

Speech of Mr. Sherman on the Admission of Southern Members. In the Senate, on the 29th ult., at one o'clock, the regular order was taken up, being the concurrent resolution declaring that no Senators or Representatives from the lately rebellious States shall be received in either House until such State shall have been declared by Congress entitled to representation.

I will remember when he stood in this very spot five years ago, repelling with unexampled courage the assaults of traitors. He was in their hands wife, children, property, home, and state. He was in their hands. I will remember that when a retreating general would have left Nashville to its fate, that again, with heroic courage, he maintained his post. I will remember the fierce conflicts and trials through which he and his fellow patriots passed. I will remember the noble and heroic conduct of the Confederacy. I will remember the struggle he had with the aristocratic element of Tennessee, never ashamed of his origin, and never far from the heart of the people.

SUMMARY OF NEWS. In Boone county, Ky., returned rebel soldiers are murdering negroes, and have ordered the departure of the Government officials. A military force has been sent to quell the disturbance. A number of ex-rebel officers have been engaged for the Chilian navy. Ten left Panama, for Chili, recently, in a Chilian war steamer. In San Francisco the thermometer has ranged 20 degrees above zero all winter. A vast quarry of gypsum has been discovered in Nevada. It is as clear as ice, and can be used for building purposes.

In Italy, the newspaper editors hire people to go to jail for them when their journals are suppressed. The editors continue writing, while their substitutes receive the punishment. A flock of wild geese kept pace with a train of cars on the Hudson River Railroad, going about thirty miles an hour, the other day, when they changed their course. The new railroad bridge across the Hudson river, at Albany, is 4,800 feet long, and cost $1,200,000. It was one year and eight months building. The first train of cars passed over it on Thursday last. It is a great improvement and worthy of the age. A cotton company, with a capital of $1,000,000, has been formed in Galveston, Texas. A large cotton factory has been established near San Francisco. The California Legislature has offered premiums for the encouragement of cotton manufactures.

DEATHS. In Sunbury, February 26th, 1866, Mrs. SARAH THOMPSON, relict of Wm. A. Thompson, aged nearly 70 years. Mrs. T. lived a truly christian life, and although long and sorely afflicted, died in the triumph of faith, leaving the very best evidence of a full preparation for death, and is now at rest in the Paradise of God. Buried in the Sunbury cemetery.

HORACE GREELEY'S HISTORY OF THE WAR—THE AMERICAN CONFLICT IN TWO VOLUMES. Elegantly illustrated with 144 portraits on steel; numerous maps and diagrams of battle-fields, views, etc. 125,000 copies sold. Volume I. of this history, published almost two years later than any other, nearly every other work in the series, has sold over 25,000 of the purchasers of these early works, and is everywhere recognized as the highest authority, even by the author's published opponents. Volume II. will be ready in a few months—the earliest day on which a well-prepared history of the war can be published. The entire work, bound in the history of the war—A. G. CURRIE, Governor of N. Y. It would be difficult to place two such estimates on the service Mr. Greeley has rendered our country by the preparation of this volume. It is a complete and accurate history of the war, and is everywhere recognized as the highest authority, even by the author's published opponents. THE NOMINATION OF GENERAL GEARY FOR GOVERNOR.—The Union Convention which met at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, nominated Gen. Geary on the first ballot. The vote stood, Gen. Geary 51, Ketcham 29, Moorhead 19, and White 5. It was evident, before the Convention assembled, that Gen. Geary would be nominated on the first ballot. Although tickets were issued for admission to the hall of the House of Representatives, the room was crowded several hours before the appointment hour, and tickets were of no account. It was with difficulty that seats were secured for the delegates. Wm. B. Mann, of Philadelphia, was proposed for temporary chairman by the friends of Messrs. Ketcham and Moorhead, and Lewis W. Hall, of Blair County, by the friends of Gen. Geary. The result was 81 for Louis W. Hall, and 56 for W. B. Mann. This was considered a test vote, and the subsequent nomination was a mere matter of form. After some debate on the appointment of committees, the convention adjourned till 5 o'clock P. M., when the convention was permanently organized by the election of Hon. John Covode as chairman. There was some warm discussion on the resolutions by Messrs. Cosma, Hall, McClure, Dickey, Marshall and others, after which the nomination was made with the result above mentioned. After the nomination, Messrs. Ketcham, Moorhead and White addressed the convention, warmly urging the election of Gen. Geary, who was also introduced and addressed the convention.

THE PRINCIPLE OBJECTION urged by the opponents of Gen. Geary, is that he was a democrat which certainly should not be considered a serious one by them, especially as they have nominated Mr. Clymer, until recent years a radical opponent of the democrats. On Saturday, the Lancaster papers mention the case of a party in that city who agreed to buy a West Virginia oil property from a New York broker for $5,000. He induced five other parties to go with him into the "ground floor" at $5,000 each; and then they put the property in the market in a ground stock company of 80,000 shares at one dollar each. After the stock had been sold it was discovered that the New York broker could convey no title to the premises, and the company, of course, burst up. But the innocent stockholders are not disposed to let the matter drop there, and the ground floor men have very properly been arrested and held to answer.

THE NEW YORK WORLD, which exerted all its powers in tempting the President to betray the party by which he was elected, now admonishes democrats not to make any entangling alliances, not to accept offices from the present administration, but to wait patiently when all the States again participate in the Presidential election. Mr. Rogers of New Jersey declared in Congress that to prohibit the payment of the Rebel Debt "is the very emblem and quintessence of despotism and tyranny." Mr. Rogers is spokesman for the Democratic side of the House. Tax payers and holders of Government securities will take notice.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Democracy of Dayton had a justification over President Johnson's veto of the freedmen's bureau bill, this afternoon, firing one hundred guns. Vallandigham made a brief speech, saying the Democracy were not elected to govern, but it is now their duty to stand by him. He announced a mass meeting in future for exultation. A flag floats from Mr. Vallandigham's window. Mr. POLAND, May I ask which flag it was? Mr. SHERMAN, I don't know; the despatch does not state. Mr. NYE, If he flew his own flag it was a rebel one. Mr. SHERMAN, Now I am aware of no rebellion more disgraceful than for us by our divisions to surrender to men who were enemies to their country in time of war, any or all of the powers of this Government. Who contributes in any way to the result deserves the execration of his countrymen, and he who is not elected to govern, but it is now their duty to stand by him.
