THE Fisy BILL, we learn, has passed both branches of the Legislature, and the Governor will, of course, signt. This will be glad tidings to the friends of themeasure along the river.

IN THIR NEW QUARTERS .- The Commis sioners, Regiter and Recorder, Treasurer and Prothonotary, no have had their offices temporarily in Mrs. Donn's building, have moved into the offices prepared $ them in the new Court House, which is rapidly aproaching completion.

WIRE WORKS AT SHAMOKIN -- An act has passed to Legislature granting permission to certain litteensof the town of Shamokin to crost water works.

DECLINE IN THE PRICE OF COAL -- We see by th New York and Philadelphia papers that coal has flen considerably in price in those cities. This doome news, as that article has been exerbitany high during the last two years. he Pottsville Journal, in its report of the coal trie of the Schuylkill region, says that prices have as lew a figure as it did in the first year of the re-

The coal dealers of this place have also reduced the price of soul. Mesers. Grant & Brother are now retalling the best quality of stove coal at $4 per ton, and not coal at $3.

Moving Day -The first of April occurring on Sunday, this year, Monday last was moving day. A large number of persons in this place changed their places of residence. The weather was very unpleasant, being cold and rainy, with mud ankle desp. At one time we counted some twelve or fiftgen wagons passing our office, all loaded with household

LE NEW POSTKASTER AT MILTON - Mr. Juhn S. Peterman has been appointed postmisster of Millon, and took possession of the office on Monday last. This is considered a very good appointment. The Miltonian compliments Mr. Lawrence, the retiring officer, very highly, and says that he has been a most obliging Postmaster, and in retiring parries with him the good wishes of ble personal friends.

TA JUVENILE FIRE COMPANY .- A polition is in otrolation, in this place, which has been numerously signed by our citisens, requesting the Good Intent Fire Company to give their old fire engine which has been out of service for some time, to an organized company of young men, which has lately

PICKPOCKETS ABOUT .- Wm. McGinly, who is employed on Peipher's Transportation line, was robbed of $150 on Friday night, of last week, by some expert picky-coket. Two of the employees of Fisher's ralous were also robbed of a smell amoun' of money and a watch. The supposed thief left in the cars the next morning.

The Financial Crisis — The enneuncement of the cuspection of several Bunks in the western part of the State, principally to the cil region, has caused a great deal of excitement in this wicinity, which seems to have been flooded with the notes of these Banks. With we are sorry that so many have been "hitten," we would merely tomind our readers that the sufer may be invest a small sum of money, without the locat fear of a "smash," or "suspension," is to buy one of those fashionable suite of ciothing, of the latest Spring fashion, and of the best quality, which our friend Jacob C. ums a very high compliment paid to our respected towman, Dr. J. H. Jeffrice. Mr Jeffries is couductor on the Accommodation train between this place and Lock Haven, and by his politeness and strict attention to duty, has wen the respect and esteem of the traveling community. We copy the agricle from the Williamsport Gazette, as follows:

Politic Rail. Road Conductors.—We are not in the habit of "puffing" a Railroad Conductor, or "any other man," unless we believe he truly merits it—and then we do it cheerfully. knowing that we will be endorsed by the public. It is too frequently the case that editors lavish their praise upon Conductors week after week, where it is not deserving, expecting some favor in roturn. We scorn a business of this kind. When we have occasion to travel with one who is unostentatious, and discharges his duty to the Company under whom he is employed with fidelity, as well as the traveling public, we have always a word to say in his behalf. Such a man is Dr. Jeffries, conductor on the Accommodation train between Sunbury and Lock Haven. He is unassuming and gentlemanly in his deportment, doing all in his power to make the passenger confertable and satisfied. POLITE RAIL ROAD CONDUCTOR .- We are not in
