CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEE.-The Republican Conferees of this (14tb) district, at their third and last meeting or. Friday and Saturday, nominated Hon. GEO. F. it is useless to deny, greatly disappointed the friends of J. B. PACKER, Esq., who for obvious reason, which we need not now refer to, felt almost certain of success. Among them, however, we might mention the fact, that Mr. Packer was the representative of two counties, Dauphin and Northumberland, which poiled, in round numbers, over 15,000 votes. Mr. Miller represented Union and Sayder, which polled something over 6,000. or about as many as Northumberland slone, Mr. Patterson represented Juniata, with SPEECH OF HON. JOHN B. PACKER, OF SUNsomething over 3000 votes. Thus it will be | BURY .- On Saturday last an immense Union two-thirds of the voters of the entire district, or more than twice as many as either of the crowded, and the arrival of the afternoon other candidates. We refer to the above trains still added to the throng. The whole ill feeling, but in justification of Mr. Packer's fail to be productive of good. It was the friends, in maintaining what they deemed largest meeting that has been held in Hartheir just rights. But as Mr. Packer has risburg for many years. seen fit to yield his claims, looking rather to the success of the principles of the party,

Tuesday last :

JOHN. B. PACKER, ESQ.

"This gentleman, as is well known, was prominently brought before the Congressional Conference of this District for the nomination. He had two counties, and as the contest reached that stage when it was necessary for some one of the candidates to give way, people of the Fourthteenth District on the for the sake of promoting the harmony and result of the labors of their Conferees and the preserving the strength of the party, Mr. Packer did not hesitate a moment to inform didate for Congress.

Most of these girls were in favor of Clymer, and will help to make up the estimated majority of the party before the election. On one of the wagons, we observed a "dead duck" suspended from the branches of a tree. A canvass back or Republican duck, is a popular bird, but this, we learn, was a fish duck, such as are found in the marshes of the South, and might be construed to represent the democracy, at present. as rather fishy. On another was a tree, said to be hickory, with a boy in the branches, but others suggested that it was a coon on a palmetto. There was some anxiety to see the Freedman's Bureau, as it was called. Its appear. ance, however, caused some disappointment. It looked more like a cage than any thing else. The unsophisticated dimmicrats had looked for a rosewood, a mahogany or at least a black-walnut bureau, with Purdy's "nigger" of the same color, seated on top.

incredulous. They never saw a bureau of reau was making some explanations, which our reporter understood to be, that "the democracy was opposed to any thing black, whether in the shape of a bureau or a nigger,

There were only two speeches, one by Mr. Hogan, of Missouri, an the other by Hiester The Policy of the Union Party to Clymer, the Democratic candidate for Governor. Mr. Clymer's speech was made up chiefly of a defence of his opposition to the war and the soldier's right to vote, whilst in the Senate. A Mr. McEwen tried a while to engage an audience from a wagon, but are opposed by the friends of Mr. Clymer, did not succeed.

These acts merely placed the colored soldier upon the same footing "as other soldiers of the regular or volunteer forces of the United States of like arm of the corriger." States of like arm of the service." I quote the exact words of the law. The only discrimination that exist is in favor of the white soldier, who, by the act of July 28, 1860, is entitled to an EXTRA BOUNTY of one hundred dollars, which the colored soldier does not get. These Copperjohnson orators and newspapers know or ought to know, that these are the facts of the case. It is true that the colored man who served two years can get, and many of them have been paid, $100 bounty; so has the white man ; but the white man, by the act of July 28, 1866, is entitled to ANOTHER $100, which the colored soldier cannot get, as there were no colored troops in the service at the time for which this $100 extra bounty is to be paid. This bill was signed by President Johnson, and it is rather strange to see the friends of the President trying to bring discredit upon Congress for passing a bill which he himself approved, and which would not have become a law without his signature.

Why is this extra bounty of $100 to the tchite troops not paid ? The bill allowing it has passed both houses of Congress, and been approved by the President. There is money enough in the treasury to pay it; and if it is not paid, it is the fault alone of the President and his office-holders. They are withholding the payment of this extra bounty for no other purpose than to influence the elections. Let the white soldiers hold them

CORRESPONDENCE.

FORT MASON, ARIZONA, { July 6th, 1866. Editor Sunbury American:

I was this day the happy recipient I was this day the happy recipient of four copies of your paper; also other mail matter, all of which was very acceptable.— We are supposed to get a mail once per week, but this was the first we had for a month. Its arrival here depends upon four contingencies, to wit : The sobriety and vigilance of the mail rider ; the powers of endurance of the Jackass carrying it ; the hostile Indians, and the inclemency of the veather. I noticed in your paper an article referring to an Indian massacre, supposed to have occurred at Fort Goodwin, Arizona. It was a false report. It originated from the fact that there are about eight hundred Apaches, warriors, women and children, at Fort Goodwin, who are now being fed under treaty at that post by the United States Government. These same Indians are known to have com-mitted depredations upon citizens at a distance of one and two hundred miles from the Fort since they entered into a treaty there. The fact of them being fed and pro-tected at that Fort, in order to enable them the better to commit their unprecedented cruelties upon citizens and detached parties of other posts, enraged may people to such an extent, that the report originated simply because it was father to the wish. The Apaches are at present exceedingly troublesome. They are not brave, but cruel, cunning and treacherous. They invariably attack from ambush, never run any chunches unless they have a good prospect of captur friends of Gen. Geary.
