Bernanny .- On Tuesday night last, the tailoring establishment of Mr. Jacob O. Beck, on Fourth street, was entered by burgiars, and a large amount of material stolen. The goods taken consisted of clothing which had been made to order, cloths, cassimeres, linenz. &c. The thieves effected an entrance into the building by prying open a door to be deposited in the State Library, in such a form leading into an alley. The loss by the robbery will amount to nearly three hundred dollars, and is quite a serious one to Mr Beck No clue has been ob tained of the robbers. Persons should be careful in purchasing elathing, &c., from all traveling venders, State Library, and where the officer has perished, as there is no doubt that a great many of them are that the friends of the gallant dead send such photoselling goods that have been stolen.

Car Violent Stone -On last Sunday afternoon this place and visinity was visited by a heavy shower regiment in which the officer served. of rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning and high winds. WE copy the following complimentary notice from the Danville American, of last week. Mr. Sanders, the gentleman referred to, formerly resided in Danville, and is proprietor of the popular boot and shoe store in Pleasants' building, Market street. He has stready established an excellent reputation for the superior article of boots and shoes which he is manufacturing at his establishment in this place. PLEASANT .- Though we always regret the loss of a good citizen from our community, because it de-tracts just so much from the volume of trade in our locality; still, it affords us pleasure to know that locality; still, it affords us pleasure to know that success erowns his efforts in a new location. We are led to these remarks from learning that our former townsman, Geo. S. Sanders, is doing a good business in the boot and shoe trade in Sanbury. We can only say to our readers, in this place, that they will find in him a good mechanic and an upright man, worthy of their confidence and their patronage.

Dn. J. H. Schung—Dear Sir.—For over filteen years I have been thoubed-with a severe cough, and sensity two or three times a year with more of less hemorrhage, which together, for the less few years, has kept me thin in flesh and too weak to do business of any kind without suffering. In August last I had a very severe hetario inge, and, according to the judgment of a good New York physician, I was classed as beyond the reach of medicine, and was advised to be prepared, to far as property matters were concerned, to leave this world at short notice. The physician (any my good friends) said that the first cold I had most prove total. Early in January I took a severe cold, and fortunitely was occupying rooms at No. 32 BOND STREET, directly over your office. I think about the 16th of January I procurad a bottle of your Pulmonic Syrup and conmenced taking it freety. My feet and limbs were very much awolice, and all the symptoms of a speedy death scemed to arcumpany my cold. I sent for my former physician, and stated to him that I was taking your medicines, and after the wing them to him, and having tested of them, &c., he replied: "You can take them if you take they will do you in charm." He said: "You know what I told you have under and the could be a fine total of the country to the country of th 288 53 ded my time bad come. Dn. Semence—Derr Sie :—About two years ago I was taken with a very troublesome cough soil a pain in my locast; seven is eight months passed a way without my dising anything for myself. Then I applied to a physician, who attracted me for about time months without resoluting me may service. I have obtained the advice and resultment of a physician, and also had the indvice and resultment of two other paysemas, but all to me purpose. During this burg space of time I was nearly dead; severa, time my freeds came to see me and without my sait late the spirit-world. I was confined to my bed two months at one time. My bounding was expectingly short. I gave up several times all hope of getting better; and m regarded getting well, that was entirely out of the question. And to think this say I am or setting out of the question. And to think this day I am well and hearty I was advised by some of my friends to try Dr. Schunce's Medicines. I accordingly bought bot he after hottle, until resched the notil; then I found a decided change in my cough for the better. I suffered severely from pulpitalism at the frest, and two weeks after I c amenced taking your medicine this difficulty could
