortness of Williamsport, and let us hope that the Erie will be the company for a while of their agents having located the town a mile or two above.

Howards Ferry.—The officers of the Association in a temporary way, in Philadelphia will the find many arrangements of the Association, and the election of the board of directors. James Pollock is President of the Association.

The Muncy Lumbermen's Association, it is with sincere joy that we announce the death of our young friend, Mr. M. Kelly, of this Borough. His death, as found along the railroad track, about a mile from Muncy, on Wednesday night, he having been killed, it is supposed, by some iron train.

Struck Oil.—We are glad to be able to announce a company in which Mr. Ira Clement, of this place, has developed a 30 barrel well in the town of Muncy. This kind of news brings about $30 per barrel. We learned the extent of Mr. Clement's well.

The Grave of Lord Harrington.—The spot selected in Westminster, Albany as the last resting-place of the late Premier is in the north transept, where he buried Castleshire, Viscountess of the Canings, Charles James Fox, Earl of Chatham and his brilliant son, and a host of worthies whose names have adorned this country's history. The grave is close to the hideous monument of Lord Clatham, at the great north door, entering from St. Margaret's churchyard, and on one side of the grave lies the body of Fox, and on the other those of the two William Pitts.—London Times Oct. 25.

Mr. Buchanan, who lives in Lancaster county, has read the proof of his "Last Day's Address and Confession," and it will appear in book form next month. Mr. B. was formerly President of the United States.

The Robber Time, that steals the sweetness from all fruits and flowers, is buffed by Phlox's "Night-Blooming Cereus." Its aroma is less perishable than that of foreign extract, essence or toilet water, and incomparably more delightful. Sold everywhere.

Public Speakers, Military Men and Sisters, and all suffering from Irritation of the Throat and Hoarseness will be greatly surprised at the almost immediate relief afforded by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Trochees." These demulcent ingredients allay pulmonary irritation, and afford public speaking or singing, when the throat is worn and weakened by too much exercise, their use will give renewed strength to the vocal organs.

"DON'T BE FOOLISH."—You can make Six Dollars from Fifty Cents. Call and examine an invention urgently needed by every body. Or a sample sent free by mail for 50 cents that retails easily for $3, by R. L. W. COYNE, 170 Hatham Square, N. Y.

"ATTENTION, SOLDIERS OF OUR LATE ARMY."—Many Discharged Soldiers have claims of which they have no knowledge. By sending for a Circular to L. Brown & Co., of No. 2 Park Place, N. Y., information will be furnished which will be valuable. Oct. 21, 1885.—St.
