COURT COMMENCED IN THIS PLACE. The January term of court commenced in this place, on Monday last, his Honor, Judge Jordan and Associates, presiding, and continued in session until Wednesday afternoon, when it was adjourned to meet on Monday next. The Grand Jury made the following report:

The Grand Jurors, after having passed upon all business laid before them by the Court and District Attorney, (and they were much regretted to see that the criminal business of the county is so much on the increase,) proceeded to view the public buildings. They found that the public offices in the Court House are kept in admirable order. The officers being gentlemanly and obliging, are an honor to the county. We regretted to find two chairs and bedding for the female department, the pump and food repair. Also a partition thrown across the hall from the office door to the room door, to prevent persons from hauling anything to the room, that should first be put under all the stores, to guard against fire.

Commonwealth vs. Daniel Williamson. Indictment, for, and has. (Continued from last term.) Bound over in the sum of $300 to appear at next session of court.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

New Firm.—Messrs. Lavelle, Schaefer, C. H. Wolcott and Chas. F. Boshalis, having associated together under the name and firm of Schaefer & Co., announce in their advertising columns that they have opened a coal yard, at J. Haas & Co.'s lower wharf, Sunbury, where they are prepared to furnish the very best qualities of Shamokin coal, and respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage.

A Good Hotel.—We call the attention of the travelling public to the card of the Mt. Carmel Hotel, Thos. Burkett, proprietor, in our advertising columns. It is convenient to the depot of the Shamokin Valley and Quakake Railroads, in the heart of the coal region, and will afford superior accommodations to those who may have occasion to visit that section.

FRUIT TREES.—Mr. Benjamin Buhner offers for sale fruit and ornamental trees, shrubbery, vines, &c., at very low rates. His selections are of the very best nurseries, and persons will do well to purchase him. All trees, &c., ordered during the winter season will be delivered at the nearest railroad station, free of cost, in the spring. Mr. Buhner has had a great deal of experience in the business, and we can recommend him as being perfectly reliable. His address is Paxinoe P. O., Northumberland county.

GREAT REST AT SUICK'S.—The public are taking advantage of Suick's low prices, and are carrying his goods off, (after being made up into suits of all styles,) by wagon loads. He has just replenished his establishment with another supply of Cloths, Cassimeres, &c., which he proposes to convert into suits at reduced prices. If you desire to purchase a good article and at a reasonable figure, call on Suick.

A BEAUTIFUL FIRM.—We have seldom seen a more beautiful sentiment than the following: Tell me, you winged winds That round my pathway roar, Do you not know some spot Where peace and joy may dwell? Some store 'neath' full of boots, And pretty bows you know. Where once you buy all those At prices very low? The glad winds varied, and in a frightful roar, Did this plaintive voice call for aid. This popular store is in the old Boulton stand, Market street, Sunbury. Don't forget the place.

THE GENERAL VERDICT.—The general verdict approves the suits for girls, the suits for boys, the suits of all grades, made at the popular tailoring establishment of Jacob O. Beck, Fourth street. We advise all who intend replenishing their wardrobes, during the new year, to call on Beck, and examine his elegant assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, &c., before purchasing elsewhere.

A THEFTY YOUNG MAN married a rosy young Irish girl, quite to the horror of his mother and sister, but gave this piece of logic as the reason: 'If I marry an American girl, I must hire an Irish girl to take care of her, and I can't afford to support both.' Just so, if a man buys the cloth for his clothes, he has to take it to a tailor to make into a suit for him. How much more sensible it is to go at once to a ready-made clothing house, like the Continental Clothing Business, Market street, and get your clothes already made, which will fit any one who may desire the article.

SPECIMENS.—The beautiful specimens of the photographic art, on exhibition in Simpson's building, Market Square, Sunbury, tell the passers by, in unmistakable language, that E. Byerly is a first-class artist. Call up and get a life-like picture.

THE PRICE OF LIBERTY.—Patrick Henry truthfully observed that "Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty;" he might as truthfully have said that to become wealthy is to practice economy by purchasing your boots and shoes at Wm. H. Miller's Excelsior Boot & Shoe Store, Market Square, Sunbury. Money will be saved by buying of him, as he has the cheapest and best in market. Call and see him.

Pennsylvania Agricultural Society. EASTON, Pa., Sept. 28, 1905. One of the principal features of to-day's show was the American Cow-Milkers, led by A. C. M. M. Co. Three cows were milked to our entire satisfaction, standing perfectly quiet, although milked for the first time with the machine. The Cow-Milkers give us rare indications of a meritorious dairy, as the Sewing Machine or Reaper. We give this as a special award to them.

We keep on hand a full supply of all kinds of military blanks, which we sell very cheap. They are copied from blanks prepared in the Departments at Washington, and can be relied on for correctness. Consumption Curable by Dr. Schenk's Medicine. TO CURE CONSUMPTION, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. SCHEK'S MANDIARKE PILLS cleanse the stomach of all bilious or mucus accumulations; and, by using the Sea Weed Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored.

SCHENK'S PULMONIC SYRUP is nutritious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repair all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, Consumption very frequently in its incipient stage may be cured. Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not constipated they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhoea they are necessary. This stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and without any irritation. Then all that is required to prevent a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold. Exercise about the rooms as much as possible, and breathe fresh air. Do not get wet, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and meticulous well.
