IT CROQUET .- Thus far the boys and young men have had a monopoly of athletic exercise, but in a great many places croquet is getting to be quite as important as base ball. A number of young ladies of this place have recently organized a club for the purpose of exercising in this new and fashionable game, and have already made rapid progress in the art. They practice almost every pleasant afternoon. The game is pretty, graceful and healthful, giving ample exercise to the limbs and chest.

A club of this character is also in existence in Northumberland, among whose members are several Indies who are considered first-class players.

TT BASE BALL -On Wednesday last a match game was played between the Agile Club, of Danville, and the Keystone, of this place, on the grounds of the Susquehanna Club, below town. The Danville boys arrived in the morning train, and returned in the 4.40 afternoon train. While here they were entertained by the Keystone Club, and partook of an excellent dinner prepared for them at the Washington House. The Keystone boys were victorious as will be seen by the following score :

"University Reform" is the oration delivered at the meeting of the Harvard Alumni, by Dr. Hedge. Every one will recognize the truthful and tively portrait of a "Distinguished Character." "The Bobolinks" is a deliciously light and sparkling poem by Christopher Pease Cranch. The interest of "Griffith Gaunt" grows more and more intense, and the lofty moral of the story is im-pressively developed. "The Johnson Party" is a polished and very caustic discussion of the political situation. "Lake Champlain" is a poem by H. T. Tuckerman. The remaining articles-valuable for their timeliness or intrinsic Interest-are: "Life Asurance;" "An Italian Rain-Storm;" "Incidents of the Portland Fire;" "Yesterday;" "My Little Boy;" "Reviews and Literary Notices;" and "The Chimney Corner," in which Mrs. Stowe promulgate: ione fresh ideas concerning popular amusements.--Ticknor & Fields, Publishers, Boston, Mass. thoughtful story turning upon incidents of the war.
